Sneed, 2021-11-08 Leviathan a manifestation of one of the oldest monsters in recorded history 3rd millennium BCE and its sidekick Behemoth have been the object of centuries of suppression throughout the millennia Originally cosmic terrifying creatures who represented disorder and chaos they have been converted into the more palatable crocodile and hippo by biblical scholars today However among the earliest Jews and Muslims and possibly Christians these creatures occupied a significant place in creation and redemption history Before that they formed part of a backstory that connects the Bible with the wider ancient Near East When examining the reception history of these fascinating beasts several questions emerge Why are Jewish children today familiar with these creatures while Christian children know next to nothing about them Why do many modern biblical scholars follow suit and view them as minor players in the grand scheme of things Conversely why has popular culture eagerly embraced them assimilating the words as symbols for the enormous More unexpectedly why have fundamentalist Christians touted them as evidence for the cohabitation of dinosaurs and humans Lives of Scottish Writers David Irving,1839 The Romantic Life D. Andrew Yost,2022-08-24 The world is disenchanted Rationalization intellectualization and scientism rule the day We used to see the world as a magical place but now it s just a material space How did we get here The shift comes in part from the rise of a certain kind of secularism one that reduces human experiences to whatever is explainable through observation Love It s just a biological drive Joy a rush of adrenaline Beauty an influx of dopamine If you can t test it it isn t true or so the thinking goes The Romantic Life draws upon eighteenth and nineteenth century Romanticism to provide five strategies to re enchant the world five ways to imbue the world with meaning truth and beauty According to the Romantics far from being useless encounters with impractical things like the imagination nature symbolism sincerity and the sublime give our lives a richness and depth that cannot be attained on a purely material account of the world By learning from their example we can come to see into the life of things as William Wordsworth called it We can be re enchanted Altered Perspectives Sam Woolfe,2024-12-10 This collection of essays delves into some of the strangest and most profound aspects of the psychedelic experience such as seeing the self as an illusion feelings of deep insight the sublime fear mixed with wonder encounters with DMT entities d j vu and existential joy Drawing on research and theories from a variety of disciplines Sam Woolfe reflects on the ways that altered states may inform our understanding of consciousness the self and reality Particular attention is paid to the philosophy of psychedelics with the aim of clarifying altered states through the lenses of metaphysics philosophy of mind epistemology aesthetics existentialism and Buddhism In these essays Woolfe balances open mindedness with a critical and sceptical perspective he believes that this approach is necessary when examining psychedelic consciousness The Oxford Handbook of Ecocriticism Greg Garrard,2014 The Oxford Handbook of Ecocriticism provides a broad survey of the longstanding relationship between literature and the environment The moment for such an offering is opportune in many respects multiple environmental crises are increasingly inescapable at both transnational and local levels the role of the humanities in addition to technology and politics is increasingly recognized as central for exploring and finding solutions and the subject of ecocriticism has reached a kind of critical mass both within its Anglo American heartlands and beyond From its origins in the study of American Nature Writing and British Romanticism ecocriticism has developed along numerous theoretical historical cultural and geographical axes the most contemporary and exciting of which will be represented in the Handbook The contributors include eminent founders of the field including Cheryll Glotfelty and Jonathan Bate a number of key second wave ecocritics and the best up and coming scholars Topics covered include Green Shakespeare the Bard s subversive uses of the pastoral John Clare s sacred relationship with the land Thoreau s profound political passion the natural landscape as symbol of postcolonial resistance in works by Lessing Naipaul and Coetzee the relation between feminism and environmentalism language and the concept of biosemiotics and concerns over pollution and toxicity in films like Erin

Brockovitch Michael Clayton and Al Gore's An Inconvenient Truth International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today. Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage. In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled. Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details. An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers. A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes. The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes Side/Lines Rob McLennan, 2009 This anthology offers refereshing cogent and insightful explanations of why young poets and writers do what they do. The thirty pieces in Side Lines OCo by a unique variety of Canadian writers working in numerous genres OCo reflect on why writers write. Their reflections are not to be held as gospel or lifelong theories but can be considered writing strategies drawn up at specific points in time informed by certain unavoidable material conditions such as current politics and emotions. Ask these writers to explain their craft in ten years and you may be surprised by their answers Concordat Proviso Ascendant Christopher Dewdney, 1991 Imagining Language Jed Rasula, Steve McCaffery, 2001 When works such as Joyce's Finnegans Wake and Stein's Tender Buttons were first introduced they went so far beyond prevailing linguistic standards that they were widely considered unreadable if not scandalous. Jed Rasula and Steve McCaffery take these and other examples of twentieth century avant garde writing as the starting point for a collection of writings that demonstrates a continuum of creative conjecture on language from antiquity to the present. The anthology which spans three millennia generally bypasses chronology in order to illuminate unexpected congruities between seemingly discordant materials. Together the writings celebrate the scope and prodigality of linguistic speculation in the West going back to the pre Socratics Children of the Outer Dark Christopher Dewdney, 2007-02-19 A four time Governor General's award nominee for both poetry and non fiction Christopher Dewdney is celebrated internationally as a writer and a visionary and is best known for his particular imagining of place and memory. Beginning with Paleozoic fossil formations in southwestern Ontario and moving through eons of natural history to cityscapes and the digital present Dewdney's poetics encapsulate often surreal experiences from radical and epiphenomenal perspectives. His writing vibrates in a standing wave between science and art reason and myth embedding geology neurophysiology linguistics and post digital technology within a play of transitory viewpoints. Children of the Outer Dark provides a geological survey of Dewdney's poetic strata. The poems selected along with their order of presentation serve a critical function to mine diverse layers of development in Dewdney's career. This collection will reward all those who seek inspiration and will provide teachers students and other writers with a short natural history of one of Canada's essential poetic minds Reading

Without Maps? Den Tandt Christophe (ed.), 2005 Among the intellectual debates of the last forty years the critique of cultural canons has attracted the highest share of public attention stirring academic educational and media controversies on both sides of the Atlantic Postmodernism feminism postcolonialism and multiculturalism have refashioned the attitudes of educators and audiences towards cultural memory opening up curricula to subjects and traditions previously excluded from the humanities Predictably these new critical practices have triggered heated responses from commentators fearing that culture and education might thereby be deprived of their capacity to provide audiences and learners with proper groundings and landmarks The present volume gathers contributions that throw light on multiple aspects of this reconfiguration of cultural memory It brings together essays focusing on the dynamics of canon formation in several fields literature drama film and music Contributors examine how writers and communities find their bearings in a cultural landscape more complex than that previously envisaged by advocates of the Great Tradition Specifically the present essays throw light on the status of modernist writing drama in English or popular genres within the new canonical topography elaborated at the turn of the twenty first century

'Pataphysics Christian Bok, 2002 Christian Bok is a Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council Fellow affiliated with the Poetics Program at SUNY Buffalo Bok is the author of Crystallography Book I of Information Theory a nominee for the Gerald Lampert Memorial Award given for best poetic debut He has published numerous articles on Canadian avant garde poetry in Open Letter Canadian Literature and Studies in Canadian Literature and his own experimental poetry has been frequently anthologized appearing most recently in Imagining Language

Postscript Andrea Andersson, 2018-01-01 Postscript is the first collection of writings on the subject of conceptual writing by a diverse field of scholars in the realms of art literature media as well as the artists themselves

Trash Culture Gillian Pye, 2010 In the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries concerns about the environment and the future of global capitalism have dominated political and social agendas worldwide The culture of excess underlying these concerns is particularly evident in the issue of trash which for environmentalists has been a negative category heavily implicated in the destruction of the natural world However in the context of the arts trash has long been seen as a rich aesthetic resource and more recently particularly under the influence of anthropology and archaeology it has been explored as a form of material culture that articulates modes of identity construction In the context of such shifting often ambiguous attitudes to the obsolete and the discarded this book offers a timely insight into their significance for representations of social and personal identity The essays in the book build on scholarship in cultural theory sociology and anthropology that suggests that social and personal experience is embedded in material culture but they also focus on the significance of trash as an aesthetic resource The volume illuminates some of the ways in which our relationship to trash has influenced and is influenced by cultural products including art architecture literature film and museum culture

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Language Parasites: Of Phorontology

Sean Braune, 2017 What we call Being infects us and speaks through us it treats us as a host to a linguistic and experiential parasite Ontology the study of Being has primarily dealt with human questions regarding Being at the expense of the non human inhuman and posthuman Language Parasites works against this tendency by offering a phorontology a theory of Being inspired by phoronts which are tiny organisms that engage in parasitic migration lice mites ticks fleas etc What is the Being of a parasite and how can that complicated non human ontology influence human definitions of Being Gradually the anthropocentric distinction of subject and object fades away in favor of the emergence of a strange new philosophical entity called the transject a being that is thrown far afield from the more normative notions of the subject that can be found in Hegel Kant Lacan or even Foucault Nietzsche and Deleuze A pataphysical excursion into the intricate world of philosophical ontology Language Parasites presents the initial discoveries of a much larger project that seeks to redefine the boundaries of Being This book is the result of a parasitic infection of continental philosophy in which the various parasites of German and French philosophy all meet at one locale for one express purpose to eat together feed together and think together Back cover
