Let's Go for a Ride William Livezey, 2022-06-15 Let's Go for a Ride is the story of William Bill Livezey's thirty-year career in the Maine Warden Service. Heralded as one of the best covert investigators in the country by Maine Warden Service Lieutenant Dan Scott, Bill is the agency's longest tenured undercover operative, having spent twenty years in the Special Investigations Unit. Let's go for a ride is the universal bad guy code for breaking the law. Among Maine's most sinister wildlife offenders, its utterance is prone to incite alcohol-fueled night hunting, high-speed car chases on winding country roads, drug dealing, arson, and attempted murder. The worst of the worst were Bill Livezey's bread and butter. His success at putting the truly bad guys out of business was driven by his upbringing as one of them. Born and raised in Pennsylvania, Bill's father was a successful businessman whose blind ambition sent him down the dark path of drug trafficking. It wasn't long before young Bill was tagging along and doing drugs with his dad. The aftermath of witnessing his father perish in a fiery standoff with police sent Bill spiraling out of control. He lashed out at law enforcement by dealing drugs and he numbed the pain and confusion by doing them. Deep down, Bill knew his life was broken. When a high school football teammate invited him to attend a Fellowship of Christian Athletes meeting, he discovered his faith and a new path.
