The No-Drop Zone Patrick Brady, 2011-04-27 The No Drop Zone contains all the information necessary for new cyclists to gain the knowledge and skills to take them from buying their first bicycle to starting their first race. Cyclists learn how to handle the bike, perform minor maintenance, select clothing and accessories, join clubs and find events. The book also covers every aspect of riding in a group, emphasizing such specific skills as how to avoid bumping into other riders when riding in close quarters and fixing a flat quickly enough to rejoin the group. Author Patrick Brady explores the particular pleasures that come from group riding, a unique experience at once social, talking with friends while riding, exciting descending in a group and exhilarating finishing a long hill. Brady also details the enormous fitness benefits of riding in a group. The No Drop Zone has all the knowledge a cyclist needs to move to that next level of skill.

Examining Identity in Sports Media Heather L. Hundley, Andrew C. Billings, 2010 Communication issues involving sports media permeate myriad levels of society. These issues are important sources for learning and reinforcing social beliefs; they are salient contexts for investigating issues of identity including ethnicity, gender, class, sexual orientation, ability, disability, and more. Consequently, sport and media inscribe numerous implicit and explicit ideologies that saturate our culture. Using a wide variety of theoretical and methodological constructs, for example, surveys, content analyses, ethnographic research, field work, rhetorical approaches, other appropriate quantitative or qualitative approaches, Examining Identity in Mediated Sports examines various media including television, film, advertising, print, Web sites, and nontraditional media to expose how the intersection of sport and media construct, reinforce, and/or perpetuate perceptions of human identities. This book investigates the numerous ways print, electronic, and digital media present issues of identity in sports coverage; each chapter addresses media portrayals and/or cultural representations of one or more form of identity, ethnicity, gender, class, sexual orientation, ability, disability, etc., as it relates to sport. Contributors, both seasoned and up-and-coming scholars of sport, represent a fine and diverse balance of intellectual ideologies.

Sport, Ethics and Leadership Jack Bowen, Ronald S. Katz, Jeffrey R. Mitchell, Donald J. Polden, Richard Walden, 2017-07-12 Sport ethics, prompt discussion of the central principles and ideals by which we all live our lives, and effective leadership in sport is invariably ethical leadership. This fascinating new introduction to sport ethics outlines key ethical theories in the context of sport as well as the fundamentals of moral reasoning.

Innovative Marketing Communications Guy Masterman, Emma Wood, 2007-06-01 Innovative Marketing Communications for Events Management provides students and event managers with a complete insight into the strategic and innovative marketing of events of all scales and nature. The book builds a conceptual framework for the development, planning, implementation, and evaluation of innovative communication strategies for the marketing of events and the effective use of events as an innovative communications method in general organizational marketing With a strong practical underpinning Innovative Marketing Communications for Events Management emphasises to event managers the importance of effectively integrating a range of tools and techniques to communicate the event and provides them with a better understanding of how a variety of private and public sector organisations can use events within their communication strategies Accounts, Excuses, and Apologies, Second Edition William L. Benoit, 2014-10-15 In our constantly plugged in and connected world image is everything People groups organizations and countries frequently come under suspicion of wrongdoing and sometimes require defense This fully updated edition of the 1994 volume investigates the situations in which threats to image arise and describes the image repair strategies that may be used to help defuse these threats such as denial and apology The author reviews various theories on image repair and extends prior research on the topic to include work on persuasion or attitude change Five contexts for image repair are examined corporate political sports entertainment international and third party when one person or organization tries to repair the image of another New case studies include the British Petroleum oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico Anthony Weiner Lance Armstrong Apple s apology to China over the iPhone and Prime Minister David Cameron s apology for Bloody Sunday East African Running Yannis Pitsiladis, John Bale, Craig Sharp, Tim Noakes, 2007-01-24 What makes East African middle and long distance runners the best in the world How should contemporary academia approach this question The success of East African distance runners has generated a plethora of studies but much of the evidence presented to support hypotheses is anecdotal arguments being led by non academics who use popular media as their medium rather than relying on scientific publications This has resulted in many stereotypical arguments being advocated Within the academic community research has also been restricted by its isolation within either the natural science or social science communities East African Running Towards a Cross Disciplinary Perspective presents a rare collaboration between researchers from the sports sciences and social sciences to explore the questions raised by the phenomena of East African success on the track The text includes psycho social and economic explanations physiological and genetic explanations attempts to provide unified theories bringing together ideas from natural and social sciences Includes contributions from John Bale Jim Denison Timothy D Noakes and Craig Sharp
