ASPECTS OF LOVE

IN WESTERN SOCIETY

A very great writer, a formidable work.
One of the most important studies, if not the most important, that has ever been published on the "problems" of love.

ETIENNE OLIVIER Arts et Vie

Shrewd and fascinating . . . Intelligently knowledgeable and powerfully constructed.

Aspects Of Love In Western Society:

Aspects of Love in Western Society Suzanne Lilar, 1967      Aspects of Love in Western Society Suzanne Lilar, 1965

Aspects of Love in Western Society, 1965      Personal Relationships Across Cultures Robin Goodwin, 2013-05-13

Is falling in love the same the world over What makes a happy marriage in different cultures How does our society influence us in the way we raise our children Is modern life incompatible with intimacy In this innovative new text Robin Goodwin challenges many of the established views on relationships by considering how different cultures view different relationships love marriage friendship the family sexual relations By discussing fundamental differences in values between cultures alongside other key influences such as social class and education he explores why these differences occur and how different political and historical events have challenged existing patterns of relationships Finally drawing on research from all parts of the world he considers how we can use this knowledge to help different communities across the globe cope with their most pressing relational challenges Dr Robin Goodwin is Reader in Psychology in the Department of Human Sciences at Brunel University London He publishes widely on relationships and culture and lectures about his work across the world

Faith, Hope, and Love in the Kingdom of God Robert Hernan Cubillos, 2017-04-27 We live in a world full of challenges The three graces can almost be seen as motors for Christian life in today's world but the words faith hope and love have so many everyday uses that their technical theological meanings are for many difficult to appreciate Modern life also leaves many yearning for authenticity and meaning Many religions have answered that need by calling to mind the image of a path Always profound progressions religious paths tend to be motivated either by practices the act of walking the path or focal points Christianity has a focal point an object and it sees the three graces as distinctively content filled The heart of this book is about helping people find the Christian path and their intellectual emotional and spiritual balance an equilibrium that is sustained by a strong personal faith an enduring hope for the future and genuine love that will withstand the worst of times It contributes to the category of Christian literature that provides a pattern for Christian living without surrendering the intellect to the more popular side of this genre

Love in the Western World Denis De Rougemont, 1983-08-21 In this classic work often described as The History of the Rise Decline and Fall of the Love Affair Denis de Rougemont explores the psychology of love from the legend of Tristan and Isolde to Hollywood At the heart of his ever relevant inquiry is the inescapable conflict in the West between marriage and passion the first associated with social and religious responsibility and the second with anarchic unappeasable love as celebrated by the troubadours of medieval Provence These early poets according to de Rougemont spoke the words of an Eros centered theology and it was through this heresy that a European vocabulary of mysticism flourished and that Western literature took on a new direction Bringing together historical religious philosophical and cultural dimensions the author traces the evolution of Western romantic love from its literary beginnings as an awe inspiring secret to its commercialization in the cinema He seeks to restore the myth of love to its original integrity and concludes with a philosophical perspective on modern marriage      Screening the Dark Side of Love Karen A. Ritzenhoff, Karen Randell, 2012-10-15 How can love be understood globally as a problematic transgression rather than the narrative of happy endings that Hollywood has offered The contributors utilize varying methodologies of textual analysis psychoanalytic models and cultural critique and engage with a broad range of films to explore issues of gender identity and spectatorship      Love and Society Swen Seebach, 2017-04-21 Why does love matter Love and Society discusses the meaning and importance of love for contemporary society Love is not only an emotion that occurs in our intimate relationships it is a special emotion that allows us to relate to each other in a lasting fashion to create out of our individual pasts a shared past which enables us to project a shared future Bringing together the idea of Simmel's second order forms with theories of love this insightful volume shows that the answer to why love is so central to society can be found in the social transformation of the last two centuries It also explains how we can build our strongest social bonds on the fragility of an emotions thanks to the creation of special moments love rituals and intimate stories love myths that are central to the weaving of lasting social bonds Going to the cinema reading a book together or sharing songs are forms of weaving bonds of love and part of the cycle of love But love is not only shared between two people the desire and the search for love is something we share with almost all members of society With rich empirical data an analysis of love's transformation in modernity and a critical engagement with classical and contemporary theorists this book provides a lively discussion on the meaning and importance of love for today's society It will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students and postdoctoral researchers who are interested in fields such as Sociology of Emotions Sociological Theory and Sociology of Morality      Sex In The Western World Jean-Louis Flandrin, S. Collins, 2019-12-16 First Published in 1991 In this book the author looks at the history of sexuality discussing topics of love from the 15th century onwards sexual morality and marriage ancient and modern adages concerning procreation as a part of society and the sex lives of single people      Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts Victor Karandashev, 2016-12-24 This volume presents a conceptual historical anthropological and sociological review of how culture affects our experience and expression of romantic love What is romantic love and how is it different from and similar to other kinds of love How is romantic love related to sex and marriage in human history and across contemporary cultures What cultural factors mediate attraction in love These are some of the questions the volume explores through its interdisciplinary yet focused lens Much of the current research evidence suggests that love is a universal emotion experienced by a majority of people in various historical eras and in all the world's cultures Yet love displays in different ways because culture has an impact on people's conceptions of love and the ways they feel think and behave in romantic relationships This volume summarizes classical knowledge on love and culture while at the same time focusing sharply on recent studies and cutting edge research that has advanced the field Divided into three parts the volume begins by defining and analyzing the concept of romantic love and interdisciplinary approach to its study in cultural context Part II traces the origin and evolution of romantic love both in various places throughout the world and various time periods throughout history Part III presents the revolutionary expansion of romantic love ideas and practices in the late 20th and early 21st centuries in various parts of the world focusing particularly on the development of romantic love as a cultural ideal of the modern cultures Finally the book concludes by summarizing the major achievements in this field of study and predicts future development A timely and thoughtful addition to the literature Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts delivers thought provoking insights to researchers in relationship scholarship sociology anthropology and cultural studies and all those interested in the universal human concept of love Overall I find Dr Victor Karandashev is an excellent and fine scholar who has a firm grasp of both the fundamental principles of cross cultural research and of anthropology In our increasingly connected world Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts updates and adds to the descriptions and explanations of similarities and differences in romantic love across generations and cultures Romantic love encompasses the life span rather than being a phenomenon largely confined to youthful years The topic of this project concerns the deepest of our sentiments and pervades life from birth to death This book contributes to better knowledge of this phenomenon across generations Flix Neto Professor of Psychology Faculdade de Psicologia e de Ciências da Educação Universidade do Porto Portugal

The Dark Side of Love Jane Goldberg, 2017-07-12 Many mothers have disturbing fantasies of killing their children Husbands imagine with guilt cheating on their wives Parents stand on the brink of hitting their teenage children or may actually do so while the teens fabricate elaborate strategies of revenge Hurt pain uncontrollable rage and other forms of abuse also make up the dark side of love This landmark book has a bold thesis The denied dark side of love that can show us love's true nature By acknowledging our negative feelings we can come into the full spectrum of emotion and hear the message of our darker feelings without acting them out Through this we can increase our capacity for love To explain her perspective Jane Goldberg traces the development of love and hate from infancy She debunks simplistic myths about mother love and portrays the mother child bond in all its facets She explores the hidden recesses of family love and romantic love and shows how the acceptance of constructive expressions of anger jealousy and competition can enhance intimacy Drawing on case histories from her psychoanalytic practice as well as mythic stories Goldberg offers insights into the troubling but universal nature of the dark side of love In a highly accessible style she explores how to develop a psychological immune system to protect against the potentially destructive elements in relationships and allow for a constructive expression of love's dark side Her debate provoking book should be read by psychoanalysts and psychotherapists individuals who have suffered from the pains and hurts of love and indeed by those who are interested in human motivation and behavior

Studying Contemporary Western Society Margaret Mead, 2004 Few anthropologists today realize the pioneering role Margaret Mead played in the investigation of contemporary cultures This volume collects and presents a variety of her essays on research methodology relating to contemporary culture Many of these essays were printed originally in limited circulation journals research reports and books edited by others They reflect Mead's continuing commitment to searching out methods for studying and extending the anthropologist's tools of investigation for use in complex societies Essays on American and European societies intergenerational relations architecture and social space industrialization and interracial relations are included in this varied and exciting collection      Indigenous Literature of Oceania Nicholas J. Goetzfridt, 1995-02-28 Oceania has a rich and growing literary tradition The imaginative literature that emerged in the 1960s often reflected the forms and structures of European literature though the ideas expressed were typically anticolonial After three decades the literature of Oceania has become much more complex in terms of style as well as content and authors write in a multiplicity of styles and voices While the written literature of Oceania is continuously gaining more critical attention questions about the imposition of European literary standards and values as a further extension of colonialism in the Pacific have become a central issue This book is a detailed survey of the expanding amount of critical and interpretive material written about the imaginative literature of authors from Oceania It focuses on commentary and scholarship concerned with the poetry fiction and drama written in English by indigenous peoples of the Pacific Islands New Zealand and Australia The criticisms have appeared in academic books and journals since the mid 1960s They have developed to the point at which critical issues related to decolonization and the expression of ideas without having to first satisfy foreign expectations often determine the direction of such discussions Entries are grouped in topical chapters and each entry includes an extensive annotation An introductory essay summarizes the evolution of Pacific literature      Astrology and Western Society from the First World War to Covid-19 William Burns, 2023-10-11 This book gathers contributions on the topic of astrology in the West during the twentieth and twenty first centuries from 1914 2022 It is the first collection exclusively devoted to a period that has been mostly neglected by historians of astrology who have mostly devoted themselves to the ancient medieval and early modern periods Uninterested in vindicating or debunking astrology contributors consider its cultural impact its relation to historical events and the ways in which it has changed in the last century The broad range of subjects on modern Europe and the US include the relation of astrology with indigenous thought interwar Polish astrology and the relation of American astrologers to COVID A bibliography of studies of modern astrology on a global basis is also included This collection is a thoughtful contribution to the history of astrology and the sociology of belief as well as carrying significant implications for twentieth and twenty first century history broadly      Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader's Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study      The Psychology of Stalking J. Reid Meloy, 2001-05-15 The Psychology of Stalking is the first scholarly book on stalking ever published Virtually every serious writer and researcher in this area of criminal psychopathology has contributed a chapter These chapters explore stalking from social psychiatric psychological and behavioral perspectives New thinking and data are presented on threats pursuit characteristics psychiatric diagnoses offender victim typologies cyberstalking false victimization syndrome erotomania stalking and domestic violence the stalking of public figures and many other aspects of stalking as well as legal issues This landmark text is of interest to both professionals and other thoughtful individuals who recognize the serious nature of this ominous social behavior First scholarly book on stalking ever published Contributions from virtually all major researchers in field Discussion of what to do when being stalked Uses examples from recent publicized cases Japan's Love-Hate Relationship with the West Sukehiro Hirakawa, 2021-11-22 Introductory chapters cover Japan's historic love hate relationship with China then an in depth analysis of three themes Japan's turn to the West Japan's return to the East from war to peace The book explains why Japanese modern writers oscillate between East and West Donations, Inheritance and Property in the Nordic and Western World from Late Antiquity until Today Ole-Albert Rønning, Helle Møller Sigh, Helle Vogt, 2017-07-14 Donations Inheritance and Property in the Nordic and Western World from Late Antiquity until Today presents an examination of Nordic donation and gift giving practices in the Nordic and Western world beginning in late Antiquity and extending through to the present day Through chapters contributed by leading international researchers this book explores the changing legal social and religious frameworks that shape how donations and gifts are given In addition to donations to ecclesiastical charitable and cultural institutions this book also highlights the sociolegal challenges and the tensions that can occur as a result of transferring property including answering key questions such as who has a right to what It also presents for the first time an insight into the dynamics of donations and the interplay between individual motivations strategic behaviour and the legal setting of inheritance law Offering a broad chronological and European perspective and including a wide range of illuminating case studies Donations Inheritance and Property in the Nordic and Western World from Late Antiquity until Today is ideal for students of Nordic and European legal and social history The Best Love of the Child Timothy P. Jackson, 2011-04-29 Much has been written about the rights owed to children the right to live the right to be nurtured and cared for the right to an ample measure of health and happiness and especially the right to be loved Here twenty scholars from across sociological psychological historical philosophical theological and legal disciplines argue that the right of children to be loved can best be fulfilled by teaching them how to love others The Best Love of the Child explores and celebrates many aspects of family culture religion and society and fosters a more nuanced understanding of that love which is truly at the heart of a child's best interest love that flows freely not only to children but also from children Applying Psychology to Everyday Life Kenneth T. Strongman, 2007-12-10 This text gives a general introduction to the subject but in a way that demonstrates its applicability to their work and to everyday life whilst remaining academically grounded It demonstrates how psychology can make a practical difference in the real world Topics covered include emotions motivation social life and the lifespan Basic up to date introduction to psychological concepts Practical exercises and techniques Scene setting examples from real life
