Allotted Time:

Allotted Time Robin Shelton, 2011-02-23 Robin Shelton and his mate Steve were complete neophytes when they decided that having an allotment might save them a bit of money. But what had seemed like a good idea over a couple of beers seemed rather more daunting when faced with a weedy patch of ground. Still both men were at a crisis point in their lives and the allotment represented their desire to achieve something concrete. They persevered and despite the weather and confusing advice from their elderly allotment neighbours managed to plant and grow a successful crop of vegetables. As he writes about their year in the allotment Robin describes his own personal journey. When he takes the allotment on he is divorced, broke and suffering from depression. Working on the allotment brings back happy memories of his father who died when Robin was sixteen and also draws him closer to his own two sons. Gradually Robin finds stability and a sense of purpose in his life. His and Steve's tale is funny, moving and enlightening, a book for anyone who's ever bitten off more than they can chew but muddled through anyway. Their struggle to plant their crops against the baffling advice of fellow allotment holders is funny and moving. Our heroes finish the year wiser, saner and with an impressive array of veg. The Unseen War for Your Soul Thompson Palmer, 2012-06 Divine light, love and truth can only come from the source that created all things. Without knowing this source, all walk in the darkness, searching and hoping they can find the purpose of their existence. Multitudes of voices cry out in the darkness for a genuine love and truth. Many are taken advantage of by a myriad of substitutes in the world systems and religions of man. I have written my book for all those who will not be satisfied with the flowery rhetoric of those dressed in the attire of a shepherd. The Unseen War for Your Soul will take us into three worlds: Eternity past, We look at the existence of God and his revelation of himself to his people. Scriptural revelation as to why God created angels, seraphims and cherubims. The fifth cherubim is an astonishing created being. He was heaven's most brilliant star until the rebellion. The world of time, The creation of our world, the creation of humanity and the origins of evil. You will be amazed what actually transpired at the creation of humanity. Eternity future, The two prepared places where all that can never die will live. I lay down my pen knowing I have done my best to reach my family, friends and generation with what has been given to me from my creator.
