

A scenic view of a desert canyon. In the foreground, a river with vibrant turquoise water flows over large, smooth boulders. The middle ground shows a valley with green shrubs and small trees. In the background, a massive, rugged mountain with sharp peaks rises against a clear blue sky. The overall scene is bright and sunny.

Travel log in Western USA by Safari Condo Robert Rooke,2014-05-01 This immense territory that would take many days to cross had become a promise of surprises and wonders for us together with the astonishing diversity of the countryside and climate We deliberately chose to make it a trip to explore nature and not to travel conventionally We opted to visit canyons trees lakes and places where nature displays its beauty and its strangeness We wanted to see sights that nature generously promises us like the burning deserts of Arizona the striking sculptures of the different canyons in Colorado the rugged Pacific Ocean coast in California and Oregon And finally the American National Parks as well as the parks of the different States promised us numerous possible excursions That is what we have realized during this voyage and that we simply offer you with our best pictures Bon voyage The Rotarian ,1960-10 Established in 1911 The Rotarian is the official magazine of Rotary International and is circulated worldwide Each issue contains feature articles columns and departments about or of interest to Rotarians Seventeen Nobel Prize winners and 19 Pulitzer Prize winners from Mahatma Ghandi to Kurt Vonnegut Jr have written for the magazine

Indian Country Martin Padgett,2006 Indian Country analyzes the works of Anglo writers and artists who encountered American Indians in the course of their travels in the Southwest during the one hundred year period beginning in 1840 Martin Padgett looks first at the accounts produced by government sponsored explorers most notably John Wesley Powell s writings about the Colorado Plateau He goes on to survey the writers who popularized the region in fiction and travelogue including Helen Hunt Jackson and Charles F Lummis He also introduces us to Eldridge Ayer Burbank an often overlooked artist who between 1897 and 1917 made thousands of paintings and drawings of Indians from over 140 western tribes Padgett addresses two topics how the Southwest emerged as a distinctive region in the minds of late nineteenth and early twentieth century Americans and what impact these conceptions and the growing presence of Anglos had on Indians in the region Popular writers like Jackson and Lummis presented the American Indians as a primitive culture waiting to be discovered and experienced firsthand Later as Padget shows Anglo activists for Indian rights such as Mabel Dodge Luhan and Mary Austin worked for the acceptance of other views of Native Americans and their cultures
