Stringer, 2002-05-31 All but the final paper in this collection of nine essays was read at a June 1999 conference of the same title as the book held at the U of Birmingham UK The conference was organized by the Worship in Birmingham Project bringing together established scholars and research students to discuss the Emerging Churches Eddie Gibbs, Ryan K. Bolger, 2005-12-01 The emerging church movement is perhaps the most significant church trend of our day The emerging church offers and encourages a new way of doing and being the church While it largely resonates with an eighteen to thirty four year old audience the first fully postmodern generation it is also gaining popularity with older Christians and encompasses a broad array of traditional and contemporary churches Emerging Churches explores this movement and provides insight into its success Filled with the latest research and interesting anecdotal testimonies from those on the cutting edge of ministry this book provides pastors church leaders and interested readers with an insightful glimpse into the thriving churches of today and tomorrow Connecting the Dots Peter Rudowski, 2009-04-09 We have learned from nature that animal and plant life thrives when all the systems of their surroundings are in harmony The same can be said for human institutions When the organizational systems of human institutions are in harmony the organization thrives This book identifies the interaction of eight organizational components that promote creative ministry in the Christian church setting The author combines biblical study management theory and hard earned experience to help church leaders understand and use organizational systems to maximize their ministry Connect the dots of these eight components for effective ministry in the 21st century Answer to the Form of Libel William Robertson Smith, 1878 The Smith Heresy Case ..., 1877 have one thing in common we are experiencing identity crises Religious traditions are not immune to these crises and orthodox Anglicans have been experiencing their own issues with identity since the 2003 consecration of an openly homosexual man Orthodox Anglicans want to say who they are as both orthodox and Anglican but they are also finding it difficult to articulate a clear and coherent identity especially an Anglican one This orthodox Anglican pursuit of a renewed sense of self in a complex and fragmented world is a microcosm of our postmodern context and an examination of their quest holds enticing clues to our own urgent searches for meaning and identity Think of this book as a kind of story the story of a worldwide church who when its identity was threatened took counsel together to renew and revitalize its sense of self In the process it not only faced many dangers and difficulties but also learned much about who it was and who it wanted to be

An Interweaving Ecclesiology Mark Scanlon, 2021-11-30 What is church What spaces does church occupy Can ecclesial space exist beyond the boundaries of church In An Interweaving Ecclesiology Mark Scanlan offers a fresh vision of Christian community as constructed for and by participants as potential ecclesial spaces combine to create an experience which we call church Drawing in particular on research into the dynamic between youth groups and the churches within which they operate Scanlan brings us a distinct approach to the church in mission that can nuance and develop the tired and sometimes flawed thinking around Fresh Expressions and pioneer ministry Combining deep ecclesiology with a practical approach this book will be useful to students and scholars of pioneer and youth ministry and those with a wider interest in how churches operate

Cinema and Sentiment Clive Marsh, 2004 Watching any film happens within a cultural context Cinema and Sentiment critically examines the practice of watching movies in western culture Clive Marsh demonstrates aspects of the religious function of film watching by comparing watching movies to worshiping Through a variety of case studies on the habit of going to the theater Marsh's study shows how watching films as a regular practice can contribute to the shaping of human living Engaging with social and religious behavior patterns in western culture Cinema and Sentiment suggests a need to recover a positive sense of sentiment both in theology and film Two concluding chapters locate the text in recent studies of theology and film offering church leaders students of theology and film studies and all those with an interest in contemporary culture practical consequences of the work's findings

with a focus on politics society economics and culture First Expressions Steve Taylor, 2019-12-30 Seeking insight from the real life development of the earliest expressions of emerging church from their birth through times of adolescent angst and into the reality of adulthood this book offers a unique insight into the long term sustainability of fresh expressions Presenting the lived practice of the church in mission through a longitudinal lens and eschewing the rose tinted approach it considers the reality of emerging churches their birth and death their creativity and conflict their dreams and despair A picture of a church that is neither gathered and parish nor independent and networked emerges as the biographies of mission are brought into dialogue with a very ancient expression of mission the birth of Philippians as a first expression of church in Europe Emerging Evangelicals James S. Bielo, 2011 The Emerging Church movement developed in the mid 1990s among primarily white urban middle class pastors and laity who were disenchanted with America s conservative

Evangelical sub culture It is a response to the increasing divide between conservative Evangelicals and concerned critics who strongly oppose what they consider overly slick corporate and consumerist versions of faith A core feature of their response is a challenge to traditional congregational models often focusing on new church plants and creating networks of related house churches Drawing on three years of ethnographic fieldwork James S Bielo explores the impact of the Emerging Church movement on American Evangelicals He combines ethnographic analysis with discussions of the movement s history discursive contours defining practices cultural logics and contentious interactions with conservative Evangelical critics to rethink the boundaries of Evangelical as a category Ultimately Bielo makes a novel contribution to our understanding of the important changes at work among American Protestants and illuminates how Emerging Evangelicals interact with the cultural conditions of modernity late modernity and visions of postmodern Christianity James S Bielo is Visiting Assistant Professor of Anthropology at Miami University in Oxford OH He is the author of Words Upon the Word An Ethnography of Evangelical Group Bible Study NYU Press and editor of The Social Life of Scriptures Cross cultural Perspectives on Biblicism
