Alternatives To Global Capitalism Drawn From Biblical History Designed For Political Action:

Alternatives to Global Capitalism Ulrich Duchrow, 1995 This work explains why the rich get richer and the poor get poorer It discusses what jobless growth means for an economy no longer interested in human welfare along with the biblical alternatives for ordinary people and NGOs The Churches and the Development Debate Ignatius Swart, 2006-05-01 This book newly addresses the question about the Christian churches participation in development The innovative element of this reflection is the way in which the author finds meaning and significance particularly in the concept of a fourth generation approach to strategic development engagement The book s essential argument is that a fourth generation strategy an approach that makes the contemporary social or people s movements the primary subjects of its development action and theory holds the greatest prospect for authentic participation by the Christian churches in development

Theology and Economic Ethics Sean Doherty, 2014-03 In the wake of the economic crisis few questions are more pressing than those around the ethics of finance and economics Theology and Economic Ethics expands the self critical resources of contemporary theological economic ethics by bringing the method of a pre modern thinker Martin Luther 1483 1546 into interaction with that of a modern contribution to social ethics the Swiss theologian Arthur Rich 1910 92 The work is undertaken through a close engagement with a selected publication of Luther his 1519 20 Grosser Sermon von dem Wucher and of Rich his masterwork Wirtschaftsethik published in two volumes in 1984 and 1990 respectively It is the first substantial treatment in English of Rich s magnum opus Sean Doherty introduces Luther s sermon on usury situates it in its context then provides a commentary on this work discussing how Luther brings key theological motifs to bear on a particular economic question The study proceeds with a sketch of Arthur Rich s life and work and presents Rich s method as set out in Wirtschaftsethik Doherty illuminates Rich s understanding of ethics his approach to Scripture and his adoption of the thought of Max Weber and John Rawls Bringing insights from the study of Luther to bear in an analysis of Rich s method Doherty questions some of Rich s assumptions and notes ways in which a more self critical approach could have made his project more successful Finally the book makes tentative suggestions as to the wider applicability of these findings for a Christian approach to economic ethics Christianity and Resistance in the 20th Century Søren von Döstenrode, Søren Zibrandt von Döstenrode-Lynge, 2009 How is the Christian supposed to act when his or her government misbehaves Should one suffer and obey the authority or should one render resistance and if so should it be passive or active and if active should it be violent or not This book will not provide the answer to this question but it will describe and analyse important persons of the 20th century who were placed in a situation where they did not merely turn the other cheek but felt that they had to resist a regime a decision which had consequences for them all Thus the book provides insight to a central and current question of Christian and indeed religious thinking Christianity and Resistance in the 20th Century Søren Döstenrode, 2008-11-30 How is the Christian supposed to act when his or her government misbehaves Should one suffer and obey the authority or should one render resistance and if so should it be passive or active and if active should it be violent or not This book will not provide the answer to this question but it will describe and analyse important persons of the 20th century who were placed in a situation where they did not merely turn the other cheek but felt that they had to resist a regime a decision which had consequences for them all Thus the book provides insight to a central and current question of Christian and indeed religious thinking

Hermeneutical Theology and the Imperative of Public Ethics Paul S. Chung, 2013-10-23 Hermeneutical Theology and the Imperative of Public Ethics is a groundbreaking attempt to present constructive missional theology in an integrative and interdisciplinary framework as it provocatively utilizes and contextualizes Reformation theology and hermeneutics concerning ethical theology embedded within the wider horizon of World Christianity Mission as constructive theology is explored and refined in an hermeneutical and interdisciplinary fashion underlying a new horizon of postcolonial theology and mission in light of God's act of speech Missional church founded up God's grace of justification and Christ's diakonia of reconciliation becomes ethically oriented public church as it is engaged in interreligious diversity of people's lives and lifeworld in the postcolonial context of World Christianity

Property for People, Not for Profit Ulrich Duchrow, Franz J. Hinkelammert, 2013-07-04 The issue of private property and the rights it confers remain almost undiscussed in critiques of globalization and free market economics Yet property lies at the heart of an economic system geared to profit maximization The authors describe the historically specific and self consciously explicit manner in which it emerged They trace this history from earliest historical times and show how in the hands of Thomas Hobbes and John Locke in particular the notion of private property took on its absolutist nature and most extreme form a form which neoliberal economics is now imposing on humanity worldwide through the pressures of globalization They argue that avoiding the destruction of people's ways of living and of Nature requires reshaping our notions of private property They look at practical ways for social and ecumenical movements to press for alternatives

Eco-Reformation Lisa E. Dahill, Jim B. Martin-Schramm, 2016-10-31 In 2017 Christians around the world will mark the five hundredth anniversary of the Reformation In the midst of many appeals for reformation today a growing number of theologians scholars and activists around the world believe Reformation celebrations in 2017 and beyond need to focus now on the urgent need for an Eco Reformation The rise of industrial fossil fuel driven capitalism and the explosive growth in human population endanger the fundamental planetary life support systems on which

life as we know it has evolved The collective impact of human production consumption and reproduction is undermining the ecological systems that support human life on Earth If human beings do not reform their relationship with God s creation unspeakable suffering will befall many especially the weakest and most vulnerable among all species The conviction at the heart of this collection of essays is that a gospel call for ecological justice belongs at the heart of the five hundredth anniversary observance of the Reformation in 2017 and as a if not the central dimension of Christian conversion faith and practice into the foreseeable future Like Luther s Ninety Five Theses this volume brings together critical biblical pastoral theological historical and ethical perspectives that constructively advance the vision of a socially and ecologically flourishing Earth

Pentecostalism, Catholicism, and the Spirit in the World Stan Chu Ilo, 2019-10-17. This volume's essays are an ecumenical ensemble of the best scholars and leading practitioners in the Pentecostal and Charismatic movements from all four corners of the world. The contributors bring together various denominational perspectives and dialogue for understanding the present momentum of these Spirit movements in the world church. Their diverse methodologies transverse the traditional and new approaches to studying these movements. Pointing the way forward, the authors highlight some of the lessons learned in their scholarly engagement with Spirit movements. These lessons offer significant insight and viewpoints for the academy in the historical analysis of these movements. They also serve as a good guide for pastoral discernment and accompaniment for God's people in their daily lives as well as for social ministries in the world church. This volume addresses questions of salvation and eschatology, health and healing, prosperity and poverty, suffering and death, fear and faith, despair and hope. Other topics include the conflict between charism and institution and the tension between cultic clericalism and the affirmation and use of the gifts and talents of lay members of Christ's faithful in the church.
