and contradictions some of which are treated here which together constitute an intellectual and political conjuncture This collection of studies deals with the countries which were not included in the companion book on the economic history of the Front Line States Most of the space in the present volume is devoted to South Africa primarily because of its importance to the region but also because contributions to the economic history of that country in English are very extensive as compared to the other states of Southern Africa Africa and the International System Christopher S. Chau, 2008 The Churches and Ethnic Ideology in the Rwandan Crises, 1900-1994 Tharcisse Gatwa, 2005 The African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights Volume 2 Nat Rubner, 2023 Landmark study of the African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights Documents on one side the international community's inability to foist a human rights system upon Africa and on the other the process within the OAU now African Union that eventually brought it into being and determined its content The African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights ACHPR which was proposed in 1979 adopted in 1981 and came into effect in 1986 was the first non Western declaration of human rights and the first official statement of an African human rights perspective With Africa largely absent in 1948 when the Universal Declaration of Human Rights UDHR was adopted it stands in stark historical reproach to the Western conception of universal human rights as a pivotal document in the decolonisation of the continent This book for the first time presents a comprehensive account of the development of the ACHPR which is key to a proper understanding of its fundamental nature Through documenting its process of construction it becomes possible to understand how Africans themselves understood the process and the issues involved and how the ACHPR became a political text asserted by African leaders and not a continuum of a so called universal human rights tradition The result is a radical repositioning of the underlying context of the ACHPR one of the most important documents in modern African history of how it came to be and how it should therefore be understood Volume 2 describes the process through which the ACHPR came into being Analysing the role of Western governments the UN and NGOs it shows that contrary to the prevailing view of African human rights commentators their influence was limited and at times counter productive That in fact the formulation of the ACHPR was a profoundly political process that was primarily a product of an African desire to instigate its own human rights perspective as a counter to the human rights universalism advanced by the Western post war human rights tradition U.S. Counterterrorism In Sub-Saharan Africa: Understanding Costs, Cultures, And Conflicts Donovan C. Chau, 2012-08-04 Sub Saharan Africa SSA has never been the centerpiece of U S foreign and defense policy Yet the current struggle between the United States and its allies against terrorist groups and individuals motivated by Islamic extremism thrusts SSA forward as a front in the global conflict The author asks centrally what is the most effective long term approach to U S counterterrorism in SSA By comparing views in Washington DC with perspectives from SSA he assesses that a fundamental and dangerous misunderstanding of SSA may be leading U S policy astray Recommending a new grand strategic approach to U S counterterrorism policy he suggests urgently educating a future generation of analysts officers and policymakers on SSA whose interest must match their knowledge and understanding Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1985-09
