Pornography Simon Stephens, 2014-05-13 Pornography is Simon Stephens stark and shattering new play that powerfully captures a portrait of a fractured insecure Britain Written in reaction to London crashing from the euphoria and promise at being awarded the 2012 Olympics into the chaos and reality of the 7 7 bombings the play is composed of seven stories that serve as a countdown to the catastrophic attack on London Each playlet focuses on a different individual dramatising their life in the run up to the tragedy Published to coincide with the English language premiere at the Traverse Theatre in August as part of the International Edinburgh Festival before transferring to the Birmingham Rep this is the first stage play to confront the London bombings of 7 July 2005 The Birmingham Rep Claire Cochrane, 2003 Internationally famous for launching the careers of Laurence Olivier Ralph Richardson Paul Schofield and Peter Brook the Birmingham Rep has been one of the most consistently innovative and important of the English regional producing theatres since its foundation by Sir Barry Jackson in 1913 This book covers the 40 years since its founder's death in 1961 beginning in the era which started the careers of Derek Jacobi Brian Cox and Michael Gambon Charting the move from the 450 seat Old Rep into the 900 seat city's theatre in 1971 Claire Cochrane tells the often turbulent sometimes controversial study of how a major company with a great past sought to create exciting contemporary theatre for an increasingly demanding and multicultural audience Set in Britain's second city the Rep's story reflects the changing and challenging landscape of modern British theatre as a whole
