Assaults On Our Senses:

World Cities, City Worlds William Solesbury, 2018-12-17 When living and working in cities we need to make sense of them in order to get by We must delve below their surface to understand what makes them tick and how we can best engage with them This book argues that three tropes can help us namely metaphors icons and perspectives Metaphorically we can see the city as a community a battleground a marketplace a machine or an organism Some cities are iconic they present us with characteristics that are more generally true of cities and city life such as Venice Mumbai New York Tokyo Paris and Los Angeles Cities can also be viewed from different perspectives those of artists analysts rulers and citizens This book explores these ways of understanding cities drawing on rich accounts of cities across the world and through time Bodies and Pleasures Ladelle McWhorter, 1999-07-22 Sexual identities are dangerous Michel Foucault tells us Here Ladelle McWhorter reads Foucault from an original and personal angle and takes the reader beyond unexplored norms and imposed identities as she points the way toward a personal politics ethics and style that challenge our sexual selves Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved Wagner and Cinema Jeongwon Joe, Sander L. Gilman, 2010-02-26 The contributors discuss films ranging from the 1913 biopic of Wagner to Ridley Scott's Gladiator with essays on silent cinema film scoring Wagner in Hollywood German cinema and Wagner beyond the soundtrack Honor Systems and Sexual Harassment at the Service Academies United States. Committee on Armed Services, 1994 Hearing to review the concept and effectiveness of honor systems at DOD military service academies in light of allegations of widespread cheating on a December 1992 examination at the Naval Academy Also examines issues related to alleged sexual harassment at the service academies Supplementary material pages 253-256 includes witnesses written replies to Committee questions The Passions of Rhetoric: Lessing's Theory of Argument and the German Enlightenment E.K. Moore, 2012-12-06 The goal of this book is to ascertain Lessing's views on argumentation and rhetoric I intend to establish that these views constitute a systematic and coherent theory and to argue that for Lessing rhetoric in argument can yield philosophical truth Analysis of Lessing's views also sheds light on the general significance of rhetoric in the 18th century The denial that rhetoric has claims to truth is a long standing prejudice of Western thought This position is evident in Kant's rejection of rhetoric in philosophical discourse But in my view the situation in the 18th century in Germany was somewhat more complex Rhetoric did not die a quiet death but was very much alive in polemical tracts and Lessing was a pivotal figure in a culture dominated by argument and disputation I asked myself why and how this polemical age came to an end and how does the rejection of polemics by the 19th century affect our understanding of the 18th century In the Introduction I address some of these questions and establish a historical framework for the development of polemics in the 18th century Another reason this polemical age has traditionally been seen as problematic for the scholars of the period is because argument disputation and debate cannot be submitted to the same easy analysis as the systematic treatises produced at the end of the century The Legend of

My Echoing Song Rosalie Littell Colie, 2015-03-08 Professor Colie brings together all previous and partial perspectives on Andrew Marvell adds new ones harvested from her own deep learning and wide research and transforms the whole into what Professor Joseph Summers of the University of Michigan has called the best critical book on Marvell's poetry. Rich in details and knowledge of seventeenth century English poetry, aesthetics, Renaissance and Baroque literature and art and critical theory, My Echoing Song first examines Marvell's uses of theme and device in various lyrics. Later parts of the book concentrate on Upon Appleton House and The Garden, which Professor Colie reads from the various focuses of political history, Marvell's knowledge and use of emblems and classical authors, contemporary theology, philosophy and painting. Originally published in 1970, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905.

The Works of John Cotton, Volumes 1-5 John Cotton, 2025-11-13 John Cotton shaped the doctrine, worship and discipline of a fledgling society striving to live fully under God's Word. With clarity, conviction and pastoral warmth, he addressed both the great ecclesiastical questions and the intimate personal wrestlings of his time. The Works of John Cotton gathers his most important treatises and sermons in a newly edited cloth bound set. It recovers a vital link in the chain of Reformed thought and reintroduces a voice that helped shape the American church before it had a name.

Spirituality and the Ethics of Torture D. Jeffreys, 2009-06-22 What exactly is torture? Should we torture suspected terrorists if they have information about future violent acts? Defining torture carefully, the book defends the idea that all people are valuable and rejects moral defenses of torture. It focuses particularly on practices like sensory deprivation which perniciously attack the human psyche.

Dying at the Margins David Wendell Moller, 2018-10-31 Dying at the Margins: Reflections on Justice and Healing for Inner-City Poor gives voice to the most vulnerable and disempowered population, the urban dying poor, and connects them to the voices of leaders in end-of-life care. Chapters written by these experts in the field discuss the issues that challenge patients and their loved ones as well as offering insights into how to improve the quality of their lives. In an illuminating and timely follow-up to Dancing with Broken Bones, all discussions revolve around the actual experiences of the patients previously documented, encouraging a greater understanding about the needs of the dying poor, advocating for them and developing best practices in caring. Demystifying stereotypes that surround poverty, Moller illuminates how faith, remarkable optimism and an unassailable spirit provide strength and courage to the dying poor. Dying at the Margins serves as a rallying call for not only end-of-life professionals but compassionate individuals everywhere to understand and respond to the needs of the especially vulnerable yet inspiring people who comprise the world of the inner-city dying poor.

Encounters of Body and Soul in Contemporary Religious Practices Anna Fedele, Ruy Llera Blanes, 2011-09-01 Social scientists and philosophers confronted with religious phenomena have always been challenged to find a proper way to describe the spiritual experiences of the social group they were studying. The influence of the Cartesian dualism of body and mind or soul led to a distinction between non-material spiritual experiences i.e. related to the soul and physical mechanical experiences i.e. related to the body. However, recent developments in medical science on the one hand and challenges to universalist conceptions of belief and spirituality on the other have resulted in body and soul losing the reassuring solid contours they had in the past. Yet in Western culture the body-soul duality is alive, not least in academic and media discourses. This volume pursues the ongoing debates and discusses the importance of the body and how it is perceived in contemporary religious faith: what happens when body and soul are un-separated entities? Is it possible even for anthropologists and ethnographers to escape from natural dualism? The contributors here present research in novel empirical contexts: the benefits and limits of the old dichotomy are discussed and new theoretical strategies proposed.

An Exposition Upon the Epistle of Jude William Jenkyn, 1863

Dark Dreams 2.0 Charles Derry, 2009-12-21. Greatly expanded and updated from the 1977 original, this new edition explores the evolution of the modern horror film, particularly as it reflects anxieties associated with the atomic bomb, the Cold War, 1960s violence, sexual liberation, the Reagan revolution, 9/11 and the Iraq War. It divides modern horror into three varieties: psychological, demonic and apocalyptic, and demonstrates how horror cinema represents the popular expression of everyday fears while revealing the forces that influence American ideological and political values. Directors given a close reading include Alfred Hitchcock, Brian De Palma, David Cronenberg, Guillermo Del Toro, Michael Haneke, Robert Aldrich, Mel Gibson and George A. Romero. Additional material discusses postmodern remakes, horror franchises and Asian millennial horror. This book also contains more than 950 frame grabs and a very extensive filmography.

Theatre in Practice Nick O'Brien, 2024-03-21. Theatre in Practice, third edition, is an accessible and wide-ranging exploration of the central practices and key practitioners covered on the various syllabi at A level, IB and at undergraduate level. Exploring Stanislavski, Brecht, Artaud, Lecoq, Berkoff, Bogart, Mitchell and Craig, as well as work from innovative theatre companies such as Tamasha, Sh T Theatre, Complicite, Gecko and The Paper Birds, it combines an informal, unpretentious tone with a wealth of practical exercises. Revised and updated to include some of the latest practices in theatre, this new edition offers a step-by-step approach to developing key skills such as devising, improvising, rehearsing, monologues and directing plays. New for this edition are chapters from Nick O'Brien and Mikhaela Mahony on key female and global majority practitioners, a chapter offering a unique insight into the acting practice of award-winning actress Indira Varma and updated information throughout. Written by specialists with extensive experience at post-16 and undergraduate level, Theatre in Practice is a thorough and imaginative resource that speaks directly to students and teachers. This book offers students a range of exercises to experience and explore key practitioners, enabling them to understand theatre how it should be understood through practice.

Spiritual Exercises Reclaimed, 2nd Edition, The Liebert, Elizabeth, Paulin-Campbell, Annemarie, 2022. This companion to the Spiritual Exercises in an anniversary edition does justice to women's experience across contexts and social locations. While acknowledging obstacles that the Exercises hold for women in various contexts, the authors provide fresh interpretations of every aspect of this spiritual classic. They bring together feminist consciousness, a broad knowledge of psychology and theology, and the compassionate insight of experienced spiritual guides. The situation of women making and giving the Spiritual Exercises has changed radically in the past two decades since the publication of the previous edition, which highlights the variety of women's experience of the Spiritual Exercises from different cultural contexts. It also draws from new and younger women's voices, thus extending the reach of the original text to another generation over wider geographic and cultural spread. The revised book opens up new ways in which the Exercises may offer liberating possibilities for women world wide.
