John F. MacArthur

Creation And Fall:

Creation and Fall Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 2004-01-01 Creation and Fall originated in lectures given by Dietrich Bonhoeffer at the University of Berlin in the winter semester of 1932-33 during the demise of the Weimar Republic and the birth of the Third Reich. In the course of these events Bonhoeffer called his students to focus their attention on the word of God, the word of truth in a time of turmoil.

Creation and Fall Temptation Dietrich Bonhoeffer, 1997-03-12 In this enlightening study renowned twentieth century theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer offers a careful textual analysis of the story of creation, approaching the biblical tale of Genesis with the eye of a philosopher and the soul of a true Christian. Creation and Fall is Bonhoeffer's lucid brilliant analysis of the first three chapters of Genesis. Here he discusses the seeming scientific naiveté behind the creation story, God's love and goodness and humanity's creation, its free will and its blessedness. Bonhoeffer also tackles difficult questions that are raised from the first book of the Bible: questions about the seemingly redundant second story of creation, about God's own beginning, about the source of the light that was created the first day. The author then expounds upon Adam and Eve's fall from grace. How could they, creatures made in God's image, have thought to oppose God so foully? Where did the first evil come from? How did humanity lose its right to live in paradise? In Temptation Bonhoeffer questions how temptation appeared in the midst of Eden's innocence and he explores the very nature of evil. Bonhoeffer explains that Jesus Christ helps us to understand and conquer physical and spiritual temptation through His grace and goodness.

Creation; the Fall; and the Deluge Junius Benjamin Remensnyder, 1886

The Creation, the Fall and the Promise Joshua Radke, 2017-10-12 Moses' account of the Creation of the cosmos by God, the Fall of mankind into sin, and the LORD's promise to redeem his creation through His Son is not simply a set of facts. It is also a story, one with profound depth and richness, bearing witness to the Divine Mysteries. In this book the Author and Artist hope to reveal to families the connections between Genesis 1-3 and the life and ministry of Christ: His Passion and Resurrection, the Sacraments, and Jesus' ultimate promise of His return on the Last Day, when all of Creation will be made new for ever.

Salvation History Sungku Kang, 2018-11-15 Salvation history can be thought of as twofold: one is that God Himself personally takes action, and the other is that God has humans act. An example of the latter is Exodus, in which God had Moses lead the Israelites from Egypt to Canaan. The skin garment that God made with slain animals for the fallen Adam is an example of the former. Adam's fall is the very starting point of God's saving acts in human history. In His saving acts, God utilized his sin as the means of salvation. However, God's plan on saving human beings began far ahead of the creation of Adam, for omniscient God already knew of Adam's fall before the world had begun. As Apostle Peter confirms, God's will to save lost sinners was planned from the very beginning, and Jesus Christ was chosen before the creation of the world as our Savior In His saving plan Almighty God reversed all the negatives that would arise from Adam's fall into positives triumphing over them by the cross We need to be clothed in the robe of righteousness the garments of salvation through Jesus Christ The fig leaf coverings sewn by human efforts cannot cover our nakedness In essence the grace of salvation originates from God not from fallible humans Current human history has been heading towards a thorough restoration of God's image When the full and perfect restoration of God's image is accomplished salvation history will finally be complete Although heavily infected by sin we have constantly been advancing towards the perfect restoration of God's image and likeness When Jesus Christ returns to us our defiled image of God will be transformed into His perfect likeness On the day when He appears as Apostle John says we shall be like Him That day will be the very end of human history On that very day at long last God's redemptive plan will be completed

Saving Shame Virginia Burrus, 2013-04-19 Virginia Burrus explores one of the strongest and most disturbing aspects of the Christian tradition its excessive preoccupation with shame While Christianity has frequently been implicated in the conversion of ancient Mediterranean cultures from shame to guilt based and thus in the emergence of the modern West's emphasis on guilt Burrus seeks to recuperate the importance of shame for Christian culture Focusing on late antiquity she explores a range of fascinating phenomena from the flamboyant performances of martyrs to the imagined abjection of Christ from the self humiliating disciplines of ascetics to the intimate disclosures of Augustine Burrus argues that Christianity innovated less by replacing shame with guilt than by embracing shame Indeed the ancient Christians sacrificed honor but laid claim to their own shame with great energy at once intensifying and transforming it Public spectacles of martyrdom became the most visible means through which vulnerability to shame was converted into a defiant witness of identity this was also where the sacrificial death of the self exemplified by Christ's crucifixion was most explicitly appropriated by his followers. Shame showed a more private face as well as Burrus demonstrates. The ambivalent lure of fleshly corruptibility was explored in the theological imaginary of incarnational Christology. It was further embodied in the transgressive disciplines of saints who plumbed the depths of humiliation. Eventually with the advent of literary and monastic confessional practices the shame of sin's inexhaustibility made itself heard in the revelations of testimonial discourse. In conversation with an eclectic constellation of theorists Burrus interweaves her historical argument with theological, psychological, and ethical reflections. She proposes finally that early Christian texts may have much to teach us about the secrets of shame that lie at the heart of our capacity for humility, courage, and transformative love.

Worth Doing W. David Buschart, Ryan Tafilowski, 2025-11-25. Reimagine Your Theology of Faith and Work. Conversations about faith and work often miss an important truth: limitations are not a problem; they're a key part of what it means to be human. Work has always been part of humanity's purpose, but we're no longer in the perfect Garden of Eden, nor are we in the future new heavens and new earth. To truly address the challenges of work, we need a new theological perspective. In Worth Doing, David Buschart and Ryan Tafilowski embrace the realities of limitations, challenging the myths of "You are what you do" and "Do what you love." Instead, they propose a theology of work that affirms the goodness of human limits while addressing the realities of fallenness, offering hope for those who may not find deep fulfillment in their daily jobs. Buschart and Tafilowski outline a new vision of work that resonates with all workers, recognizing that every job has value, even when it doesn't align with idealized notions of purpose or calling. By embracing this perspective, people can find new ways to approach daily labor, even when it doesn't feel deeply fulfilling. In Worth Doing, readers will gain a theology of work that moves beyond only ideas of productivity or calling. Learn how to embrace human limitations as part of God's good design. Reflect on the ways work connects to broader questions of purpose and human flourishing. Worth Doing invites readers to consider their limitations as valuable aspects of their vocational journey, offering a thoughtful framework for addressing the complexities of work. This book is particularly relevant for theologians examining the intersections of work, faith, and rest; Christian educators and leaders in the faith and work space. By moving beyond conventional theological approaches to faith and work, Worth Doing presents a hopeful and theologically rich perspective on vocation that acknowledges and embraces human limitations.

Human Worth in Comparing Secular and Christian Perspectives Monica Thiel, 2024-09-23. This book integrates secular literature such as psychology sociology management and organization studies with Christian and spiritual biblical literature This book explores the importance of human worth in our personal and professional lives through an interdisciplinary approach that integrates human and societal worth with Christian and spiritual worth Moreover the book highlights values that receive little or no attention in secular literature Overall this book shows readers how human worth is often manipulated and undermined within societal worth in contrast to Christian worth with implications for cultivating leadership and education This book focuses more on the biblical texts rather than the theological differences In addition this book situates itself on common biblical interests across Christian church denominations worldwide rather than exploring more on the secular cultural differences This book positions itself from a non denominational and Western perspective with a focus on biblical texts theology and secular literature Readers that would be interested in this book are scholars and students in religion ethics and spirituality

The Battle for the Beginning John F. MacArthur,2005-03-20 The battle lines have been drawn Is the enemy winning Thanks to the theory of evolution writes best selling author John MacArthur naturalism is now the dominant religion of modern society Less than a century and a half ago Charles Darwin popularized the credo for this secular religion Naturalism has now replaced Christianity as the main religion of the Western world and evolution has become its principal dogma Many Christians who claim to believe that the Bible is God s revealed truth seem willing to allow modern scientific theories to replace the Genesis account of creation Such compromises present a conspicuous danger Bible teacher and pastor John MacArthur believes that in Genesis 1 3 we find the foundation of every doctrine that is essential to the Christian faith the vital underpinnings for everything we believe The Battle for the Beginning draws a clear line on today s theological landscape Everything in Scripture that teaches about sin and redemption assumes the literal truth of the first three chapters of Genesis If we wobble to any degree on the truth of this passage John MacArthur insists we undermine the very foundations of our faith

Creation, Fall and the Hope of Redemption Bill Randles,2016-05-06 Creation Fall and Redemption is a verse by verse commentary of the foundational book of the Bible Genesis 1-11 Pastor Bill takes the reader through a devotional and informative tour of the Creation fall of man Cain and Abel the creation of the first city the development of civilization the conditions leading to the flood and the Tower of Babel and the division of humanity This book shows us that not only are the early chapters of Genesis about our beginnings but they also foreshadow the end times and final judgments of the Lord upon this earth But the book is also a testament to the salvation of God right from the beginning through the seed of the woman promise which is the key to unlocking all of the Book of Genesis
