collection problematizes and ultimately deconstructs the established narratives that assume most Arabs supported fascism and Nazism leading up to and during World War II Using new source materials taken largely from Arab memoirs archives and print media the articles reexamine Egyptian Syrian Lebanese Palestinian and Iraqi responses in the 1930s and throughout the war While acknowledging the individuals forces and organizations that did support and collaborate with Nazi Germany and fascist Italy Arab Responses to Fascism and Nazism focuses on the many other Arab voices that identified with Britain and France and with the Allied cause during the war The authors argue that many groups within Arab societies elites and non elites governing forces and civilians rejected Nazism and fascism as totalitarian racist and most important as new more oppressive forms of European imperialism The essays in this volume argue that in contrast to prevailing beliefs that Arabs were de facto supporters of Italy and Germany since the enemy of my enemy is my friend mainstream Arab forces and currents opposed the Axis powers and supported the Allies during the war They played a significant role in the battles for control over the Middle East
