Harley, Jr., 2003-08-06 When we become Christians we consciously repent of our bad habits a promise to make a 180 turn from habits that displease God toward habits that please

Him We do this through and by faith alone Yet faith alone does not suddenly make good our promise It is our faith that gives us the reason to act upon our promise but our action is still needed So how do we put action into our plan How do we rid ourselves of these bad habits and substitute habits that are in God s will This book will help you do just that create a lifestyle of doing God s will You will learn how to Develop a lifestyle of greater respect for God Love God with all of your being Learn to love and care for others Witness in a way that takes your personality and abilities into account Develop a lifestyle where Bible study is a throughout the day activity And that s why this book is called LET S GET GROWING CHRISTIANS It s about practically applying plans of action to get you growing as a Christian living a life of doing God s will Freed to Lead

Rodney Woods,2016-01-15 This book and course is designed to enable Christians to lead confidently based on their identity in Christ Leadership is tough Many leaders come to leadership from competence in a different field without training and fear that they cannot really lead and will be found out one day Many leaders are insecure constantly assessing how they are coming across and where challenges may arise Being grounded in Christ is the foundation for all true Christian leadership This identity based leadership makes us less driven reduces the risk of burnout and enables us to survive personal attacks use conflict positively and overcome other barriers to effective leadership Once we operate from this secure base centred and grounded in Christ we become less vulnerable to threats to our status we cease to have anything to hide because we can afford to be vulnerable and we are less likely to be blown off course by strong willed people wanting to push their own agenda Theology explained and defended, in a series of sermons ... with a memoir of the life of the Author

Timothy DWIGHT (D.D., President of Yale College.),1831 Creating the Land of the Sky Richard D. Starnes,2010-03-12 A sophisticated inquiry into tourism s social and economic power across the South In the early 19th century planter families from South Carolina Georgia and eastern North Carolina left their low country estates during the summer to relocate their households to vacation homes in the mountains of western North Carolina Those unable to afford the expense of a second home relaxed at the hotels that emerged to meet their needs This early tourist activity set the stage for tourism to become the region s New South industry After 1865 the development of railroads and the burgeoning consumer culture led to the expansion of tourism across the whole region Richard Starnes argues that western North Carolina benefited from the romanticized image of Appalachia in the post Civil War American consciousness This image transformed the southern highlands into an exotic travel destination a place where both climate and culture offered visitors a myriad of diversions This depiction was further bolstered by partnerships between state and federal agencies local boosters and outside developers to create the attractions necessary to lure tourists to the region As tourism grew so did the tension between leaders in the industry and local residents The commodification of regional culture low wage tourism jobs inflated land prices and negative personal experiences bred no small degree of animosity among mountain residents toward visitors Starnes s study provides a better understanding of the significant role that tourism played in shaping communities across the South The Christian
