Creating New Schools How Small Schools Are Changing American Education:

Creating New Schools Evans Clinchy, 2000 In this timely volume acclaimed educational scholars and experts who share a critical view of the standards and testing movement explore the major reform issues currently facing American educational institutions The collective wisdom they provide is sound and never strays far from a consideration for the difficulty of implementing educational reforms in the face of structural and ideological limitations Aspects of school reform such as the role states play the results of reform efforts in the urban enclaves of New York and Boston and the position of unions in school system reform represent just some of the comprehensive analyses presented here Particular attention is given to the challenges faced by new smaller and more independent schools This volume is laden with balanced advice for anyone seeking to understand or inspire educational reform

Coming of Age in U.S. High Schools Annette B. Hemmings, 2004-05-20 This book provides a description and analysis of how adolescent students representing diverse racial ethnic social class sexual and gender locations navigate American cultural crosscurrents in urban and suburban public high schools It includes extensive

System-wide Efforts to Improve Student Achievement Kenneth K. Wong, Stacey Rutledge, 2006-03-01 Strong system wide support is increasingly being identified as laying an important role in policy efforts aimed at increasing student achievement Hightower Knapp March and McLaughlin 2002 Yet current research often views district and other system wide support as largely governance changes without substantive linkage to school improvement outcomes Cuban and Usdan 2003 In this volume we seek to deepen our understanding of the role of school districts and system wide initiatives through a series of case studies that focus on how school districts and system wide actors facilitate policy innovation and reform initiatives that are designed to improve student achievement Through both quantitative and qualitative studies from diverse settings across the country chapters in this volume examine the role of instructional technology alternative accountability practices management and partnership reforms and school improvement efforts through new incentive and support practices While challenges remain these case studies demonstrate how districts support and facilitate school change aimed at improving student achievement

Promising Practices for Partnering with Families in the Early Years Mary M. Cornish, 2008-08-01 This volume is directed toward research to practice issues related to partnering with families of children birth through age 5 This monograph and the next monograph focuses on family and school involvement issues in two age categories This sixth volume analyzes family involvement practices across a variety of settings and programs at the early childhood level The seventh monograph in this series addresses research and practices related to family school issues in middle and secondary schools The chapters address to varying degrees five themes based on the principles of familycentered partnerships 1 Recognizing and respecting one another's knowledge and expertise 2 Sharing information through two way communication 3 Sharing power and decision making 4 Acknowledging and respecting diversity and 5 Creating networks of support The monograph supports the accomplishment of these goals as a whole by providing important insights about exemplary programs and promising practices informed by current research Also it highlights policies and theoretical perspectives relevant to these aims Individual chapters offer a variety of practical strategies and recommendations that families early childhood practitioners policymakers and researchers can use to enhance their knowledge and strengthen their skills for partnering effectively Engaging the Disengaged Lois Brown Easton,2008 An inspiring book Easton s clear compelling writing is made more vivid by the wonderful real life examples Dennis Sparks Emeritus Executive Director National Staff Development Council Principals particularly secondary school principals should find this book and Easton s earlier work to be all the basic resources required It is comprehensive and deals with the critical issues of the day Richard W Clark Executive Vice President Institute for Educational Inquiry Create an integrated system of support for struggling students Based on Lois Brown Easton s experience working with disengaged learners this insightful resource helps educators make positive connections with youngsters of all ages who are at risk of failing or dropping out Featuring the voices of educators and students this invaluable text covers methods for improving the schoolwide climate in ways that support all students and for creating a learning environment that promotes academic personal and social growth The author illustrates how to make meaningful changes in curriculum and instruction and examines the importance of Teacher student relationships Innovative teaching strategies for struggling learners Developing self directed learners Using appropriate assessments for students with learning difficulties Easton s book inspires teachers to make a significant change in their school s culture to engage developing minds and champion all learners regardless of socioeconomic factors

Silenced Voices and Extraordinary Conversations Michelle Fine,Lois Weis,2003-01-01 Two noted educators invite new and veteran teachers on an intellectual guided tour through the troubles of bad practice and the delights of good This volume is a collection of classic essays as urgently needed now as when they first appeared on social class race gender and schooling crafted over the course of two decades The authors invite all of us to take a serious look at the paradox of public education the ways in which urban schools reproduce social inequalities while at the same time serve as sites for learning at its most transformative and compelling A must read for all those educators who believe that we can no longer afford to cede this space to policymakers who know little of the life of a classroom the curiosity of a child and the moral imperatives of teaching for critical citizenship

Re-Envisioning Education and Democracy Ruthanne Kurth-Schai,Charles R. Green,2006-09-01 The fate of public education and therefore the future of our democracy is at risk Powerful forces are eroding commitment to public schools and weakening democratic resolve Yet even in deeply troubling times it is possible to broaden social imagination and empower efforts toward systemic progressive reform This book is an invitation for widespread participation in a complex process re envisioning education and democracy To reenvision to envision and then envision again is to join with others in imagining new possibilities and bringing these into existence Re envisioning is a radically social process Although distinct and varied individual contributions are required transformative visions cannot be advanced through the agency of one charismatic person or bound by one influential perspective The process of re envisioning like all forms of democratic living and learning draws energy and insight when connection and communion are sustained across dimensions of difference Re envisioning is an intensely creative and exploratory process It is not accomplished through careful construction of best laid plans aimed at attaining certainty and control Re envisioning is instead experienced and evolved by preparing for and then acting on informed and strategic glimpses These brief and fleeting impressions multimodal and multi sensory incomplete and ambiguous always in motion offer potentials but no definitive answers Re envisioning is a profoundly ethical and aesthetic process centered in prospects for social justice compassion reform and renewal Social movements are rarely motivated by commitments to narrow objectives aimed at solving specific problems Across time and cultures we are drawn to persons and processes to ideas and images that call us back to remember our highest principles and move us forward to respond with acts of integrity and grace Recurrent themes of beauty and power here mirrored in chapter titles inspire guide and liberate collective vision and principled action Re envisioning although accessible to all remains largely undeveloped and underutilized Our collective ability to realize progressive aspirations for education and democracy can be significantly enhanced by integrating the process of re envisioning with other more familiar educational and political reform strategies

Mutuality in El Barrio Carey Kasten, Brenna Moore, 2024-04-16 The stories of 18 immigrant families from East Harlem and their experiences with one of New York's deeply rooted organizations On any given weekday people stream in and out of Little Sisters of the Assumption Family Health Service's bright airy building on 115th Street They are mostly mothers who find their way to LSA sometimes only weeks after crossing the border from Mexico having heard of the support that las hermanitas the little sisters offer Opening a window into the world of New York's Spanish speaking newcomers Mutuality in El Barrio combines oral histories with archival research of the history spirituality and ministry of LSA to present how this well established organization serves vulnerable populations with a unique approach they call mutuality LSA is part of a network of East Harlem's powerful grassroots organizations that draws from the remarkable strengths of local families in its community It is a place of healing and empowerment focused on the overall holistic health of resident families Long term relationships are cultivated here rather than quick fixes and it is a place that nurtures people's full potential as leaders parents and advocates for themselves In Mutuality in El Barrio eighteen mothers share how through the help of LSA they managed to navigate a strange city and an unfamiliar language in a neighborhood that has long been a site of incredible challenges and extraordinary strength creativity and cultural vitality These personal accounts of mothers long time LSA staff and nuns reveal how these women found solidarity accompaniment care neighborhood transformation and binding connections through mutuality that helped them grow and connect in East Harlem Their stories shine a light on an organization that began as a small community of vowed nuns who like these mothers also trace their origins abroad
