Creative Ecumenical Education Learning F:

Formation for Transformation Bruce Myers, 2022-01-13 In the past century the ecumenical movement has made extraordinary efforts in healing the wounds of division in the body of Christ the church. However in their formal preparation for ministry many clergy learn little or nothing about the achievements, methods or implications of ecumenism. This failure to adequately educate and inspire successive generations of Christian leaders about the quest for the church's visible unity risks not only an irretrievable loss of ecumenical memory but also a return to a time in which ignorance, fear, mistrust, suspicion, stereotypes, caricatures, recrimination, anathematization, even persecution characterized the relations between divided churches. Drawing on decades of reflection on ecumenical reception and formation and using the Anglican Church of Canada as a model, this book presents an approach to teaching the practical and theological aspects of ecumenism in a way that is both holistic and pragmatic and offers the potential to raise up a new generation of church leaders who are also agents of reconciliation and Christian unity.

Creative Ecumenical Education Simon Oxley, 2002-01-01 Offering a powerful alternative to formal and book-based education, everyday encounters and planned interactions can become the foundation for ecumenical learning. This book explores ways in which to encourage this informal approach within formal education. It develops the idea that individuals and communities need to recognize value and utilize effectively the learning opportunities which surround them. This book challenges readers to consider the implications of ecumenical learning and offers ideas for fostering such learning in local congregations, educational institutions and church-related groups.

Transforming Missiology Fohle Lygunda li-M, 2018-02-28 Dr Fohle Lygunda li M provides a thorough analysis of missiological teaching in theological institutions in Africa with special reference to ten Christian universities in the Democratic Republic of the Congo. His detailed examination of current teaching of mission theory and practice builds a solid foundation for the articulation of a new paradigm of missiological education. In this book Dr Lygunda presents the case for a transformed approach to raising up seminarians who are equipped to lead indigenous missional churches that will fulfil the Great Commission in their own communities and beyond their national borders.

Receptive Ecumenism as Transformative Ecclesial Learning Paul D. Murray, Gregory A. Ryan, Paul Lakeland, 2022-05-26 Receptive Ecumenism asks not what other churches can learn from us but what can we learn and receive with integrity from our ecclesial others. Since the publication of Receptive Ecumenism and the Call to Catholic Learning: Exploring a Way for Contemporary Ecumenism OUP 2008, this fresh ecumenical strategy has been adopted, critiqued and developed in different

Christian traditions and in local national and international settings including the most recent bilateral dialogue of the Anglican Roman Catholic International Commission ARCIC III The thirty eight chapters in this new volume by academics church leaders and ecumenical practitioners who have adopted and adapted Receptive Ecumenism in various ecclesial and cultural contexts show how Receptive Ecumenism has grown and matured Part One demonstrates how Receptive Ecumenism itself is capable of being received with integrity into very different ecclesiologies and ecclesial traditions In Part Two this approach to transformative ecumenical learning is applied to some recurrent ecclesial problems such as the understanding and practice of ministry revealing new insights and practical opportunities Part Three examines the potential and challenges for Receptive Ecumenism in different international settings Part Four draws on scripture hermeneutics and pneumatology to offer critical reflection on how Receptive Ecumenism itself implements transformative ecclesial learning Addressing the 70th Anniversary of the World Council of Churches Archbishop Justin Welby said that One of the most important of recent ecumenical developments has been the concept of Receptive Ecumenism This volume provides an indispensable point of reference for understanding and applying that concept in the life of the Christian churches today

History and Mission in Europe Mary Raber, Peter F. Penner, 2011 Issues of European missiology and recent church history have been somewhat neglected in recent years This volume is intended to help fill the gap by bringing together essays by European scholars or those closely connected to that continent from the United Kingdom to the Russian Federation New information and fresh perspectives are presented both by familiar writers and some who are almost unknown to North American audiences German and Russian articles include an English language abstract The collection is inspired by the many ministries of Walter Sawatsky the foremost North American Mennonite authority on the Christian church in the former Soviet Union and Europe and a prolific writer in the fields of church history and missiology Publication, 1994 Manifesto for Learning Donn F. Morgan, 2012 This book stresses the importance of active advocacy for education in the church suggesting the balance between worship social service and education is out of whack Morgan promotes a new understanding of education at all levels of church life that takes the discussion beyond questions of survival finances and status quo to discover new roles in developing mission through the church and out in the world Vocational & Technical Schools - East
