Armenian Kingdom And The Mamluks:

The Armenian Kingdom and the Mamluks Angus Donal Stewart, 2021-10-01 This volume gives an in depth account of the relations between the Mamluk Sultanate of Egypt and Syria and the Armenian Kingdom centred on Cilicia in southern Asia Minor in the period after the collapse of the Crusader States As well as diplomatic encounters the work describes in detail for example the course of the Mamluk invasions of Cilicia and the Armenian involvement with the Mongol invasions of Mamluk Syria The work is substantially based on sources written in Arabic in the Mamluk Sultanate Using them in conjunction with more pro Armenian sources it demonstrates the value of these Arabic histories which provide many new insights and details Both in its subject and in its use of sources this work demonstrates an important new direction for scholars of the Middle East

Armenian Kingdom and the Mamluks-War & Diplomacy During the Reign Agnus Stewart, 2001 The Armenian Kingdom in Cilicia During the Crusades Jacob Ghazarian, 2018-10-24 This unique study bridges the history of the Crusades with the history of Armenian nationalism and Christianity To the Crusaders Armenian Christians presented the only reliable allies in Anatolia and Asia Minor and were pivotal in the founding of the Crusader principalities of Edessa Antioch Jerusalem and Tripoli The Anatolian kingdom of Cilicia was founded by the Roupenian dynasty mid 10th to late 11th century and grew under the collective rule of the Hetumian dynasty late 12th to mid 14th century After confrontations with Byzantium the Seljuks and the Mongols the Second Crusade led to the crowning of the first Cilician king despite opposition from Byzantium Following the Third Crusade power shifted in Cilicia to the Lusignans of Cyprus mid to late 14th century culminating in the final collapse of the kingdom at the hands of the Egyptian Mamluks The Mamluks and the Armenian Kingdom During the Reigns of King Hetum II (1289-1307) Angus Donal Stewart, University of St.

Andrews, 2000 The Mamluks and the Armenian Kingdom During the Reigns of King Hetum II (1289-1307) Angus Donal Stewart, 2000 Muslim Fortresses in the Levant Kate Raphael, 2010-09-13 During much of the twelfth century the Crusaders dominated the military scene in the Levant The unification of Egypt and Syria by Saladin gradually changed the balance of power which slowly begun to tilt in favour of the Muslims This book examines the development and role of Muslim fortresses in the Levant at the time of the Crusaders and the Mongol invasion situating the study within a broad historical political and military context Exploring the unification of Egypt with a large part of Syria and its effect on the balance of power in the region Raphael gives a historical overview of the resulting military strategies and construction of fortresses A detailed architectural analysis is based on a survey of four Ayyubid and eight Mamluk fortresses situated in what are today the modern states of Jordan Israel Southern Turkey and Egypt the Sinai Peninsula The author then explores the connection between strongholds or military architecture and the development of siege warfare and technology and examines the influence of architecture and methods of rule on the concept of defence and the development of fortifications Drawing upon excavation reports field surveys and contemporary Arabic sources the book provides the Arabic architectural terminology and touches on the difficulties of reading the sources Detailed maps of the fortresses in the region the Mongol invasion routs plans of sites and photographs assist the reader throughout the book providing an important addition to existing literature in the areas of Medieval Archaeology Medieval military history and Middle Eastern studies The Mongols and the Armenians (1220-1335) Bayarsaikhan Dashdondog,2010-12-07 Covering more than one century this book describes the complex issues of Mongol Armenian political relations that involved many different ethnic groups in a vast geographical area stretching from China to the Mediterranean coast in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries The Armenian Imaginary in the West, 1100-1900 Carolyn P. Collette,2024-11-19 Examines how Armenia has been represented and imagined in texts from two periods in its history the Middle Ages and the nineteenth century Today most people who think of Armenia associate it with the genocide of 1915 the struggle Armenians waged after the First World War to reclaim their ancient lands in Anatolia a struggle complicated by centuries of subordination to the Ottomans by persistent Russian efforts to exert influence and claim territory and by Western indecision manifested in plentiful words but few deeds This book however tells a different story one of geo political importance strength struggle and diminishment narrated in texts largely created by and for Europeans and Americans It asks how the West imagined described and presented Armenia over time in historical and fictional accounts during two periods of close Armenian Western contact The first period spans the twelfth to fourteenth centuries it examines a variety of texts including the travel narratives of Marco Polo and John Mandeville William of Tyre s Deeds Done Beyond the Sea and romances such as King of Tars Bevis of Hampton and Le Roman de M lusine The second period is rooted in events during the nineteenth century American missionary movement It engages with a variety of popular and widely disseminated texts books pamphlets newspapers written and published in the United States from 1830 to the mid 1890s detailing the encounters between the missionaries and the Armenians frequently in the voices of women Muslim Military Architecture in Greater Syria Hugh N. Kennedy,2006 This book investigates the Muslim castles of greater Syria from c 700 to c 1700 from archaeological and historical perspectives The Armenian Church of Famagusta and the Complexity of Cypriot Heritage Michael J.K. Walsh,2017-04-27 This book explores seven centuries of change in Cyprus and the Eastern Mediterranean world through the rise and fall of Famagusta s medieval Armenian Church An examination of the complex and its art escorts the reader from the era of the Crusades in Lusignan Cyprus through the rise and fall of the Venetian Ottoman and British Empires to the political stasis of the present day The Armenian church was a home for displaced villagers during the post independence era became a military storage facility post 1974 and eventually fell into abandonment once again This study represents a pioneering history of the Armenian community in Famagusta and a probing analysis of the art and architecture it left behind It is also a permanent record of the long term engagement and commitment of Nanyang Technological University Singapore the World Monuments Fund and the Famagusta Municipality to protect this precious site under extremely challenging circumstances Medieval Fortifications in Cilicia Dweezil Vandekerckhove,2019-11-26 In

Medieval Fortifications in Cilicia Dweezil Vandekerckhove offers an account of the origins development and spatial distribution of fortified sites in the Armenian Kingdom 1198 1375 Despite the abundance of archaeological remains the Armenian heritage had previously not been closely studied However through the examination of known and newly identified castles this work has now increased the number of sites and features associated with the Armenian Kingdom By the construction of numerous powerful castles the Armenians succeeded in establishing an independent kingdom which lasted until the Mamluk conquest in 1375 Dweezil Vandekerckhove convincingly proves that the medieval castles in Cilicia are of outstanding architectural interest with a significant place in the history of military architecture The Rise and Fall of a

Islamicate World Abdisho of Nisibis and the Apologetic Tradition is the first monograph length study and intellectual biography of Abdisho of Nisibis d 1318 bishop and polymath of the Church of the East Focusing on his works of apologetic theology it examines the intellectual strategies he employs to justify Christianity against Muslim and to a lesser extent Jewish criticisms Better known to scholars of Syriac literature as a poet jurist and cataloguer Abdisho wrote a considerable number of works in the Arabic language many of which have only recently come to light He flourished at a time when Syriac Christian writers were becoming increasingly indebted to Islamic models of intellectual production Yet many of his writings were composed during mounting religious tensions following the official conversion of the Ilkhanate to Islam in 1295 In the midst of these challenges Abdisho negotiates a centuries long tradition of Syriac and Arabic apologetics to remind his readers of the verity of the Christian faith His engagement with this tradition reveals how anti Muslim apologetics had long shaped the articulation of Christian identity in the Middle East since the emergence of Islam Through a selective process of encyclopaedism and systematisation Abdisho navigates a vast corpus of Syriac and Arabic apologetics to create a synthesis and theological canon that remains authoritative to this day
