

Birding In Illinois

Birding is a FUN sport that can be pursued year-round, anywhere and for little expense. Becoming a better angler requires studying bird habits and learning to move quietly and slowly. When you go birding remember to wear comfortable shoes and take along a field guide, sketch book, pencil and binoculars. It is recommended that beginners use 7 x 35 power binoculars.

Birds can be found almost anywhere. Look in parks, forest preserves, your backyard, schoolyard, around a pond or wetland. The best times to look for birds are during their early morning or late afternoon feeding times. This is when they are most active.
