Army Doctors Wife On The Frontier Letter:

An Army Doctor's Wife on the Frontier Emily McCorkle FitzGerald, 1986 Army Wives on the American Frontier Anne Bruner Eales, 1996 No one interested in the history of the American West or in women's history should miss this well written carefully researched comprehensive treatment of a subject that previous scholars have largely ignored Based on the writings of more than fifty women who accompanied their husbands to remote duty posts in the far west The Frontier Army in the Settlement of the West Michael L. Tate, 2001-10-01 A reassessment of the military's role in developing the Western territories moves beyond combat stories and stereotypes to focus on more non martial accomplishments such as exploration gathering scientific data and building towns The American Military on the Frontier United States Air Force Academy. Library, Betsy C. Kysely, 1976 The Army Medical Department, 1865-1917 Mary C. Gillett, 1995 The third in a four volume work that covers the history of the Army Medical Department from 1775 to 1941 this volume traces the development of the department from its rebirth as a small scattered organization in the wake of the Civil War through the trials of the Spanish American War and the Philippine Insurrection up to the entrance of the United States into World War I A time of revolutionary change both in the organization of the U S Army and in medicine the period climaxed with the golden age of Army medicine when U S medical officers played a leading role in research that developed new and effective weapons in the war against epidemic disease Foreword Frontier Medicine at Fort Davis and Other Army Posts: True Stories of Unglamorous Maladies Donna Gerstle Smith, 2022-10 From a headless burial to cocaine toothache drops the true stories hidden in the Wild West's medical records are a match for its tallest tales In the 19th century when dying young was a fact of life a routine bout of diarrhea could be fatal No one had heard of viruses or bacteria but they killed more soldiers on the frontier than hostile raiding parties Physicians dispensed whiskey for TB mercury for VD and arsenic for indigestion Baseball injuries were considered to be in the line of duty and twice resulted in amputations at Fort Davis Donna Gerstle Smith explains how an industrious laundress could earn more than a private how a female army surgeon won the Medal of Honor and how a garrison illegally hung the local bartender Archeological Investigations at the Russian Bishop's House, 1981 Catherine Holder Spude, 1985 Touched by Fire Louise Barnett, 2006-10-01 A comprehensive and balanced biography of the controversial George Armstrong Custer The View from Officers' Row Sherry L. Smith, 1991-02-01 Capturing military men in contemplation rather than combat Sherry Smith reveals American army officers views about the Indians against whom they fought in the last half of the nineteenth century She demonstrates that these officers and their wives did not share a monolithic negative view of their enemies but instead often developed a great respect for Indians and their cultures Some officers even came to question Indian policy expressed misgivings about their personal involvement in the Indian Wars and openly sympathized with their foe The book reviews the period 1848 1890 from the acquisition of the Mexican Cession to the Battle of Wounded Knee and encompasses the entire trans Mississippi West Resting primarily on personal documents drawn from a representative sample of the officer corps at all levels the study seeks to juxtapose the opinions of high ranking officers with those of officers of lesser prominence who were perhaps less inclined to express personal opinions in official reports No educated segment of American society had more prolonged contact with Indians than did army officers and their wives yet not until now has such an overview of their attitudes been presented Smith's work demolishes the stereotype of the Indian hating officer and broadens our understanding of the role of the army in the American West
