Quotationary - The A-Z Book of Quotations Nasser Amiri,2024-06-27 Compiled over many years by Nasser Amiri this is by far the most comprehensive collection ever compiled of carefully selected quotations from the world's great philosophers, writers, historians, musicians, and thinkers. Quotationary is a source of inspiration for every writer, book lover, and thinker. It contains the thoughts of many of the finest minds since ancient man started to express his wit and wisdom in aphoristic form. It is inspirational, instructive, amusing, and literary alongside a dictionary and thesaurus; it is a must-have purchase for any author, writer, journalist, or anyone working with words.

Marx's Ethical Vision Vanessa Christina Wills, 2024. A central debate among scholars of Marx concerns whether Marxism has a moral content or is totally amoral, perhaps either because it embraces a strict economic determinism or because it nihilistically sides with the proletariat without offering any objective justification for that stance. Philosopher Vanessa Christina Wills argues that Marx does articulate an ethical perspective that is present throughout his writings, both the more obviously humanistic and philosophical early writings and his later economic and more empirically grounded studies such as Capital. The purposiveness of labor gives rise to a normativity already inherent in the present state of things, one that can guide us in knowing what sort of world we should build and that further prepares us to build it.

A Social Theory of Freedom Mariam Thalos, 2016-03-17. In A Social Theory of Freedom, Mariam Thalos argues that the theory of human freedom should be a broadly social and political theory rather than a theory that places itself in opposition to the issue of determinism. Thalos rejects the premise that a theory of freedom is fundamentally a theory of the metaphysics of constraint and instead lays out a political conception of freedom that is closely aligned with questions of social identity, self-development in contexts of intimate relationships, and social solidarity. Thalos argues that whether a person is free in any context depends upon a certain relationship of fit between that agent's conception of themselves, both present and future, on the one hand, and the facts of their circumstances on the other. Since relationships of fit are broadly logical, freedom is a logic; it is the logic of fit between one's aspirations and one's circumstances, what Thalos calls the logic of agency. The logic of agency, once fleshed out, becomes a broadly social and political theory that encompasses one's self-conceptions as well as how these self-conceptions are generated together with how they fit with the circumstances of one's life. The theory of freedom proposed in this volume is fundamentally a political one.
