Assistance And Control Policies Toward Internally Displaced Populations In Guatemala:

Scientists and Human Rights in Guatemala Institute of Medicine, Committee on Human Rights, National Academy of Sciences and Committee on Health and Human Rights, 1992-02-01 Roughly 40 thousand people have been killed or made to disappear for political reasons in Guatemala during the last 30 years Despite vows and some genuine efforts by the current government human rights abuses and political killings continue Scientists and Human Rights in Guatemala presents a history of the violence and the research findings and conclusions of a 1992 delegation to Guatemala The focus of the book is on the human rights concerns and the responses of the government and military authorities to those concerns Background and status of an investigation into the political murder of an eminent Guatemalan anthropologist is presented along with an overview of the impact of the repression on universities research institutions and service and human rights organizations

Assistance and Control ,1990 Guatemala Anne Manuel, Eric Stover, Americas Watch Committee (U.S.), 1991 A Military and Economic Aid Return and Reintegration of Guatemalan Refugees and Internally Displaced Populations Aldo Lauria-Santiago, Carlos Iván Degregori, Douglas A. Chalmers, Frank LaRue, George R. Vickers, Henry F. Carey, Jeffrey Puryear, Kathryn Sikkink, Lisa Haugaard, Liz Oglesby, Peter Kornbluh, Thomas P. Anderson, Tommie Sue Montgomery, 1991 Palestinian Refugee Repatriation Michael Dumper, 2006-09-27 The repatriation of Palestinians is a highly topical issue and a critical component of any future peace process for Israel Palestine Until now the mechanics of repatriation have not been dealt with in detail This book explores the notion that the Palestinian refugee case is exceptional through the comparative study of refugee repatriation and asks To what extent can the Palestinian case be said to be unique Where are the divergences the overlaps and points of similarity with other refugee situations What lessons can be drawn from these comparisons How can these lessons inform refugee organizations the donor community and policy makers The expert contributors examine the contextual and methodological field reviewing the trends in forced migration and refugee studies as well as studying the historical and political background of UNHCR and the negotiations around the Palestinian refugee issue Taking a comparative approach the book incorporates case studies of specific refugee situations from around the world revealing key issues in the formulation of repatriation programmes and highlighting lessons to be learnt The Myrna Mack Case National Academy of Engineering, National Academy of Sciences, Policy and Global Affairs, Institute of Medicine, Office of International Affairs, Committee on Human Rights, 1998-04-24 How Mass Atrocities End Bridget Conley-Zilkic, 2016-04 How do mass atrocities end Six case studies reveal the decisions and factors that help decrease mass violence against civilians Quiet Genocide Etelle Higonnet, 2017-09-08 Quiet Genocide reviews the legal and historical case that genocide occurred in Guatemala in 1981 1983 It includes the full text of the genocide section of a United Nations sponsored Commission on Historical Clarification in Guatemala CEH brokered by the UN In its final report the CEH s rigorously reviewed abuses throughout the whole country However the memory of the Guatemalan dirty war which predated

the genocide and continued for over a decade of the heightened killing has rapidly faded from international awareness The book renders a historical picture of the 1948 Genocide Convention and its unique status in international law It reminds readers of the difficulty of preventing and punishing genocide as illustrated by the ongoing tragedy of Darfur and discusses the evolution of international and hybrid tribunals to prosecute genocide along with war crimes and crimes against humanity Then it sketches a brief history of Guatemala with a focus on genocide It explores how internal and global politics were an expression of structural violence designed to ensure cheap abundant and quiescent Indian labor for coffee planters a The volume provides the commission's general considerations legal definitions methodology period of analysis and victim groups and finds that genocide had been perpetrated against five indigenous Guatemalan groups By translating the genocide argument of the CEH into English and framing it in a lively accessible way this volume recovers the past sets the record straight and promotes accountability This exploratory effort provides insight into the world of transitional justice and truth commissions and valuable insights about how to engage with the question of genocide in the future These findings shed light on a crucial and dark chapter of trans American Cold War history and will thus be of interest not only to scholars focused on Guatemala but also on Central America and even more broadly on the Cold War Maya In Exile Allan Burns, 1993-06-22

The first report on the cultural adaptation of Guatemalan Maya immigrants to Florida The End of the Refugee Cycle? Richard Black, Khalid Koser, 1999-01-01 At the start of the 1990s there was great optimism that the end of the Cold War might also mean the end of the refugee cycle both a breaking of the cycle of violence persecution and flight and the completion of the cycle for those able to return to their homes The 1990s it was hoped would become the decade of repatriation However although over nine million refugees were repatriated worldwide between 1991 and 1995 there are reasons to believe that it will not necessarily be a durable solution for refugees It certainly has become clear that the end of the refugee cycle has been much more complex and ultimately more elusive than expected The changing constructions and realities of refugee repatriation provide the backdrop for this book which presents new empirical research on examples of refugee repatriation and reconstruction Apart from providing up to date material it also fills a more fundamental gap in the literature which has tended to be based on pedagogical reasoning rather than actual field research Adopting a global perspective this volume draws together conclusions from highly varied experiences of refugee repatriation and defines repatriation and reconstruction as part of a wider and interrelated refugee cycle of displacement exile and return The contributions come from authors with a wealth of relevant practical and academic experience spanning the continents of Africa Asia Central America and Europe Guatemala (World Bibliographical Series ; V. 9).
