from the Close of the Bible to Our Own Days: From 1880 to 1935 Meyer Waxman, 1947 Barricades and Banners Scott Ury, 2012-08-08 This book examines the intersection of urban society and modern politics among Jews in turn of the century Warsaw Europe's largest Jewish center at the time By focusing on the tumultuous events surrounding the Revolution of 1905 Barricades and Banners argues that the metropolitanization of Jewish life led to a need for new forms of community and belonging and that the ensuing search for collective and individual order gave birth to the new institutions organizations and practices that would define modern Jewish society and politics for the remainder of the twentieth century A History of Jewish Literature: From 1880 to 1935. 2 pts Meyer Waxman, 1960 A History of Jewish Literature: From 1880 to 1935 Meyer Waxman, 1941 A History of Jewish Literature Meyer Waxman, 1960 The Universal Jewish Encyclopedia ... Isaac Landman, Simon Cohen, 1943 Organizing Rescue S. Ilan Troen, Benjamin Pinkus, 2020-04-06 Upheavals of the modern period have dramatically changed the traditional pattern of the rescue of Jews by Jews Whereas until the mid nineteenth century rescue was carried out by community leaders in accordance with the religiously rooted injunction for the redemption of captives in the modern period largely secular international Jewish organizations and the State of Israel have emerged as the primary instruments of expressing Jewish national solidarity The campaigns to restore the exodus from the Soviet Union and to rescue Ethiopian Jews through Operation Moses are the most recent expressions of the imperative to save threatened Jewish communities and reconstitute them elsewhere The dynamics and achievements of organized rescue in the modern period are critically assessed in this volume which includes 18 interpretive essays and case studies by leading European American and Israeli scholars Organizing Rescue is divided into four sections The introductory essays examine the roots of Jewish solidarity in Jewish law and trace the transformation of rescue activity from a religious to a largely secular undertaking The three sections that follow group selected case studies chronologically Part I from the Damascus Affair to the First World War 1840 1914 deals with new patterns of response to the persecution of Jews in Europe Asia and Africa under the impact of emancipation nationalism and antisemitism Part II World Wars and the Shadow of the Holocaust 1914 1948 deals with the transitional period that brought hope and bitter disillusion to Jews in Europe and the Middle East Part III The Contemporary Period 1948 to the present examines the different manifestations of Jewish national solidarity that developed in response to the Holocaust and the creation of the State of Israel These studies illuminate and evaluate the efforts of Jews to defend and preserve communities separated by vast distances and diverse cultural and political systems By placing these studies in an integrated historical and comparative framework Organizing Rescue provides a timely and unique perspective for understanding national Jewish solidarity in the modern period Emma Goldman Emma Goldman, 2008-07-16 Reconstructs the life of Emma Goldman through significant texts and documents History of the Jews in Russia and Poland Simon Dubnow, 1918 A Phoenix in Fetters David Patterson, 1988 Between the French Revolution and World War I Hebrew literature experienced a veritable renaissance first in Central Europe and then in Eastern Europe Its vigorous search for new modes of expression played a major role in the revival of Hebrew as a living language In A Phoenix in Fetters David Patterson describes the extraordinary paradox affecting Hebrew literature in the 19th century On the one hand it aspired to serve as a conduit for the Jews of eastern Europe from the medieval to the modern world On the other hand it embraced a theory of literature that artificially restricted its development The paradox was resolved only in the first decades of the 20th century

A New Sound in Hebrew Poetry Miryam Segal, 2010-01-02 With scrupulous attention to landmark poetic texts and to educational and critical discourse in early 20th century Palestine Miryam Segal traces the emergence of a new accent to replace the Ashkenazic or European Hebrew accent in which almost all modern Hebrew poetry had been composed until the 1920s Segal takes into account the broad historical ideological and political context of this shift including the construction of a national language culture and literary canon the crucial role of schools the influence of Zionism and the leading role played by women poets in introducing the new accent This meticulous and sophisticated yet readable study provides surprising new insights into the emergence of modern Hebrew poetry and the revival of the Hebrew language in the Land of Israel
