Black And White In Love African Writers:

Black & White in Love: Poems Mbella Sonne Dipoko, 1972 Reggae Love: Love in the African Way - Three White Women, One Black Man Volume 2 Dantse Dantse, 2022-02-01 Johnny Walker is a young African man from Cameroon who wants to be successful. He comes from a good family but his world falls apart when his father dies. After his father's death it becomes clear that he was in extreme debt and Johnny was now without money. But he never complained, never whined and was always in a good mood. He accepted things the way they were and tried to benefit from them. He is an imaginative, extremely positive man and finances his life with small intermediary deals and rich married women. He is a hero with the ladies because of his art of love and manners. He began a passionate affair with the 23-year-old Carla during which the two discover and act out their most secret sexual sides. The first step into a better life seems to have been made but there are some surprises waiting for Johnny, Carla as well as the reader when in the end Johnny must decide between three white women. Ever since Liege is in Kribi, Johnny has come even closer to his plan. Fate is good to him; a third white woman suddenly appears in his life and wants Johnny. But that does not make anything easier; on the contrary, does Johnny need to change his plan? A dramatic and even more exciting fight about love begins. Black and White in Love Mbella S. Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne, Pushpa Naidu Parekh, 2012-11-12 This reference book surveys the richness of postcolonial African literature. The volume begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African writing, then presents alphabetically arranged profiles of some 60 writers including Chinua Achebe, Nadine Gordimer, Bessie Head, Doris Lessing, Tsitsi Dangaremba, Tahar Ben Jelloun, among others. Each entry includes a brief biography, a discussion of major works and themes that appear in the author's writings, an overview of the critical response to the author's work, and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources. These profiles are written by expert contributors and reflect many different perspectives. The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography of the most important critical works on postcolonial African literature.

AF Press Clips ,1980 In Black and White Anant Singh,2021-11-01 It all began with Charlie Chaplin flickering in black and white on a makeshift screen in their modest home in Springfield which later led to the neighbourhood children happily handing over their coins to 10 year old Anant Singh and his younger brother Sanjeev At age 13 deeply affected by the passing of his father Anant found solace and escape in the moving image to which his father had introduced him The combination of a deep and abiding passion for film and an entrepreneurial spirit were the sparks that lit the flame for Anant as he rewound 16mm reels in a film rental store in Durban first for R1 a day and then for R25 a week In South Africa in the 1970s there were not many career options for a Black person who dreamed big in any business let alone the film industry But before his twentieth birthday Anant was the owner of that store and in a business in which no person of colour had ventured Restrictive legislation was not the only problem all public facilities including cinemas were segregated and any voice raised in opposition to the state was swiftly silenced while censorship across all forms of media including films was strictly enforced By hiring out films classified for whites only to all races and uncensored movies to anyone who wanted to watch them Anant was arrested for breaking the laws he refused to recognise as legitimate He moved on to wider distribution first to cinemas across Africa and then to the international market to setting up Videovision Enterprises and capturing the home video market and finally to putting his heart and soul into producing award winning and important films This extraordinary memoir is a story of professional relationships and of friendships with mentors including Ahmed Kathrada Fatima and Ismail Meer and Nelson Mandela as well as with superstars such as Quincy Jones Sidney Poitier Whoopi Goldberg Amitabh Bachchan Denzel Washington and Idris Elba And it is a testament to determination courage and perseverance to speak up and speak out through the powerful medium of film Encyclopedia of Literature and Criticism Martin Coyle,Peter Garside,Malcolm Kelsall,John Peck,2002-09-11 Contains essays by approximately ninety scholars and critics in which they investigate various aspects of English literary eras genres and works and includes bibliographies and suggestions for further reading
