Bivocational Returning to the Roots of Ministry offers one answer to the pressing question of the future of congregational life in the mainline Protestant Church The contention of the book is that the model of professional ministry we have received from the past century of congregational life is imposing unsustainable costs on most congregations and parishes In consequence these faith communities face stark choices for which there are no self evident answers Shall we close Shall we merge with another congregation a decision shaped by a primary value on maintaining a full time professional in the role of ordained minister Can we find someone who will do the job part time What will it mean for them and for us Bivocational explores the impact on the ministry on congregations and on denominational polities of encouraging a way forward one in which bivocational ordained professionals ministers working simultaneously in the church and in secular life come to leadership positions in the church It explores the different sorts of gifts and preparation such ordained ministers need and how a bivocational ethos looks when it characterizes not only the ordained minister but all ministers of the congregation lay and ordained alike The Bivocational Pastor Dennis Bickers, 2004 Learn how to succeed in bivocational ministry leaders know they cannot care for their people unless they care for themselves Pastors who are mothers know this too and yet it can feel like just one more task to manage among the many they carry on their schedules and in their hearts The biblical truth is that spiritual rest is a gift from God not an achievement a refreshing reminder for women who hold the dual roles of mom and minister This book invites women leading in these spaces to remember that the God of the Old and New Testaments the one who pours out replenishment for weary hearts is a God who is Mother as well as Father and mothers them with tenderness and strength Starting here in the arms of a mothering God who whispers beloved changes the tone of spiritual care for her from a chore to an oasis of replenishment that grounds her in her identity in Christ as a daughter of Creator God

Why Not Me? Richard Nations, 2019 It is likely that you have never considered the possibility of serving as pastor of a local church The idea may even scare you However the best servant leaders are those that feel ill equipped unprepared and even unworthy for such a role This book is written to help you see a glimpse of the types of men God has graciously given such a significant responsibility You will find them to simply be ordinary men who were willing to say Here am I Use me any way you desire to bring glory to yourself God These men recognizing they are unworthy lean on Jesus for everything they must do to fulfill such a calling They do their best to present themselves to God as one approved a worker who has no need to be ashamed rightly handling the word of truth 2 Timothy 2:15 They are not perfect They struggle trying to balance family work and ministry But they find indescribable joy through serving God by ministering to God's people and their local community

Starting a New Church Ralph Moore, 2011-08-31 According to the author perhaps our greatest responsibility is to evangelize our own generation Yet established churches are not able to do that In fact rising generations of Americans live in ignorance of Jesus Christ and have no moral absolutes Aggressive church planting the author believes is the answer to the problem because new churches focus on the needs of each new generation and present biblical truth in the cultural context that best reaches those people The objectives of this book are to lay down the challenge to consider becoming a church planter while at the same time screen out wishful thinking and focus on the practical challenges of church planting This authoritative and edgy message is the next thing in evangelism Rock Beneath the Sand Lois E.
