Created in Darkness by Troubled Americans Dave Eggers, 2004 Now more than ever Americans are troubled by questions As sweaty modernity thrusts itself upon us the veil of ignorance that cloaked our nation hangs in tatters tattered tatters Our funny bones are neither fun nor bony Glum is the new giddy and the old giddy wasn't too giddy to begin with What can be done to stop this relentless march of drabbery Not much Nothing we can think of It's pretty much too late The light of August turns to the overcast skies of autumn and the taunting sting of winter cannot be far ahead on the highway of the road on the horizon Who can sing a song without words Maybe Bobby McFerrin but is there anyone else Where do we go when the party is over Perhaps the afterparty But what comes after the afterparty Questions there are so many questions and then some queries arriving via fax To these we respond in the only way possible Talk to the hand because the face ain't listening Nevertheless we present the pages within as an offering of peace as a message of hope and as a perfumed hankie of love a hankie drizzled with the intoxicating aroma that has only one name ha ha oopsie Book Review Index, 2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation

Rodriguez, Ashok Menon, 2010-01-01 What the authors offer is a thoroughgoing analysis clearly demonstrating that whatever economic path developing countries pursue imposing Western style antitrust regimes will engender uncertainty chill economic behaviour and foster an unhealthy climate for business They employ the influential error cost methodology to appraise the performance of competition policy and to show how such a policy creates irresolvable tensions in fragile economies with weak institutions economies characterized by informal rules of business practice long standing symbiotic business state relationships and unpredictable state action They mount a powerful critique of the arguments of neo institutionalists who fail to recognize the vulnerable nature of emerging market economies and competition advocates who presume to stand ready and vigilant to enforce competition policy on state entities
