Nu s au introdus date The Faro Convention's role in a changing society Francesc Pla, Jovana Poznan, 2022-01-05 Council of Europe action in the field of cultural heritage targets promoting diversity and dialogue through access to heritage to foster a sense of identity collective memory and mutual understanding within and between communities The year 2021 marks the 10th anniversary of the entry into force of the Framework Convention on the Value of Cultural Heritage for Society also known as the Faro Convention The present publication shows that what emerged back in 2005 as a truly innovative approach is still relevant today and can also have an impact on issues beyond its traditional realm This is illustrated through a set of articles that demonstrate the pertinence of the Faro Convention's approach to cultural heritage in addressing different aspects ranging from democratic participation to tourism rethinking. The wide range of topics addressed and the numerous possibilities described by the various contributors suggest that the next ten years of the Faro Convention will be as challenging and rewarding as the decade that has elapsed since its entry into force.

Arts and Community Change Max O. Stephenson Jr., Scott Tate, 2015-05-15 Arts and Community Change Exploring Cultural Development Policies Practices and Dilemmas addresses the growing number of communities adopting arts and culture based development methods to influence social change. Providing community workers and planners with strategies to develop arts policy that enriches communities and their residents, this collection critically examines the central tensions and complexities in arts policy, paying attention to issues of gentrification and stratification. Including a variety of case studies from across the United States and Canada, these success stories and best practice approaches across many media present strategies to design appropriate policy for unique populations. Edited by Max Stephenson Jr. and A. Scott Tate of Virginia Tech, Arts and Community Change presents 10 chapters from artistic and community leaders, essential reading for students and practitioners in economic development and arts management.

Engaging Performance Jan Cohen-Cruz, 2012-07-26 Engaging Performance Theatre as Call and Response presents a combined analysis and workbook to examine socially engaged performance. It offers a range of key practical approaches, exercises, and principles for using performance to engage in a variety of social and artistic projects. Author Jan Cohen-Cruz draws on a career of groundbreaking research and work within the fields of political, applied, and community theatre to explore the impact of how differing genres of theatre respond to social calls. Areas highlighted include playwriting and the engaged artist, theatre of the oppressed, performance as testimonial, the place of engaged art in cultural organizing, the use of local resources in engaged art, revitalizing cities and neighborhoods through engaged performance, training of the engaged artist. Cohen-Cruz also draws on the work of major theoreticians including Bertolt Brecht, Augusto Boal, and Doreen Massey, as well as analyzing in depth case studies of the work of US practitioners today to illustrate engaged performance in action. Jan Cohen-Cruz is director of Imagining America Artists and Scholars in Public Life. She is the author of Local Acts: Community-based Performance in the US, the editor of Radical Street Performance, co-editor with Mady Schutzman of Playing Boal: Theatre Therapy, Activism, and a Boal Companion, and a University Professor at Syracuse University.
