Music and Politics James Garratt, 2019 Changes our picture of how music and politics interact through a rigorous and wide-ranging reappraisal of the field      Music and Messaging in the African Political Arena Onyebadi, Uche T., 2019-01-15 Political campaigning affects numerous realms under the communication umbrella with each channel seeking to influence as many individuals as possible In higher education there is a growing scholarly interest in communication issues and subjects especially on the role of music in the political arena Music and Messaging in the African Political Arena provides innovative insights into providing music and songs as an integral part of sending political messages to a broader spectrum of audiences especially during political campaigns The content within this publication covers such topics as framing theory national identity and ethnic politics and is designed for politicians campaign managers political communication scholars researchers and students

Toward Afrodiasporic and Afrofuturist Philosophies of Religion Jon Ivan Gill, 2022-04-14 Based on the categories of mainstream philosophy of religion we must ask the question if said categories are adequate to describe the conceptual frameworks of traditions not philosophically dependent on Western theistic understandings such as religious traditions and philosophies of life emerging from the continent of Africa and appearing in the United States the Caribbean North Central and South America and Europe This book hosts students from Pomona College and Pitzer College Claremont Colleges Claremont California who have analyzed the field of philosophy of religion as it stands to determine which of its insights can be applied to Afro diasporic and Afrofuturist notions of religion and which ones cannot Their reflections in these chapters will ask how do we define Afro diasporic religion what would a robust philosophy of religion of Afro diasporic and Afrofuturist religions draw from what categories would it contain how would we construct such a non-Western methodology of philosophy of religion and what sources would we use to construct such a philosophy of religion In an attempt to aesthetically experience what Afro diasporic and Afrofuturist philosophies of religion are could be the text will rely heavily on fiction novels poetry music movies and texts written by Afro diasporic people from various social locations and perspectives on some African notions of religion among other centers of reflection

Humanitarian Fictions Megan Cole Paustian, 2024-01-02 Humanitarianism has a narrative problem Far too often aid to Africa is envisioned through a tale of Western heroes saving African sufferers While labeling white savior narratives has become a familiar gesture it doesn't tell us much about the story as story Humanitarian Fictions aims to understand the workings of humanitarian literature as they engage with and critique narratives of Africa Overlapping with but distinct from human rights humanitarianism centers on a relationship of assistance focusing less on rights than on needs less on legal frameworks than moral ones less on the problem than on the nonstate solution Tracing the white savior narrative back to religious missionaries of the nineteenth century Humanitarian Fictions reveals the influence of religious thought on seemingly secular institutions and uncovers a spiritual collectivist streak in the discourse of humanity Because the humanitarian model of care transcends the boundaries of the state and its networks touch much of the globe Humanitarian Fictions redraws the boundaries of literary classification based on a shared problem space rather than a shared national space The book maps a transnational vein of Anglophone literature about Africa that features missionaries humanitarians and their so called beneficiaries Putting humanitarian thought in conversation with postcolonial critique this book brings together African British and U S writers typically read within separate traditions Paustian shows how the novel with its profound sensitivity to narrative can enrich the critique of white saviorism while also imagining alternatives that give African agency its due

Cultural Netizenship James Yékú, 2022-05-03 How does social media activism in Nigeria intersect with online popular forms from GIFs to memes to videos and become shaped by the repressive postcolonial state that propels resistance to dominant articulations of power James Y k proposes the concept of cultural netizenship internet citizenship and its aesthetico cultural dimensions as a way of being on the social web and articulating counter hegemonic self presentations through viral popular images Y k explores the cultural politics of protest selfies Nollywood derived memes and GIFs hashtags and political cartoons as visual texts for postcolonial studies and he examines how digital subjects in Nigeria a nation with one of the most vibrant digital spheres in Africa deconstruct state power through performed popular culture on social media As a rubric for the new digital genres of popular and visual expressions on social media cultural netizenship indexes the digital everyday through the affordances of the participatory web A fascinating look at the intersection of social media and popular culture performance Cultural Netizenship reveals the logic of remediation that is central to both the internet's remix culture and the generative materialism of African popular arts      State and Culture in Postcolonial Africa Tejumola Olaniyan, 2017-10-16 How has the state impacted culture and cultural production in Africa How has culture challenged and transformed the state and our understandings of its nature functions and legitimacy Compelled by complex realities on the ground as well as interdisciplinary scholarly debates on the state culture dynamic senior scholars and emerging voices examine the intersections of the state culture and politics in postcolonial Africa in this lively and wide ranging volume The coverage here is continental and topics include literature politics philosophy music religion theatre film television sports child trafficking journalism city planning and architecture Together the essays provide an energetic and nuanced portrait of the cultural forms of politics and the political forms of culture in contemporary Africa      Lifemaking Nimi Wariboko, 2024-06-01 Lifemaking offers a fresh frame for analyzing contemporary African politics and imagining its future Rooted in the indigenous political philosophy of lifemaking of the Kalabari Ijo people of the Niger Delta this work is a counterpoint to the necropolitics that dominates African political practice For practitioners and analysts for whom Africans and their polities are caught in the TINA There Is No Alternative syndrome this book offers inspiration for an alternative to the current necropolitics Because the book's thesis is an unreserved celebration of lifemaking it identifies collective human flourishing as essential to politics      Trash Kenneth W. Harrow, 2013-04-09 An engaging study of trash as a metaphor in contemporary African cinema African Studies Review Highlighting what is melodramatic flashy low and gritty in the characters images and plots of African cinema Kenneth W Harrow uses trash as the unlikely metaphor to show how these films have depicted the globalized world Rather than focusing on topics such as national liberation and postcolonialism he employs the disruptive notion of trash to propose a destabilizing aesthetics of African cinema Harrow argues that the spread of commodity capitalism has bred a culture of materiality and waste that now pervades African film He posits that a view from below permits a way to understand the tropes of trash present in African cinematic imagery      Transcripts of the Sacred in Nigeria Nimi Wariboko, 2023-06-20 Transcripts of the Sacred in Nigeria explores how the sacred plays itself out in contemporary Africa It offers a creative analysis of the logics and dynamics of the sacred understood as the constellation of its possibility available to a given community in religion politics epistemology economic development and reactionary violence Using the tools of philosophy postcolonial criticism political theory African studies religious studies and cultural studies Wariboko reveals the intricate connections between the sacred and the existential conditions that characterize disorder terror trauma despair and hope in the postcolonial Africa The sacred Wariboko argues is not about religion or divinity but the set of possibilities opened to a people or denied them the sum total of possibilities conceivable given their level of social technological and economic development These possibilities profoundly speak to the present political moment in sub Saharan Africa      Africans in Harlem Boukary Sawadogo, 2022-06-07 The untold story of African born migrants and their vibrant African influence in Harlem From the 1920s to the early 1960s Harlem was the intellectual and cultural center of the Black world The Harlem Renaissance movement brought together Black writers artists and musicians from different backgrounds who helped rethink the place of Black people in American society at a time of segregation and lack of recognition of their civil rights But where is the story of African immigrants in Harlem s most recent renaissance Africans in Harlem examines the intellectual artistic and creative exchanges between Africa and New York dating back to the 1910s a story that has not been fully told until now From Little Senegal along 116th Street between Lenox Avenue and Frederick Douglass Boulevard to the African street vendors on 125th Street to African stores restaurants and businesses throughout the neighborhood the African presence in Harlem has never been more active and visible than it is today In Africans in Harlem author scholar writer and filmmaker Boukary Sawadogo explores Harlem s African presence and influence from his own perspective as an African born immigrant Sawadogo captures the experiences challenges and problems African migr s have faced in Harlem since the 1980s notably work interaction diversity identity religion and education With a keen focus on the history of Africans through the lens of media theater the arts and politics this historical overview features compelling character driven narratives and interviews of longtime residents as well as community and religious leaders A blend of self examination as an immigrant member in Harlem and research on diasporic community building in New York City Africans in Harlem reveals how African immigrants have transformed Harlem economically and culturally as they too have been transformed It is also a story about New York City and its self renewal by the contributions of new human capital creative energies dreams nurtured and fulfilled and good neighbors by drawing parallels between the history of the African presence in Harlem with those of other ethnic immigrants in the most storied neighborhood in America The Oxford Handbook of Postcolonial Studies Graham Huggan,2013-09-12 The Oxford Handbook of Postcolonial Studies is a major reference work which aims to provide informed insights into the possible future of postcolonial studies as well as a comparative overview of the latest developments in the field Public Righteousness Abimbola A. Adelakun,2023-05-25 Public Righteousness The Performative Ethics of Human Flourishing is driven by the idea that part of what manifests as a disorderly display of virtue in public culture is underlined by the desire to see a more righteous society and an expression of the will to enact such an ideal world into reality This book re structures the ferment of such public displays and fashions an ethic that overturns the ostentatious signals of self righteousness and the fierce contest of animating visions This book engages the work of social ethicist Nimi Wariboko to explore an idea of public righteousness In place of smug superiority and phony pieties the performative ethics that inaugurate this public righteousness offer an intellectual and moral competence that establishes rectitude and culminates in human flourishing Reconsidering knowledge production and inclusion/exclusion in dance communities Ann R. The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought Abiola Irele, 2010. From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti-colonialist movements of Pan Africanism and Negritude, this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African Diaspora in the Americas and in Europe. The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse: philosophy, political thought, religion, literature, important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience. The Encyclopedia is a large-scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African Thought, including historical figures and important social movements, producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching and an invaluable companion to independent research and a solid guide for further study. East African Hip Hop Mwenda Ntarangwi, 2009.
