Aloha Dolores:

Aloha Dolores Penguin Books, Limited, 2002-01-01 The Aloha Spirit Linda Ulleseit, 2025-07-30 The spirit of aloha is found in Hawaii's fresh ocean air the flowers the trade winds the natural beauty that smooth the struggles of daily life In 1922 Honolulu unhappy in the adoptive family that's raised her Dolores begins to search for that spirit early on and she begins by running away at sixteen to live with her newlywed friend Maria Trying to find her own love Dolores marries a young Portuguese man named Manolo His large family embraces her but when his drinking leads to physical abuse only his relative Alberto comes to her rescue and sparks a passion within Dolores that she hasn't known before Staunch Catholics can't divorce however so after the Pearl Harbor attack Dolores flees with her two daughters to California only to be followed by both Manolo and Alberto In California Manolo's drinking problems continue and Alberto's begin Outraged that yet another man in her life is turning to the bottle for answers Dolores starts to doubt her feelings for Alberto Is he only going to disappoint her as Manolo has Or is Alberto the embodiment of the aloha spirit she's been seeking Aloha Dolores Barbara Samuels, 2000 In a new adventure story with her cat Duncan the intrepid Dolores proves that getting ready to go somewhere can be as much fun as the trip itself This picture book is suitable for reading aloud or for beginner readers

The River Remembers Linda Ulleseit, 2025-07-30 Samantha Lockwood Day Sets and Harriet Robinson come to Fort Snelling from very different backgrounds It's 1835 and the world is changing fast and they are all struggling to keep up After she refuses another suitor he's chosen for her Samantha's father banishes her to live in the territory with her brother He too tries to take over her marriage plans but she is determined to find her own husband even when her choices go awry Day Sets demands that her white husband create a school to educate their daughter supporting her father's belief that his people must learn the ways of the white man in order to ensure the tribe's future Until events prove her father wrong Harriet's life in the territory is more like that of a free person than anywhere she's lived She even falls in love with Dred Scott and dreams of a life with him But they are both enslaved and she keeps being reminded of how little control she has over her own fate As their cultures collide each of these three women must find a way to direct her own future and leave a legacy for her children

Substitute Teacher Handbook Jim Walters, 2005 Creating Reading Rainbow Barbara Irwin, Tony Buttino, Pam Johnson, 2024-06-18 Reading Rainbow is one of the most successful PBS children's series in television history earning numerous national and international awards including 26 Emmys and a Peabody Award But perhaps more important than anything else Reading Rainbow helped generations of children cultivate a love for books Reading Rainbow is very much a story of humble beginnings and enormous perseverance Over five summers Tony Buttino Sr and his colleagues at WNED TV the public television station in Buffalo New York worked in collaboration with educators and librarians to experiment with summer reading programs But after trialing these programs the WNED team realized there was a big need for a new children's literacy series and believed they could create a new show with local and national collaborators and friends After fits and starts and enough twists and turns to fill a children's book Reading Rainbow premiered in the summer of 1983 and captured the attention of 6.5 million young viewers Creating Reading Rainbow explores the many intriguing and homespun stories that when woven together reveal how this groundbreaking and iconic television series came to be What led to the series being called Reading Rainbow How did the road to Reading Rainbow wind its way through Mister Rogers Neighborhood How did a public television station in Buffalo spearhead a movement in education and spark the passion for reading in millions of children And what does lasagna have to do with it San Francisco Probate, 1906-1942: Surnames starting with A-K, 2010-01-01 This is the first of two volumes that provide for the first time in print an index to the 108,898 names in the registers of San Francisco probate actions from 1906 to 1942 The first volume covers surnames beginning with A-K and the second volume contains surnames starting with L-Z Information was extracted from 179 registers of probate actions each containing 500 pages Included are names aliases and minors names representing over 85,500 probates and guardianship proceedings A to Zoo Rebecca L. Thomas, 2018-06-21 Whether used for thematic story times program and curriculum planning readers advisory or collection development this updated edition of the well known companion makes finding the right picture books for your library a breeze Generations of savvy librarians and educators have relied on this detailed subject guide to children's picture books for all aspects of children's services and this new edition does not disappoint Covering more than 18,000 books published through 2017 it empowers users to identify current and classic titles on topics ranging from apples to zebras Organized simply with a subject guide that categorizes subjects by theme and topic and subject headings arranged alphabetically this reference applies more than 1,200 intuitive as opposed to formal catalog subject terms to children's picture books making it both a comprehensive and user friendly resource that is accessible to parents and teachers as well as librarians It can be used to identify titles to fill in gaps in library collections to find books on particular topics for young readers to help teachers locate titles to support lessons or to design thematic programs and story times Title and illustrator indexes in addition to a bibliographic guide arranged alphabetically by author name further extend access to titles "Tune in @ Your Library" Renee McGrath, 2004 Personalized Reading Nancy Hobbs, Kristen Sacco, Myra R. Oleynik, 2010-11-15 This guidebook provides teachers and librarians with methods for collaboratively teaching elementary students to select books they will enjoy and which will further their personal growth and information literacy Motivating young students to read is instrumental for the development of strong information literacy and communication skills as well as for building a lifelong habit of seeking information and enjoyment through written materials The authors of Personalized Reading It's a Piece of PIE are three highly experienced teachers one of whom is a school librarian This text describes the steps of the PIE program in detail including chapters on selecting a book reading it writing about it and extending beyond that title Utilizing the PIE program will teach students to make selections at an appropriate reading level expand from choosing titles in the same genre or from the same author and recognize and abandon a book of low interest to them Within each chapter are explanations of the theories behind each step and practical ideas that teachers and librarians can implement collaboratively in the classroom and library A to Zoo Carolyn W.
