Dylan Thomas Barbara Nathan Hardy, 2000 Dylan Thomas's expressive highly imaginative re-creation of forms and language intimately portrays his inner self and his time earning him renown as one of the great individualists of modern art. In this contemplative focused study of poems, stories and other works by Thomas including Portrait of the Artist as a Young Dog and Under Milk Wood, Barbara Hardy emphasizes his creative achievements and high intelligence, analyzing his regional identity, response to other writers especially James Joyce, modernist style, subject matter, use of language and themes of art and the natural world. Thomas, a Welsh writer, never a nationalist, put into his writing a subtle response to regional landscape, particular people and places and social context including the 1930s depression, rural poverty and war. His poetry and prose are passionate, sensuous and artistically self-aware. The poetry is especially congenial in its imaginative celebration of greenness, literal, metaphorical and political. To adapt the words of Charles Lamb, the poet is in love with this green earth. Hardy describes Thomas as a resourceful language changer who like Shakespeare, Dickens, Hopkins and Joyce transforms the English language. Through writing so uniquely inventive that it alters the reader's perception of language, Thomas left us with works that are as fresh and relevant to today's world as they were at their debut.

Festivals in Latin Literature Anke Walter, 2025-04-26 Festivals feature prominently in Latin literature even in works that are not explicitly dedicated to festive days like Ovid's Fasti. Festivals in Latin Literature explores the role of festivals in elegiac lyric and epic poetry as well as historiography. In all of these, festivals play a more pervasive role than has so far been realised. Tibullus' elegiac oeuvre rests on an interplay between amatory and festive poetics that even has a political meaning to it, and Propertius uses festivals in his fourth book of elegies to question from an amatory perspective the memory typically associated with some key Roman festivals. In the poetry of Sulpicia and Ovid's Tristia, festivals allow voices that are otherwise marginalised to shape their own fame and commemoration. Horace's Odes and the Carmen saeculare rest on an intriguing interplay of festivity in the private sphere which forms but a fleeting and precious moment and the monumentality of public festivals in which the poet styles himself as a master of Roman time. Post-Vergilian Latin epicists use festivals to explore the fragility of human identity in a world dominated by the gods in Ovid's Metamorphoses and to question further the commemoration connected with festive days. In particular, Statius in his Thebaid undermines the foundational importance of festivals in the Aeneid, vividly staging the problematic meaning of festivals that convey a premature commemoration of an epic conflict that is unspeakable nefas. Finally, in Livy's ab urbe condita and Tacitus' Histories, festivals both provide structure and capture long-term developments in Roman history, including Rome's rise to power and the collapse of its morals, while situating both works in broader historiographical and intertextual dialogues. The book sheds new light on these authors and works, uncovering their unique festive poetics. It demonstrates that Latin literature adds important new aspects to our general understanding of festivals, which, as seen throughout the book, offer even richer avenues of creating meaning and shaping or questioning commemoration than is often assumed.
