An Emotional History of the United States Peter N. Stearns, Jan Lewis, 1998. Emotions lie at our very core as human beings. How we process and grapple with our emotions how and what we emote and how we respond to the emotions of others constitute the essence of our social universe. In a very real sense we exist only through the prism of our emotions. And yet the profound effect of human emotion on history politics religion and culture remains underexamined. While the influence of emotion in such realms as American foreign policy has been well documented other emotional aspects of American history have escaped notice. What role for instance does emotion have in the practice of African American religion? How do shame and self hatred influence American conceptions of identity? How does our emotional life change as we age? To what degree is American consumerism driven by basic human emotion? With this landmark anthology historians Peter N. Stearns and Jan Lewis provide a road map of the American emotional landscape. From the emotional world of working class Massachusetts to the prayers of evangelical and pentecostal women and the gendered nature of black rage these essays provide a multicultural snapshot of the unique nature and evolution of American emotions.

Freedom's Daughters Lynne Olson, 2001. Provides portraits and cameos of over sixty women who were influential in the Civil Rights Movement and argues that the political activity of women has been the driving force in major reform movements throughout history.

The Beckmeyer Family Complete Collection (Family Lodge Small Town Instalove) Bree Kraemer, 2023-05-25. Hooked. Barrett Beckmeyer lived his whole life knowing what he wanted. He wanted to be outside on the lake at his family's resort. Fishing was his life. In the summer in the winter it didn't matter. He loved it. He didn't know anything was missing. Until Eden. One night with her and nothing was the same. Eden. Craig wasn't looking for more than a night of fun. That was all Barrett was supposed to be. One night and then forget him. Only forgetting him was impossible. And when she's asked to be the lead architect on an addition at Maple Ridge Resort she knows avoiding him will be inevitable. She was hooked from the second he sat down next to her but did he feel the same? Sparked. Nina Beckmeyer had been in love since she'd been sixteen. There was just one problem. The guy had no idea. After spending two summers and countless weekends with her family, Donovan Stewart was gone in the blink of an eye. All these years later she's doing just fine even if all her dreams are of a man she knows she can never have. Until he shows back up. Donovan has loved Nina since the moment he saw her thirteen years ago. It happened in a flash and has never gone away. But she's his friend's sister and there is no way Emmett would be okay with them together. Or would he? When he arrives in town as a favor to Nina's family, the same spark of awareness that had been there so many years ago is even stronger. Donovan knows it's now or never and he's not willing to settle for never. Is the love they each secretly felt all those years ago a love that is real? Shocked. Emmett Beckmeyer had always been what most people would call stable. He came to work every day at his family's resort, did his job, had just the right amount of fun and gave good advice. That all changed after a small fire in the newly added spa where his sister and the electrician were trapped. Since that moment, nothing has been the same. Maybe it was the fire telling him life was short or maybe it was the gorgeous, sexy electrician, Morgan, who he couldn't stop thinking of. He wanted her badly but knew from past experience that women weren't looking for long term when it came to him. Something that had held him back long enough. Morgan's life was a mess. She'd moved to the small Wisconsin town of Lyden to meet her real dad and from there, her life had been twisted every which way but up. After the fire, she was having a hard time sleeping and dealing with all that was on her plate. The very last thing she needed was to be having dreams about Emmett Beckmeyer, the man who saved her from the fire. He despised her or at least that's what she thought. Until a party at his parent's house where that all changed. Kneaded. Decker Beckmeyer has a great life. He loves his family and his job. But every day he remembers the past and how he almost gave it up for the wrong woman. He's vowed to never let another woman into his heart again even though he yearns for love and a family of his own. When he does his sister an innocent favor, that all changes. Natasha can't believe her life has come to this. An ex-boyfriend is harassing her and her once perfect life is now in shambles. Enter Decker Beckmeyer. He's gorgeous, sexy, and has hair that any woman would be envious of. And he wants her to come work for Maple Ridge Resort and Spa. The timing couldn't be more perfect. There's just one problem. He spends his days ignoring her while she spends all of hers obsessing over what it would be like to be with him. That is until she's had enough and confronts him only to find out that maybe he's not as immune to her as she thought. Take one last ride with the Beckmeyer Family as Decker finally gets his happy ending.
