 Landscape is a new approach to urban heritage management promoted by UNESCO and currently one of the most debated issues in the international preservation community However few conservation practitioners have a clear understanding of Timbuktu to Liverpool Richly illustrated with colour photographs Addresses key issues and best practice for urban 1876 Edward Augustus Freeman, 1876 Planning and Place in the City Marichela Sepe, 2013-03-05 Under the influence of globalization the centres of many cities in the industrialised world are losing their place identity the set of cultural markers that define a city's uniqueness and make it instantly recognisable A key task for planners and residents working together is to preserve that unique sense of place without making the city a parody of itself In Planning and Place in the City Marichela Sepe explores the preservation reconstruction and enhancement of cultural heritage and place identity She outlines the history of the concept of placemaking and sets out the range of different methods of analysis and assessment that are used to help pin down the nature of place identity This book also uses the author's own survey based method called PlaceMaker to detect elements that do not feature in traditional mapping and identifies appropriate planning interventions Case studies investigate cities in Europe North America and Asia which demonstrate how surveys and interviews can be used to draw up an analytical map of place identity This investigative work is a crucial step in identifying cultural elements which will influence what planning decisions should be taken in the future The maps aim to establish a dialogue with local residents and support planners and administrators in making sustainable changes The case studies are amply illustrated with survey data sheets photos and coloured maps Innovative and broad based Planning and Place in the City lays out an approach to the identification and preservation of place and cultural heritage suitable for students academics and professionals alike

Beyond Boundaries Andy Hollis,2000 Despite the recent growth in university courses on European Studies and Cultural Studies and notwithstanding increasing public concern about questions of national identity within Europe there is currently little material available which explores the diversity of European identities specifically within the context of European literary and filmic culture In tackling ten novels six plays four films three short stories three books of travel writing and one diary covering fifteen nationalities in all the authors of this volume are seeking to fill this gap The twelve essays contain detailed textual analysis embedded within a framework of cultural theory whose most celebrated reference points include Freud Edward Said Benedict Anderson and Homi Bhabha This volume is aimed not only at specialists in identity studies and those concerned with the artistic landscape of a wider Europe including Russia the Balkans Finland and Turkey It will also interest those preoccupied with building an imaginative and imagined identity for Europe an identity which might help to sustain it as a political entity and lend it greater popular legitimacy than it enjoys at present Cities of Whiteness Wendy S.

Shaw,2011-07-18 This groundbreaking book brings the study of whiteness and postcolonial perspectives to bear on debates about urban change A thought provoking contribution to debates about urban change race and cosmopolitan urbanism Brings the study of whiteness to the discipline of geography questioning the notion of white ethnicity Engages with Indigenous peoples experiences of whiteness past and present and with theoretical postcolonial perspectives Uses Sydney as an example of a city of whiteness considering trends such as Sydney's SoHo Syndrome and the Harlemlisation of the Aboriginal community Historic Cities of the Americas David F.
