Black Canadian Achievement Out Of The Past Into The Future:

The History of Blacks in Canada George H. Junne, 2003-03-30 This fascinating bibliography of source materials clearly demonstrates the significant roles blacks have played in the history and culture of Canada from its beginnings as well as their 400 year fight for equity and justice Organized by area of endeavor and by province the source materials detailed here reveal that blacks in Canada have created a rich diverse and complex legacy This volume lists resources that point to blacks history as soldiers prospectors educators cowboys homesteaders entertainers legislators athletes artists servants and writers The most comprehensive bibliography about blacks in Canada that has been published it is well organized to facilitate locating specific topics or people spanning black history Also included are newspapers and videos that add their own unique contribution Academicians researchers students and interested lay people will find an organized compilation of a vast number of primary and secondary sources about blacks in Canada Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke, 2017-06-22 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature's distinguishing characteristics argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies and critiques several of its key creators and texts Scholarly and sophisticated the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr Alexis Dionne Brand Austin Clarke Claire Harris and M Nourbese Philip In so doing Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism liberalism and conservatism These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa African America and the Caribbean In addition to the essays Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts literature and criticism from both English and French Canada This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora A Black Canadian Bibliography Flora Blizzard Francis, 2000 Black Canadian Achievement Robert Ffrench, 1994 Canadian Books in Print, 1998 In Our Time Robert Ffrench, 1994 Through interviews and learning activities gives information on the contributions of Black Canadians including Lincoln Alexander the first African Canadian elected to the House of Commons Charmaine Crooks athlete and Olympic silver medallist Emery Barnes Speaker of the B C Legislature and former professional athlete Willie O Ree the first Black player in the National Hockey League Glenda Simms President of the Canadian Advisory Council on the Status of Women Freedom dreaming futures for Black youth: Exploring meanings of liberation in education and psychology research Seanna Leath, Lauren Mims, Misha Inniss-Thompson, 2023-07-21 Research elucidating the developmental processes in Black children and youths schooling and educative experiences is increasing e.g. Carter Andrews et al 2019 Daneshzadeh Jackson Neal Jackson 2018 Yet the notion of freedom dreaming in relation to Black children and youth has received less attention within the fields of education and psychology We draw from U.S. historian Professor Robin D. G. Kelley's concept of freedom dreaming to illuminate not only what we are fighting against in the education of Black youth e.g. racial bias and discrimination unfair disciplinary practices and criminalization and Black youths overrepresentation in special education and underrepresentation in gifted and talented programs but also what we are fighting for liberatory educational praxis that build on Black youths individual and cultural strengths In the current call freedom dreaming refers to 1 actively uplifting the complex lives and stories of Black children and youth in educational settings 2 elevating Black children and youths intersectional experiences related to ability gender identity sexuality age and socio-economic class and 3 highlighting the innovative work of scholars who understand and value community power in efforts to advance educational change We draw on Dr Bettina Love's 2019 call for educational freedom wherein she states The practice of abolitionist teaching is rooted in the internal desire we all have for freedom joy restorative justice restoring humanity not just rules and to matter to ourselves our community our family and our country with the profound understanding that we must demand the impossible by refusing injustice and the disposability of dark children p. 7
