Contestatory and Creative Poetics for a Time of Climate Catastrophe John Kinsella, Russell West-Pavlov, 2025-10-14 Contestatory and Creative Poetics for a Time of Climate Catastrophe Volume 1 Per Se is an extended narrative meditation upon the meaning of per se which generally denotes the thing in itself for its own sake but that upon closer examination transpires to be a high tensile composite of the thing se and a relationship per that always links it to something else and indeed in relations of internal complexity to itself Per se in the book's multiple parsings of the term is a moniker for the infinite relationality of the world and the relationality of each thing in itself Per se also denotes the endless fractal embedding of bundles of relationality at the successive levels of thing-ness from the infinitesimally minute nano scale to the unimaginably distant outer reaches of the sidereal Per se becomes an exploration of the way commodities cut loose from their context of production and floating on sea of oscillating exchange values never cease to morph back into artefacts defined by the socially intensive use values their fellow actants discover in them The book thus focalises a politicised effort to revision the rampant multiscale individualism solipsism and apartheid like segregation of our age Instead it searches for possibilities or community in every aspect of the world we have learnt to see through a relentlessly atomising and hypostatizing filter The volume claims that every act of perception is political reestablishing obfuscated connections thereby seeking to repair the shredded fabric of the ecosphere below the threshold of myopic

common sense Yet it also celebrates the myriad acts of citizen defiance visible and invisible that constitute activist agendas around the world sending signals both practical and exemplary symbolic and literary that shore up communities of resistance everywhere The book does not hesitate to interrogate the fractal responsiveness to its own nature meditating repeatedly on the political character of writing and more significantly of the teaching of writing Central to its concerns are various avatars of trees from the pirogue that hangs above a bar in Lille and one that is crafted as part of an Italian artist's global collaboration on the periphery of this volume's emergence via the jacarandas of post apartheid South Africa to a wood chipped pine forest that has become a memorial library in Oslo to name only a few of the topics taken up by the book's many silvan micro fictions Looming over all these concerns are two contemporary silvan catastrophes the megablazes that destroyed forests in Amazonia Australia California Siberia and the Mediterranean during the period when the book was being written and the deforestation that has allowed zoonotic diseases to jump from once secluded animal species to the humans that would never have been their neighbours if naturally occurring forest barriers had been left intact

Christina Rossetti Emma Mason, 2018-06-10 Christina Rossetti 1830-94 is regarded as one of the greatest Christian poets to write in English While Rossetti has firmly secured her place in the canon her religious poetry was for a long time either overlooked or considered evidence of a melancholic disposition burdened by faith Recent scholarship has redressed reductive readings of Christian theology as repressive by rethinking it as a form of compassionate politics This shift has enabled new readings of Rossetti's work not simply as a body of significant nineteenth century devotional literature but also as a marker of religion's relevance to modern concerns through its reflections on science and materialism as well as spirituality and mysticism Emma Mason offers a compelling study of Christina Rossetti arguing that her poetry diaries letters and devotional commentaries are engaged with both contemporary theological debate and an emergent ecological agenda In chapters on the Catholic Revival Pre Raphaelite Brotherhood contemporary debates on plant and animal being and the relationship between grace and apocalypse Mason reads Rossetti's theology as an argument for spiritual materialism and ecological transformation She ultimately suggests that Rossetti's life and work captures the experience of faith as one of loving intimacy with the minutiae of creation a divine body in which all things material and immaterial human and nonhuman divine and embodied are interconnected

The immediate effect on critics was modest but they became and remain a landmark, changing the course of English literature and poetry. Most of the poems in the 1798 edition were written by Wordsworth, with Coleridge contributing only five poems to the collection, including one of his most famous works, The Rime of the Ancient Mariner. A second edition was published in 1800 in which Wordsworth included additional poems and a preface detailing the pair's avowed poetical principles.

He wrote the poems The Rime of the Ancient Mariner and Kubla Khan, as well as the major prose work Biographia Literaria.

William Wordsworth (1770–1850) was a major English Romantic poet who, with Samuel Taylor Coleridge, helped to launch the Romantic Age in English literature with their joint publication Lyrical Ballads (1798).
