Creating America A History Of The United States:

Creating America ,2006 Combines motivating stories with research based instruction that helps students improve their reading and social studies skills as they discover the past Every lesson of the textbook is keyed to California content standards and analysis skills Creating America: A History of the United States Holt McDougal,2005 Building Literacy in Social Studies Donna Ogle,Ronald M. Klemp,2007 This book demonstrates how teachers can help their students understand their social studies texts leading them to become successful readers critical thinkers and active citizens

Creating America ,2005 Creating America McDougal Littell Incorporated,2005-01-01 Creating America Jan Cohn,2010-11-23 Before movies radio and television challenged the hegemony of the printed word the Saturday Evening Post was the preeminent vehicle of mass culture in the United States And to the extent that a mass medium can be the expression of a single individual this magazine with a peak circulation of almost three million copies a week was the expression of its editor George Horace Lorimer Cohn shows how Lorimer made the Post into a uniquely powerful magazine that both celebrated and helped form the values of the time Creating America Workbook McDougal Littell,2006 Creating America Betty Dean,Jesus Garcia,McDougal Littell,Rand McNally and Company,2002 Creating America Jesus Garcia,2001

Creating America McDougal Littell,2002* Creating America ,2003 Middle school level curriculum materials with textbooks student s and teacher s editions CD ROMs containing the complete text as well as interactive maps and infographics and collections of other resources for teachers including transparencies workbooks study guides and assessment guides Creating America Holt McDougal,McDougal Littell,2003 American Educational History Journal J. Wesley Null,2009-11-01 The American Educational History Journal is a peer reviewed national research journal devoted to the examination of educational topics using perspectives from a variety of disciplines The editors of AEHJ encourage communication between scholars from numerous disciplines nationalities institutions and backgrounds Authors come from a variety of disciplines including political science curriculum history philosophy teacher education and educational leadership Acceptance for publication in AEHJ requires that each author present a well articulated argument that deals substantively with questions of educational history America's Role in a Changing World Douglas A. Phillips,2010 In the past decade economic chaos the War on Terror climate change nuclear proliferation political divisions and a variety of other issues have caused tension among nations and within the United States Although America stood alone as the world s only superpower at the turn of the century many question whether it can maintain its influential role on the global stage America s Role in a Changing World discusses the economic social political and historical forces that have shaped the country to provide an understanding of the challenges the country faces today and in the future Comparative Perspectives on School Textbooks Dobrochna Hildebrandt-Wypych,Alexander W. Wiseman,2021-04-22 This book examines the discourses on nation building civic identity minorities and the formation of religious identities in school textbooks worldwide It offers up to date practical and scholarly information on qualitative and mixed method textbook analysis as well as the broader context of critical comparative textbook and curriculum analyses in and across selected countries The volume offers unique and empirical research on how internal educational policies and ideological goals of dominant social political and economic groups affect textbook production and the curricular aims in different educational systems worldwide Chapters address the role of school textbooks in developing nationhood the creation of citizenship through school textbooks the complexity of gender in normative discourses and the intersection of religion and culture in school textbooks

Creating America Steven S. Zumdahl, 2001 Creating America McDougal Littell, 2001

The New Politics of the Textbook Heather Hickman, Brad J. Porfilio, 2012-10-13 In an age of unprecedented corporate and political control over life inside of educational institutions this book provides a needed intervention to investigate how the economic and political elite use traditional artifacts in K 16 schools to perpetuate their interests at the expense of minoritized social groups The contributors provide a comprehensive examination of how textbooks the most dominant cultural force in which corporations and political leaders impact the schooling curricula shape students thoughts and behavior perpetuate power in dominant groups and trivialize social groups who are oppressed on the structural axes of race class gender sexuality and disability Several contributors also generate critical insight in how power shapes the production of textbooks and evaluate whether textbooks still perpetuate dominant Western narratives that normalize and privilege patriotism militarism consumerism White supremacy heterosexism rugged individualism technology and a positivistic conception of the world Finally the book highlights several textbooks that challenge readers to rethink their stereotypical views of the Other to reflect upon the constitutive forces causing oppression in schools and in the wider society and to reflect upon how to challenge corporate and political dominance over knowledge production

Building America Jean H. Baker, 2020 Just as the revolutionaries of America sought to create a new society so too did Benjamin Henry Latrobe seek to create buildings and oversee public works projects that would elevate the culture and society of the United States This biography of Benjamin Henry Latrobe narrates the challenges to and triumphs of America's first professionally trained architect and engineer

Handbook of Research on Social Inequality and Education Wisdom, Sherrie, Leavitt, Lynda, Bice, Cynthia, 2019-06-28 In comparing one public school to another discussions frequently include talk concerning the socioeconomics of a school or district which then leads to talk about the advantages that one socioeconomic setting has over another Educators tend to agree that low academic achievement frequently associated with a low socioeconomic status is a characteristic difficult to resolve for a population of school children The Handbook of Research on Social Inequality and Education is a critical reference source that provides insights into social influences on school and educational settings Featuring an array of topics including online learning social mobility and teacher preparation this book is excellent for educational leaders educational researchers teachers academicians administrators instructional designers and teacher preparation programs
