Art And Objecthood:

Art and Objecthood Michael Fried, 1998-04-18 Much acclaimed and highly controversial Michael Fried's art criticism defines the contours of late modernism in the visual arts This volume contains 27 pieces uncompromising exciting and impassioned writings aware of their transformative power during a time of intense controversy about the nature of modernism and the aims and essence of advanced painting and sculpture 16 color plates 72 halftones Beyond

Objecthood James Voorhies, 2017-02-24 The rise of the exhibition as critical form and artistic medium from Robert Smithson's antimodernist non sites in 1968 to today's institutional gravitation toward the participatory In 1968 Robert Smithson reacted to Michael Fried's influential essay Art and Objecthood with a series of works called non sites While Fried described the spectator's connection with a work of art as a momentary visual engagement Smithson's non sites asked spectators to do something more to take time looking walking seeing reading and thinking about the combination of objects images and texts installed in a gallery In Beyond Objecthood James Voorhies traces a genealogy of spectatorship through the rise of the exhibition as a critical form and artistic medium Artists like Smithson Group Material and Michael Asher sought to reconfigure and expand the exhibition and the museum into something more active open and democratic by inviting spectators into new and unexpected encounters with works of art and institutions This practice was sharply critical of the ingrained characteristics long associated with art institutions and conventional exhibition making and yet Voorhies finds over time the critique has been diluted by efforts of the very institutions that now gravitate to the participatory Beyond Objecthood focuses on innovative figures artworks and institutions that pioneered the exhibition as a critical form tracing its evolution through the activities of curator Harald Szeemann relational art and New Institutionalism Voorhies examines recent artistic and curatorial work by Liam Gillick Thomas Hirschhorn Carsten Holler Maria Lind Apolonija Uter i and others at such institutions as Documenta e flux Manifesta and Office for Contemporary Art Norway and he considers the continued potential of the exhibition as a critical form in a time when the differences between art and entertainment increasingly blur

Performance: pt. 1. Identity and the self Philip Auslander, 2003 This collection reflects not only the multidisciplinary nature of current thinking about performance but also the complex and contested nature of the concept itself What Do Pictures Want? W. J. T. Mitchell, 2013-12-23 Why do we have such extraordinarily powerful responses toward the images and pictures we see in everyday life Why do we behave as if pictures were alive possessing the power to influence us to demand things from us to persuade us seduce us or even lead us astray According to W J T Mitchell we need to reckon with images not just as inert objects that convey meaning but as animated beings with desires needs appetites demands and drives of their own What Do Pictures Want explores this idea and highlights Mitchell s innovative and profoundly influential thinking on picture theory and the lives and loves of images Ranging across the visual arts literature and mass media Mitchell applies characteristically brilliant and wry analyses to Byzantine icons and cyberpunk films racial stereotypes and public monuments ancient idols and modern clones offensive images and found objects American photography and aboriginal painting Opening new vistas in iconology and the emergent field of visual culture he also considers the importance of Dolly the Sheep who as a clone fulfills the ancient dream of creating a living image and the destruction of the World Trade Center on 9 11 which among other things signifies a new and virulent form of iconoclasm What Do Pictures Want offers an immensely rich and suggestive account of the interplay between the visible and the readable A work by one of our leading theorists of visual representation it will be a touchstone for art historians literary critics anthropologists and philosophers alike A treasury of episodes generally overlooked by art history and visual studies that turn on images that walk by themselves and exert their own power over the living Norman Bryson Artforum

Modern Art: A Critical Introduction Pam Meecham, Julie Sheldon, 2013-11-26 A revised and updated edition of one of the most successful Critical Introductions textbooks New features include marginal notes and colour photos New innovative structure based on feed back from teachers focusing on how modern art has been understood rather than a straight chronological account of movements

Jeff Wall and the Concept of the Picture Naomi Merritt, 2020-12-30 This book grapples with fundamental questions about the evolving nature of pictorial representation and the role photography has played in this ongoing process These issues are explored through a close analysis of key themes that underpin the photography practice of Canadian artist Jeff Wall and through examining important works that have defined his oeuvre Wall's strategic revival of the picture has had a resounding influence on the development of contemporary art photography by expanding the conceptual and technical frameworks of the medium and introducing a self reflexive criticality Naomi Merritt brings a new and original contribution to the scholarship on one of the most significant figures to have shaped the course of contemporary art photography since the 1970s and shines a light on the multilayered connections between photography and art This book will be of interest to scholars in the history of photography art and visual culture and contemporary art history

Against Voluptuous Bodies J. M. Bernstein, 2006 The aim of this book is to provide an account of modernist painting that follows on from the aesthetic theory of Theodor W Adorno It offers a materialist account of modernism with detailed discussions of modern aesthetics from Kant to Arthur Danto Stanley Cavell and Adorno It discusses in detail competing accounts of modernism Clement Greenberg Michael Fried Yve Alain Bois and Thierry de Duve and it discusses several painters and artists in detail Pieter de Hooch Jackson Pollock Robert Ryman Cindy Sherman and Chaim Soutine Its central thesis is that modernist painting exemplifies a form of rationality that is an alternative to the instrumental rationality of enlightened modernity Modernist paintings exemplify how nature and the sociality of meaning can be reconciled
