Black Children White Dreams:

The Black Church in the African American Experience C. Eric Lincoln, Lawrence H. Mamiya, 1990-11-07 A nongovernmental survey of urban and rural churches of black communities based on a ten year study Research in Education, 1974 Resources in Education, 1974 Bibliography on Racism, 1972-1975 Center for Minority Group Mental Health Programs (U.S.), 1978 When the Music Stopped Thomas J. Cottle, 2004-01-01 A son's coming to terms with his mother's decision to abandon her career as a concert pianist in order to raise her children The American Dream and the Power of Wealth Heather Beth Johnson, 2014-05 In contemporary America the racial wealth gap is growing with families transmitting race and class inequalities from generation to generation Yet Americans continue to hold deep rooted beliefs in the principles of individualism equal opportunity and meritocracy Education the Great Equalizer is supposed to level the playing field ensuring that every child regardless of family of origin gets an equal chance at success Drawing on in depth interviews with 200 black and white families The American Dream and the Power of Wealth starkly reveals the enormous extent to which parents defend their beliefs in the values that lie at the heart of the American Dream Yet the way wealth is acquired and the way it is used categorically puts children from different families on vastly different educational trajectories leaving them with uneven sets of opportunities Field Research Robert G. Burgess, 2003-09-02 For this the fourth volume in the successful Contemporary Social Research series Robert Burgess has provided a new resource text which will prove invaluable to those engaged in field research The material he has chosen is drawn both from sociology and social anthropology and the readings come from experienced researchers both in the USA and Europe In addition Burgess draws upon the work of historians for a special section on the use of historical materials in field research The focus is upon the strategies processes and problems of work in the field Chapters by distinguished social scientists cover gaining entry note taking interviewing and observing Material on data collection is complemented by discussion of data analysis and theorising The readings themselves are subdivided into nine sections The first essay in each section is written by Burgess himself in order to locate the articles in a broader context and to highlight the key issues and the important questions Burgess has also provided a review of some of the major traditions in field research and a series of brief guides to further reading on the major topics covered in each of the sections Particular attention has been paid to the use of annotated reading lists and the preparation of a very full bibliography Field Research A Sourcebook and Field Manual will be an essential textbook for students of social research or field research at both the undergraduate and post graduate levels In addition it will provide valuable guidance for workers in the social sciences engaged in research in the field Politics of Education Susan Gushee O'Malley, Robert C. Rosen, 1990-01-01 This book brings together thirty of the best essays from Radical Teacher The journal is devoted to feminist and socialist approaches to teaching to showing teachers how to democratize the classroom and empower students The articles included here have been chosen for their continuing usefulness to school and college teachers with emphasis on critical pedagogy as well as radical course content These essays provide not only a wealth of ideas for teachers already involved in radical education but also an accessible readable and wide ranging introduction for those new to it The American Dream and the Public Schools Jennifer L. Hochschild, Nathan Scovronick, 2004-10-21 The American Dream and the Public Schools examines issues that have excited and divided Americans for years including desegregation school funding testing vouchers bilingual education and ability grouping While these are all separate problems much of the contention over them comes down to the same thing an apparent conflict between policies designed to promote each student's ability to succeed and those designed to insure the good of all students or the nation as a whole The authors show how policies to promote individual success too often benefit only those already privileged by race or class and often conflict with policies that are intended to benefit everyone They propose a framework that builds on our nation's rapidly changing population in order to help Americans get past acrimonious debates about schooling Their goal is to make public education work better so that all children can succeed Dream Not of Other Worlds Huston Diehl, 2007-04 When Huston

Diehl began teaching a fourth grade class in a Negro elementary school in rural Louisa County Virginia the school's white superintendent assured her that he didn't expect her to teach those children anything She soon discovered how these low expectations widely shared by the white community impeded her students' ability to learn With its overcrowded classrooms poorly trained teachers empty bookshelves and meager supplies her segregated school was vastly inferior to the county's white elementary schools and the message it sent her students was clear dream not of other worlds In her often lyrical memoir Diehl reveals how in the intimacy of the classroom her students reached out to her a young white northerner and shared their fears anxieties and personal beliefs Repeatedly surprised and challenged by her students Diehl questions her long standing middle class assumptions and confronts her own prejudices In doing so she eloquently reflects on what the students taught her about the hurt of bigotry and the humiliation of poverty as well as dignity courage and resiliency Set in the waning days of the Jim Crow South Dream Not of Other Worlds chronicles an important moment in American history Diehl examines the history of black education in the South and narrates the dramatic struggle to integrate Virginia's public schools Meeting with some of her former students and colleagues and visiting the school where she once taught she considers what has and has not changed after more than thirty years of integrated schooling This provocative book raises many issues that are of urgent concern today the continuing social consequences of segregated schools the role of public education in American society and the challenges of educating minority and poor children My Mother's Dream George

Henderson, 2024-07-31 From the Preface The primary audience for this book is first generation college students Whether they are in two year or four year colleges I give the readers an example of the power of a parent's dream the positive and negative outcomes of a student's hard work the stuff caring teachers and supportive school administrators are made of and the significance of resilience tenacity and self growth Hopefully my story will give those who read this book a dose of what stick to itiveness means up close and personal My foremost message to first generation and other generation students is to ask for help when you are stumped seize whatever opportunities to help you improve and do your best work Secondly this book is written for teachers school counselors nurses and other personnel who help students during their educational journeys Their assistance can be helpful or hurtful to whatever generation of students they are helping What they do to students and how they do it matters hugely Thirdly this book is written for professional helpers who are not school related but who want to become better helpers in other careers Lastly this book is written for people who are not professional helpers but are curious about the travails and struggles of poverty stricken people like me and my family I have had a long tedious journey from illiteracy to literacy from segregation to desegregation from poverty to affluence and from disliking people who came from cultures different from my own to loving them Nonviolent theories and behavior were like a river flowing through my life slowly during my childhood and adolescence and rapidly after I enrolled in college The Civil Rights Movement is the name of that river It was the foremost foundation upon which I built my philosophy of helping other people So of course the Reverend Dr Martin Luther King Jr was my hero role model and guide His words and strategies of change are generously sprinkled throughout the later chapters of this book The Female Trickster Ricki Stefanie

Tannen,2014-02-25 The Female Trickster presents a Post Jungian postmodern perspective regarding the role of women in contemporary Western society by investigating the re emergence of female trickster energy in all aspects of popular culture Ricki Tannen explores the psychological aspects of what happened when women s imagination was legally and psychologically enclosed millennia ago and demonstrates how the re emergence of Trickster energy through the female imagination has the radical potential to effect a transformation of western consciousness Examples are drawn from a diverse range of sources from Jane Austen and female sleuth narratives to Madonna and Sex and the City illustrating how Trickster energy is used not to maintain power and control but to integrate and unite the paradoxical through humour Subjects covered include imagination and metaphor the traditional trickster law and the imagination humour Eros using logos the postmodern female trickster This highly original perspective on women s role in contemporary culture will offer readers a new vision of how humour psychologically operates as a healthy adaptation to trauma and adversity It will be of great interest to all analytical psychologists and psychoanalysts as well as those in women s cultural legal and literary studies

Intimate Appraisals Thomas J. Cottle,2002 An eminent sociologist offers insightful impressions and discussions of American culture and the ways it both liberates and imprisons various social groups Social Policy,1975 "I Have a Dream" Southern Christian Leadership Conference,Bob Adelman,2013-07-25 On August 28 1963 something quite amazing occurred On that day one of the largest political rallies ever took place in support of civil and economic rights of African Americans and Dr Martin Luther King Jr standing in front of the Lincoln Memorial gave one of the most stirring speeches in history when he delivered his I Have a Dream speech This book is a celebration of the 50th anniversary of this address and includes narrative and more than 100 stunning photos from the march in Birmingham Alabama through the March on Washington The photographs come from Bob Adelman one of the most notable photographers of this movement His work has been featured in Time Newsweek and the Associated Press It is authored by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference SCLC an organization in which Dr King served as the first president Whiteness of a Different Color Matthew Frye Jacobson,1999-09-01 America s racial odyssey is the subject of this remarkable work of historical imagination Matthew Frye Jacobson argues that race resides not in nature but in the contingencies of politics and culture In ever changing racial categories we glimpse the competing theories of history and collective destiny by which power has been organized and contested in the United States Capturing the excitement of the new field of whiteness studies and linking it to traditional historical inquiry Jacobson shows that in this nation of immigrants race has been at the core of civic assimilation ethnic minorities in becoming American were re racialized to become Caucasian Beyond Discrimination Fredrick C. Harris,Robert C. Lieberman,2013-06-30 Nearly a half century after the civil rights movement racial inequality remains a defining feature of American life Along a wide range of social and economic dimensions African Americans consistently lag behind whites This troubling divide has persisted even as many of the obvious barriers to equality such as state sanctioned segregation and overt racial hostility have markedly declined How then can we explain the stubborn persistence of racial inequality In Beyond Discrimination Racial Inequality in a Post Racist Era a diverse group of scholars provides a more precise understanding of when and how racial inequality can occur without its most common antecedents prejudice and discrimination Beyond Discrimination focuses on the often hidden political economic and historical mechanisms that now sustain the black white divide in America The first set of chapters examines the historical legacies that have shaped contemporary race relations Desmond King reviews the civil rights movement to pinpoint why racial inequality became an especially salient issue in American politics He argues that while the civil rights protests led the federal government to enforce certain political rights such as the right to vote addressing racial inequities in housing education and income never became a national priority The volume then considers the impact of racial attitudes in American society and institutions Phillip Goff outlines promising new collaborations between police departments and social scientists that will improve the measurement of racial bias in policing The book finally focuses on the structural processes that perpetuate racial inequality Devin Fergus discusses an obscure set of tax and insurance policies that without being overtly racially drawn penalizes residents of minority neighborhoods and imposes an economic handicap on poor blacks and Latinos Naa Oyo Kwate shows how apparently neutral and apolitical market forces concentrate fast food and alcohol advertising in minority urban neighborhoods to the detriment of the health of the community As it addresses the most pressing arenas of racial inequality from education and employment to criminal justice and health Beyond Discrimination exposes the unequal consequences of the ordinary workings of American society It offers promising pathways for future research on the growing complexity of race relations in the United States A Centennial Celebration of The Brownies' Book Dianne Johnson-Feelings, Jonda C.
