Black Africa A Comparative Handbook:

Black Africa Donald George Morrison, Robert Cameron Mitchell, John N. Paden, 1989 Regimes in Tropical Africa Ruth Berins Collier, 2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1982 Black Africa Robert C. Mitchell, Donald G. Morrison, John N. Paden, 1989-07-17 Black Africa presents political economic and social data for 41 black African nations The first edition was published in 1972 and included only data on 32 countries which was the total number of independent African nations at that time Enlarging on the first edition this second edition covers in detail important aspects of the countries included from demography to political development and social mobilization to a modern comparative analysis of African states Black Africa is a complete and comprehensive handbook The first edition of Black Africa won a Book of the Year Award from the American Library Association Black Africa Edward Baum, 1973 Asian and African Studies meisai.org.il, African Theology Emmanuel Martey, 2009-11-01 Two major strands of theology have developed in Africa inculturation and liberation each in response to different needs Emmanuel Martey's African Theology provides a clear scholarly examination of these two basic approaches solidly based on Martey's understanding of contemporary theology and his firsthand knowledge of Africa Martey first examines the historical background of each of these theological developments especially relating to cultural and political movements enveloping the continent in the 1970s In sub Saharan Africa struggles for independence from colonizers have resulted in inculturation theology The defining aspect of this theology is that it pushes its roots firmly in African culture and traditions In South Africa on the other hand Black Africans struggling against the oppressive systems of apartheid have turned to liberation theology Martey shows how the real hope for African theology lies in the dialectical encounter between these two approaches and in their potential for convergence The two foci of liberation and inculturation Martey says are not contradictory but complement each other African Theology concludes by challenging African theologians to weld together the praxis of inculturation with that of liberation in order to achieve an integrative vision for the continent A Selected Bibliography--Sub-Saharan Africa, 1991 Teamwork for Innovation in Sub-Saharan Africa Hannah Titilayo Seriki, 2007-11-13 Whereas most insights concerning the dynamics of work groups come from North American or Western European environments Hannah Titilayo Seriki concentrates on teams operating within the complex societal context of sub Saharan Africa The author develops a multi level theory of African teams innovative performance and regards the team as a sub system of the organisation which is subjected to societal influences Foreign Affairs Research Special Papers Available Foreign Affairs Research Documentation Center, 1976 Inequality, Grievances, and Civil War Lars-Erik Cederman, Kristian Skrede Gleditsch, Halvard Buhaug, 2013-08-26 This book argues that political and economic inequalities following group lines generate grievances that in turn can motivate civil war Lars Erik Cederman Kristian Skrede Gleditsch and Halvard Buhaug offer a theoretical approach that highlights ethnonationalism and how the relationship between group identities and inequalities are fundamental for successful mobilization to resort to violence Although previous research highlighted grievances as a key motivation for political violence contemporary research on civil war has largely dismissed grievances as irrelevant emphasizing instead the role of opportunities This book shows that the alleged non results for grievances in previous research stemmed primarily from atheoretical measures typically based on individual data The authors develop new indicators of political and economic exclusion at the group level and show that these exert strong effects on the risk of civil war They provide new analyses of the effects of transnational ethnic links and the duration of civil wars and extended case discussions illustrating causal mechanisms

Milton Leitenberg: Pioneering Work on Weapons of Mass Destruction, Wars and Arms Control Kathleen Margaret Vogel, Nicole Janice Ball, Milton Leitenberg, 2025-09-26 This book is a collection of 44 representative publications and papers by Milton Leitenberg It allows publications that appeared in journals and books as well as unpublished work prepared for national and international organizations to appear in one place This makes them accessible to researchers for years and decades to come These studies made substantial contributions to the area of arms control particularly on the subjects of nuclear weapons wars and conflicts Soviet military studies biological weapons and other related international security areas all of which are of continued interest to security studies and political science audiences The primary audience is academics and practitioners in the arms control security studies and peace research fields The book is useful for graduate studies in arms control and peace research There is no similar book to this collection

Violence in America Ted Robert Gurr, 1989-06 An excellent companion to Violence in America The History of Crime this volume provides fascinating insight into recently developed theories on the sources of recurring conflict in American society With their main focus on traumatic issues that have generated group violence and continue to do so the contributors discuss the most intractable source of social and political conflict in our history the resistance of Black Americans to their inferior status and the efforts of White Americans to keep them there Other intriguing topics include the emergence and decline of political terrorism and the continuation of violent threats from right wing extremists such as the Klan the Order and the Aryan nations The basic assumption underlying all interpretations is that group violence grows out of the dynamics of social change and political contention The idea presented is that the origins processes and outcomes of group violence like the causes and consequences of crime must be understood and dealt with in their social contexts This volume is essential reading for students and professionals in history criminology victimology political science and other related areas SEE QUOTE W

VOLUME ONE Welfare, Ethnicity and Altruism Frank Salter, 2013-03-07 Welfare Ethnicity and Altruism applies the controversial theory of Ethnic Nepotism first formulated by Iren us Eibl Eibesfeldt and Pierre van den Berghe to the modern welfare state both are authors in this volume This theory states that ethnic groups resemble large families whose members are prone to cooperate due to kin altruism Recent empirical findings in economics and political science offer confirmatory evidence The book presents two separate studies that compare welfare expenditures around the world both indicating that the more ethnically mixed a population becomes the greater is its resistance to redistributive policies These results point to profound inconsistencies within ideologies of both left and right regarding ethnicity Africa Air University (U.S.). Library, 1973

Muslim Civic Cultures and Conflict Resolution John N. Paden, 2006-03-30 The question of whether Islam is compatible with democracy may best be answered not from the classical sources or even from the cauldron of Middle East politics but from the lived experiences of Muslim communities around the world In large and diverse countries the varied political values of different cultures can make or break the democratic experiment Regardless of their cultural context transitions from military to civilian rule require attention to the grassroots civic cultures that form the foundations of democratic federalism John Paden a noted expert on West African and Islamic societies uses Nigeria as a critical case study of how a diverse country with a significant Muslim population is working to make the transition to a democratic society Although little studied the non Arab Muslim communities of West Africa are an important indicator as to whether Islamic democracy in a diverse nation is possible Nigeria s success is vital to regional and global stability As the largest country in Africa with a population that is about half Muslim and half Christian or traditional animist Nigeria is also the seventh largest producer of oil in the world and has gone through a series of political traumas ranging from civil war to military rule The current democratic government is trying to balance rule of law concerns at a time when many communal tensions are coming to the surface Muslim Civic Cultures and Conflict Resolution in Nigeria takes us inside the complex world of Nigerian politics with a focus on the ways Muslim civic cultures deal with matters of leadership and conflict resolution The book provides an essential context to the current international concern with issues ranging from Shari a law and communal violence to the broader war on terrorism It argues that the requirement for regional political cooperation serves as a counterbalance to more extreme forms of political expression Paden shows that if the Nigerian political model o

The Role of Social Capital in Development Christiaan Grootaert, Thierry van Bastelaer, 2002-08-15 Publisher Description The Politics of Cultural Pluralism Crawford Young, 1979 Third World Urbanization J. Abu-Lughod, R. Jr Hay, 2013-07-04 First published in 2006 Despite the growing significance of the Third World and the critical nature of its urbanization there are few synthetic books covering more than one region of the Third World which can be used either by scholars seeking an overview of the process of world urbanization or by students in the growing number of courses now being offered in the field of comparative urbanism The most distressing problem was that the field of urbanization particularly with reference to developing countries seemed to us to have stagnated at theoretically sterile conceptualizations or even worse had deteriorated into fragmented empirical descriptive reports whether observing with sympathy or noting with alarm the rapidly declining condition of individual cities This book attempts to rectify this deficiency
