Arquitectura y gobierno virreinal Fernández García Fernández,1985      Arquitectura y Gobierno Virreinal : Los Maestros Mayores de la Ciudad de Mexico, S. XVII. Martha Fernandez,1985      Cosmopolitanism in Mexican Visual Culture María Fernández,2014-01-06 Since the colonial era Mexican art has emerged from an ongoing process of negotiation between the local and the global which frequently involves invention synthesis and transformation of diverse discursive and artistic traditions In this pathfinding book Mar a Fern ndez uses the concept of cosmopolitanism to explore this important aspect of Mexican art in which visual culture and power relations unite the local and the global the national and the international the universal and the particular She argues that in Mexico as in other colonized regions colonization constructed power dynamics and forms of violence that persisted in the independent nation state Accordingly Fern ndez presents not only the visual qualities of objects but also the discourses ideas desires and practices that are fundamental to the very existence of visual objects Fern ndez organizes episodes in the history of Mexican art and architecture ranging from the seventeenth century to the end of the twentieth century around the consistent but unacknowledged historical theme of cosmopolitanism allowing readers to discern relationships among various historical periods and works that are new and yet simultaneously dependent on their predecessors She uses case studies of art and architecture produced in response to government commissions to demonstrate that established visual forms and meanings in Mexican art reflect and inform desires expectations memories and ways of being in the world in short that visual culture and cosmopolitanism are fundamental to processes of subjectification and identity      Arquitectura y gobierno virreinal Fernández García Fernández,1985      Art and Architecture of Viceregal Latin America, 1521-1821 Kelly Donahue-Wallace,2008-03-16 Kelly Donahue Wallace surveys the art and architecture created in the Spanish Viceroyalties of New Spain Peru New Granada and La Plata from the time of the conquest to the independence era Emphasizing the viceregal capitals and their social economic religious and political contexts the author offers a chronological review of the major objects and monuments of the colonial era In order to present fundamental differences between the early and later colonial periods works are offered chronologically and separated by medium painting urban planning religious architecture and secular art so the aspects of production purpose and response associated with each work are given full attention Primary documents including wills diaries and guild records are placed throughout the text to provide a deeper appreciation of the contexts in which the objects were made      The Great Festivals of Colonial Mexico City Linda Ann Curcio,2004 This cultural history examines the functions of public rituals in colonial Mexico City often totaling as many as 100 celebrations in a year      Arquitectura del Renacimiento en Nueva España Luis Javier Cuesta Hernández,2009 The present book is an important reference to understand the social conditions of the novohispanic artists of the 16th century as well as their relationships with the different levels of the artistic patronages Author Cuesta analyses in detail his life academic formation architectural legacy and influence of Spanish architect artist and sculptor Claudio de Arciniega b Burgos Spain 1520 d M xico 1593 considered the most prestigious Alerife architect of the 16th century in colonial Mexico and who introduced the Renaissance style in the architecture of the viceregal buildings Arciniega was a key figure in the stylistic evolution of the architectonic forms in Nueva Espaa although he is mostly remembered as the architect the Cathedral of Mexico City and possibly many more Puebla Cristóbal de Medina Vargas y la arquitectura salomónica en la Nueva España durante el siglo XVII Fernández García Fernández,2002 La población de la Ciudad de México en 1790. El periodo virreinal*,1997 La Academia de San Carlos Y Los Constructores Del Neoclasico Elizabeth Fuentes Rojas, Building Yanhuitlan Alessia Frassani,2017-10-12 Through years of fieldwork in the state of Oaxaca Mexico art historian and archaeologist Alessia Frassani formulated a compelling question How did Mesoamerican society maintain its distinctive cultural heritage despite colonization by the Spanish In Building Yanhuitlan she focuses on an imposing structure a sixteenth century Dominican monastery complex in the village of Yanhuitlan For centuries the buildings have served a central role in the village landscape and the lives of its people Ostensibly there is nothing indigenous about the complex or the artwork inside So how does such a place fit within the Mixteca where Frassani acknowledges a continuity of indigenous culture in the towns plazas markets churches and rural surroundings To understand the monastery complex and Mesoamerican cultural heritage in the wake of conquest Frassani calls for a shifting definition of indigenous identity one that acknowledges the ways indigenous peoples actively took part in the development of post conquest Mesoamerican culture Frassani relates the history of Yanhuitlan by examining the rich store of art and architecture in the town s church and convent bolstering her account with more than 100 color and black and white illustrations She presents the first two centuries of the church complex s construction works maintenance and decorations as the product of cultural political and economic negotiation between Mixtec caciques Spanish encomenderos and Dominican friars The author then ties the village s present day religious celebrations to the colonial past and traces the cult of specific images through these celebrations history Cultural artifacts Frassani demonstrates do not need pre Hispanic origins to be considered genuinely Mesoamerican the processes attached to their appropriation are more meaningful than their having any pre Hispanic past Based on original and unpublished documents and punctuated with stunning photography Building Yanhuitlan combines archival and ethnographic work with visual analysis to make an innovative statement regarding artistic forms and to tell the story of a remarkable community La imagen del Templo de Jerusalén en la Nueva España Martha Fernández,2003 Centro histórico Ciudad de México Rubén Cantú Chapa,2000-01-01 Este libro es parte de la colección e Libro en BiblioBoard
