Crazy Fool:

The Crazy Fool Donald Ogden Stewart,1925 Lament That Generates Covenant Walter Brueggemann,2025-03-03

This collection of essays pertains to matters that urgently concern our faith My work consists in recognition that our various systems of meaning power and control are decisively penultimate even though we conduct ourselves as though they are ultimate Thus our articulation of theology and faith are momentary and require endless rearticulation Our various expressions of nation race class and gender are momentary arrangements that give us assurance but that are sure to be yet again unsustainable claims The idiom in which biblical faith is given us is inescapably poetic an exercise in imagination elusive imagery and playful phrasing The long history of the church consists in the seductive practice of trying to catch such poetic utterance in settled prose that we parse with logic and precision Such efforts are always less than adequate as the poetry of testimony always surges beyond our best prose Thus as a case in point the church has engaged much energy in parsing the creeds But in the end the creeds are poetry designed for liturgic affirmation rather than reduction to cold rationality bereft of context For much too long the church has focused on private spiritual other worldly matters In fact the biblical reportage and advocacy concern the continuing struggle for an alternative economy that is governed by neighborly generosity an economy that eschews private accumulation by the powerful at the expense of the vulnerable On all counts it is my hope that this collection of essays will serve all those who do the continuing work of faithful study faithful worship and faithful action in the world Good Trade and a Living Wage Frederick Uttley Laycock,1896 A study of the mining industry

The Survivor Randy Jeppesen,2020-10-26 The sight was heartbreaking The world created perfect had become so corrupted that even the creator determined it had no hope As he contemplated his means of destruction he found one man who was different who trusted who believed Through that one man he formulated a plan to save the human race By building an ark on dry land loading it with select animals food and his family this one man endured a catastrophic world wide flood And after a year inside a floating animal kingdom he stepped onto a new earth that was lifeless empty desolate and uninhabited Meet the man who walked with God endured the unimaginable the one man whose task it was to start over again The survivor s name Noah Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1976 Legacies of Childhood Jon L. Saari,2020-03-17 Jon L Saari defines the generation of educated Chinese born around the turn of the twentieth century as the last to have the world of Confucian learning etched into their memories as schoolboys yet the first as a group to confront the intrusive Western world The legacies of growing up in a changing environment deeply affected this generation s responses to the further changes in the world they confronted as adults In the collapse of the Ch ing dynasty and the chaos of the early twentieth century traditional ideas of the self the nature of relationships in society and ethical behavior had to be reexamined and redefined To reconstruct what those who lived through and shaped this extraordinary period felt needed thought and became as children and adults Saari draws on autobiographical writings and his own interviews among the elderly on Taiwan and Hong Kong He interprets this material within its Chinese context but brings Western sociological anthropological and psychological insights to bear on it
