Black Bread Poems After The Holocaust:

Black Bread Blu Greenberg, 1994 Glossary Re-examining the Holocaust through Literature Aukje Kluge, Benn E. Williams, 2009-03-26 In the late 1980s Holocaust literature emerged as a provocative but poorly defined scholarly field The essays in this volume reflect the increasingly international and pluridisciplinary nature of this scholarship and the widening of the definition of Holocaust literature to include comic books fiction film and poetry as well as the more traditional diaries memoirs and journals Ten contributors from four countries engage issues of authenticity evangelicalism morality representation personal experience and wish fulfillment in Holocaust literature which have been the subject of controversies in the US Europe and the Middle East Of interest to students and instructors of antisemitism national and comparative literatures theater film history literary criticism religion and Holocaust studies this book also contains an extensive bibliography with references in over twenty languages which seeks to inspire further research in an international context

The Rabbi's Wife Shuly Rubin Schwartz, 2007-09-01 2006 National Jewish Book Award Modern Jewish Thought Long the object of curiosity admiration and gossip rabbis wives have rarely been viewed seriously as American Jewish religious and communal leaders We know a great deal about the important role played by rabbis in building American Jewish life in this country but not much about the role that their wives played The Rabbi's Wife redresses that imbalance by highlighting the unique contributions of rebbetzins to the development of American Jewry Tracing the careers of rebbetzins from the beginning of the twentieth century until the present Shuly Rubin Schwartz chronicles the evolution of the role from a few individual rabbis wives who emerged as leaders to a cohort who worked together on behalf of American Judaism The Rabbi's Wife reveals the ways these women succeeded in both building crucial leadership roles for themselves and becoming an important force in shaping Jewish life in America

The Jewish Condition Mark Rosenblum, 2017-07-05 This brilliant set of essays poses the paradigm question are Jews in grave danger today or not Concern is rooted in the storm clouds of 1938 when the same question arose just prior to the outbreak of the Second World War and the Holocaust The contributors do not presume that the events of seventy years ago are identical with those today or that they emanate from the same sources However the shared feeling is that Jewish communities worldwide are very much once again at risk In post 1938 Germany the Nazi state began its march toward world conquest with the destruction of European Jewry as its centerpiece In an act of willful blindness Western democratic leaders chose to negotiate and appease the Hitler regime Many Jewish leaders also chose to minimize the risks Seven years later over 50 million people including six million Jews had been liquidated In 2008 extremist Islamic forces have spawned a global Jihad State sponsored terrorism a war against the West as well as against moderate Islamic states once again holds the destruction of the Jewish people and in particular the State of Israel as a critical goal The Iranian leadership proclaims that a world without America and Israel is both possible and feasible Against such a diplomatic and historical background a conference was organized resulting in these essays written by Alan Dershowitz Norman Podhoretz Michael Walzer Leonard Fein and David Price Jones The results are varied at the policy level but unified in appreciator of a disturbing revival of inherited hatred and anti Semitic outbreaks against Jews both within and outside of Europe This is a compelling effort that merits the attention of social scientists policy makers and those interested in international relations

Chapters of the Heart Sue Levi Elwell, Nancy Fuchs Kreimer, 2013-11-01 Chapters of the Heart Jewish Women Sharing the Torah of Our Lives invites readers into the lives of twenty women for whom Jewish language and texts provide a lens for understanding their experiences The authors don't just use religious words texts theologies or liturgies like a cookbook Instead they serve readers something closer to a real meal prepared with love and intention Each essay shares one piece of its writer's heart one chapter of experience as refracted through the author's particular Jewish optic The authors write about being daughters mothers sisters partners lovers and friends They share their experiences of parenting infertility and abortion One describes accompanying her young husband through his life threatening illness Another tells of her daughter s struggle with an eating disorder Still another reflects on long decline of a parent with Alzheimer s All these writers wrestle with Jewish texts while growing as rabbis as feminists and as interfaith leaders They open their hearts and minds telling when Jewish tradition has helped make meaning and on occasion when it has come up empty The results are sometimes inspiring sometimes provocative Readers will find new insights into God into Judaism and into themselves
