alliances of Christian and Muslim powers against the Ottomans Last a set of essays looks at what was arguably the most complex region of all for inter faith relations the Balkans exploring the influence of crusading ideas in the eastern Adriatic Bosnia and Romania Viewed overall this collection of essays makes a powerful contribution to breaking down the old and discredited view of monolithic and mutually exclusive fortresses of faith Nobody would question the extent and intensity of religious violence in fifteenth century Europe but this volume demonstrates that it was played out within a setting of turbulent diversity Religious and ethnic identities were volatile allegiances negotiable and diplomacy ideological exchange and human contact were constantly in operation between the period s major religious groupings Crusader Art in the Holy Land, From the Third Crusade to the Fall of Acre Jaroslav Folda, 2005-09-05 Publisher Description
