for every library Property, Institutions, and Social Stratification in Africa Franklin Obeng-Odoom, 2020-03-26 In this book Franklin Obeng Odoom seeks to debunk the existing explanations of inequalities within Africa and between Africa and the rest of the world using insights from the emerging field of stratification economics Using multiple sources including archival and historical material and a wide range of survey data he develops a distinctive approach that combines traditional institutional economics such as social protection and reasonable value property and the distribution of wealth with other insights into Africa s development While looking at the Africa wide situation Obeng Odoom also analyses the experiences of inequalities within specific countries he primarily focuses on Ghana while also drawing on experiences in Botswana and Mauritius Comprehensive and engaging Property Institutions and Social Stratification in Africa is a useful resource for teaching and research on Africa and the Global South Economic Growth and Development in the Tropics Sook Rei Tan, Haejin Jang, Jacob Wood, 2024-02-06 The living standards and scale of development around the world are vastly unequal One notable observation is that much of the poverty stricken area is located between the tropics of Cancer and Capricorn By contrast affluent nations are situated in more temperate zones Such a phenomenon gives weight to the geography hypothesis that seeks to explain the occurrence of global economic inequality by placing an emphasis on the importance of natural elements such as location and climate in determining the economic conditions of a nation This book concentrates exclusively and in depth on the key economic phenomena and factors which shape tropical economies today It examines contemporary economic problems confronting the tropical countries and provides policy recommendations that align with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals set in the 2030 Agenda It contains research works and case studies of tropical economies that are related to the area of development and environment economics The book s themes range from economic growth poverty reduction income inequality economic globalization international trade capital flow financial development and institutional development to environmental sustainability within the Tropics Recognizing the dynamism and diversity of the tropics the book encompasses empirical and policy analyses that address the key economic issues and challenges in the region so as to provide an important platform from which new policymaking initiatives can flourish This book will draw readership primarily from the fields of economics and public policy particularly under the subject areas of development and environment economics as well as discussions in the sustainability policy space Congressional Record United States. K. Ramachandran Nair, M.R. Rao, L.E. Buck, 2013-03-09 It was in late 2002 that the idea of preparing a collection of multi authored chapters on different aspects of ag st forestry as a compendium for the 1 World

Congress of Agroforestry June 2004 was tossed around With the approval of the idea by the Congress Organizing Committee serious efforts to make it a reality got under way in early 2003 The rigorously peer reviewed and edited manuscripts were submitted to the publisher in December 2003 Considering the many different individuals involved in the task as authors and manuscript reviewers we feel quite pleased that the task could be accomplished within this timeframe We are pleased also about the contents on several counts First of all the tropical temperate mix of topics is a rare feature of a publication of this nature In spite of the scientific commonalities between tropical and temperate practices of agroforestry the differences between them are so enormous that it is often impossible to mesh them together in one publication Secondly several of the chapters are on topics that have not been discussed or described much in agroforestry literature A third feature is that some of the authors though well known in their own disciplinary areas are somewhat new to agroforestry the perceptions and outlooks of these scholars who are relatively uninfluenced by the past happenings in agroforestry gives a whole new dimension to agroforestry and broadens the scope of the subject Finally rather than just reviewing and summarizing past work most chapters take the extra effort in attempting to outline the next steps

Central Asia, 130 Years of Russian Dominance
Edward Allworth, 1994 For centuries Central Asia has been a leading civilization an Islamic heartland and a geographical link between West and East After a long traditional history it is now in a state of change With the breakup of the Soviet Union in 1991 five newborn Central Asian states have emerged in place of the former Soviet Central Asia and Afghanistan Central Asia provides the most comprehensive survey of the history of the impact of Russian rule upon the political economic social intellectual and cultural life of this diverse region Together these essays convey a sense of the region's community as well as the divisive policies that have affected it for so long Now in its third edition it was first published in 1967 and revised in 1989 this new edition of Central Asia has been updated to include a new preface a revised and updated bibliography and a final chapter that brings the book up to 1994 in considering the crucial problems that stem from a deprivation of sovereign indigenous leadership over the past 130 years This volume provides a broad and essential background for understanding what has led up to the late twentieth century configuration of Central Asia

Australia's Asian Sporting Context, 1920s - 30s Sean Brawley, Nick Guoth, 2013-10-18 This book examines Australia's sporting relationships with the Asian region during the interwar period Until now Australia's sporting relationships with the Asian region have been neglected by scholars of Australian and Asian sports history and the broader field of Australia's Asian context Concentrating on the period of the 1920s and 1930s when sporting relationships between Australia and a number of Asian nations emerged in a variety of sports this book demonstrates the depth of these previously under examined connections The book challenges and complicates the broader historiography of Australia's Asian context a historiography that has been strongly influenced by the White Australia Policy and the Pacific War Why for example did white Australia so warmly welcome visiting Japanese sportsmen at a time when the Pacific region appeared to be inexorably sliding into a war that was informed by racial antagonisms This book examines sporting relations between Australia and seven Asian countries China Japan India Netherlands East Indies Philippines Malaya and Singapore and a range of sports including rugby football swimming hockey boxing cricket and tennis
