Wiggin,Smith Wiggin,2017-06-28 A LITTLE SNOW BIRD t was very early Christmas morning and in the stillness of the dawn with the soft snow falling on the house tops a little child was born in the Bird household They had intended to name the baby Lucy if it were a girl but they had not expected her on Christmas morning and a real Christmas baby was not to be lightly named the whole family agreed in that They were consulting about it in the nursery Mr Bird said that he had assisted in naming the three boys and that he should leave this matter entirely to Mrs Bird Donald wanted the child called Dorothy after a pretty curly haired girl who sat next him in school Paul choose Luella for Luella was the nurse who had been with him during his whole babyhood up to the time of his first trousers and the name suggested all sorts of comfortable things Uncle Jack said that the first girl should always be named for her mother no matter how hideous the name happened to be Grandma said that she would prefer not to take any part in the discussion and everybody suddenly remembered that Mrs Bird had thought of naming the baby Lucy for Grandma herself and while it would be indelicate for her to favor that name it would be against human nature for her to suggest any other under the circumstances Hugh the hitherto baby if that is a possible term sat in one corner and said nothing but felt in some mysterious way that his nose was out of joint for there was a newer baby now a possibility he had never taken into consideration and the first girl too a still higher development of treason which made him actually green with jealousy But it was too profound a subject to be settled then and there on the spot besides Mamma had not been asked and everybody felt it rather absurd after all to forestall a decree that was certain to be absolutely wise just and perfect The reason that the subject had been brought up at all so early in the day lay in the fact that Mrs Bird never allowed her babies to go over night unnamed She was a person of so great decision of character that she would have blushed at such a thing she said that to let blessed babies go dangling and dawdling about without names for months and months was enough to ruin them for life She also said that if one could not make up one s mind in twenty four hours it was a sign that But I will not repeat the rest as it might prejudice you against the most charming woman in the world So Donald took his new velocipede and went out to ride up and down the stone pavement and notch the shins of innocent people as they passed by while Paul spun his musical top on the front steps But Hugh refused to leave the scene of action He seated himself on the top
