

Remembering You Always

ABOUT

When a loved one dies, grieving family members and friends are often confronted with dozens of decisions about the funeral – all of which must be made quickly and under great emotional duress. Also during this time, survivors and others who share in their loss may want to express their love, respect, grief and appreciation for a life that has been lived.

Flowers express a feeling of life and beauty and offer much comfort to the family. The offering of prayers is a valued expression of sympathy to a family of faith. A personal note of sympathy is very meaningful as well. Yet you can express all of these things with a keepsake for a lifetime through our Memory Books. Expressing yourself openly and sincerely through your own personalized Memory Book, you can share meaningful memories with family and friends.

Some may want to express themselves by writing a message to or of their loved one, helping find closure at this difficult time. Others may have pictures of their loved one's childhood or of better times in their life. Memory Books allows you to remember your loved one as they lived – through pictures and words.

All of this can be done with our exclusive Memory Book – designed, and printed in time for the services.

Please browse the various images available and give us a call when you are ready. Our experienced staff will help to arrange a picture memorial for you to pass along to your friends, relatives, colleagues – whomever shared in the life of your loved one.

Miller, 2006 Jewish Stories of Love and Marriage Sandy Eisenberg Sasso, Peninnah Schram, 2015-08-20 Jewish Stories of Love and Marriage offers a treasury of tales that speak to the tenderness and passion difficulties and blessings of love Jewish tradition overflows with love stories from the Bible Talmud and Midrash Folktales continue the tradition and contemporary writers highlight the way their faith and love interweave and enrich each other From Adam and Eve to Song of Songs from legends of Solomon to the letters of Alfred and Lucie Dreyfus these are stories of heartbreak devotion and celebration They tell of how people fall in love and how they grow in love The narratives are as old as the Bible and as new as the twenty first century They come from places as far ranging as Yemen and New York The relationships are heterosexual and homosexual arranged and spontaneous young and mature Though the stories reflect the times and places in which they were told they have a universal message about longing and romance relationship respect and commitment Noted storyteller Peninnah Schram and Rabbi Sandy Eisenberg Sasso collect these narratives and letters for the first time inviting readers to delve into these stories for entertainment and inspiration at engagements weddings and anniversaries to recall what once brought people close and what continues to hold them in love Children's Books and Their Creators Anita Silvey, 1995 Unique in its coverage of contemporary American children s literature this timely single volume reference covers the books our children are or should be reading now from board books to young adult novels Enriched with dozens of color illustrations and the voices of authors and illustrators themselves it is a cornucopia of delight 23 color 153 b w illustrations Emerging Theologies from the Global South Mitri Raheb, Mark A. Lamport, 2023-03-29 In recent decades there has been a seismic shift in world Christianity Whereas formerly Christianity existed as a Caucasian Euro American phenomenon the majority of Christians today reside in the Southern Hemisphere or the Global South And what is true for the demographics of Christianity has followed lockstep for its theological developments The era of German theologians setting the tone for global church are gone Today some of the loudest and most creative voices in theology speak from the emerging contingencies of the Global South for example promoting Latinx Black Caribbean and Asian theologies and their influence often influences the conversation in the United States and Europe In addition just as the center of Christianity has moved geographically from north to south so with theological seminaries in the west which have declined as training centers for clergy These events coincide with new theological centers are opening in Asia Africa Oceania and Latin America The bottom line is contemporary Christianity today looks significantly different than it did a century ago and publications have been slow to acknowledge let alone describe and elaborate upon this major shift to the largest religion in the world These shifts guide our intentions in this book Such a reference book which could also be used as a textbook therefore is very much needed In fact there is nothing like the contents of this single volume book in the publishing market which allows for high quality interdisciplinary and international dialogue
