Alpine Advocate:

Subalternity and Difference Gyanendra Pandey, 2013-03 Focusing on concepts that have been central to investigation of the history and politics of marginalized and disenfranchised populations this book asks how discourses of subalternity and difference simultaneously constitute and interrupt each other The authors explore the historical production of conditions of marginality and minority and challenge simplistic notions of difference as emanating from culture rather than politics They return thereby to a question that feminist and other oppositional movements have raised of how modern societies and states take account of and manage social economic and cultural difference The different contributions investigate this question in a variety of historical and political contexts from India and Ecuador to Britain and the USA The resulting study is of invaluable interest to students and scholars in a wide range of disciplines including History Anthropology Gender and Queer and Colonial and Postcolonial Studies

Company Towns of the Pacific Northwest Linda Carlson, 2017-09-01 Company town The words evoke images of rough and tumble loggers and gritty miners of dreary shacks in isolated villages of wages paid in scrip good only at price gouging company stores of paternalistic employers But these stereotypes are outdated especially for those company towns that flourished well into the twentieth century This new edition updates the status of the surviving towns and how they have changed in the fifteen years since the original edition and what new life has been created on the sites of the ones that were razed In the preface Linda Carlson reflects on how wonderful it has been to meet people who lived in these towns or had parents who did and to hear about their memorable experiences
