Challenge And Response Justification In Ethics:

Challenge and Response Carl Wellman, 1971 Mr Wellman's highly original contribution to the relatively new field of justification in ethics consists of characterizing the different ways in which ethical statements can be challenged and showing how each sort of challenge can be met by an appropriate response enabling reasonable men to appropriately discuss or reflect on ethical issues In developing his unique systematic methodology of ethics Mr Wellman has first rigorously reviewed and refuted the main arguments for the view of the nature of all reasoning as deductive and second convincingly presented arguments for the existence of nondeductive evidences in ethics Mr Wellman's broad definition of reasoning and his rejection of the identification of justification with reasoning reveals new dimensions of justification which will have wide implications in other areas of human speculation Value and Justification Gerald F. Gaus, 1990-07-27 Rational moral action can neither be seen as a way of maximising personal values nor derived from reason independent of them is this study's assertion It contends that commitment to the moral point of view is presupposed by value systems Rational moral action can neither be seen as a way of maximising personal values nor derived from reason independent of them is this study's assertion It contends that commitment to the moral point of view is presupposed by value systems Rights and Reason Marilyn

Friedman, Larry May, K. Parsons, J. Stiff, 2013-06-29 The papers in this book have been collected in celebration of Carl Wellman who after forty five years is retiring from teaching Here I would like to highlight a few of the moments which have shaped Carl as a person and a philosopher Although his childhood was not unhappy Carl faced considerable challenges growing up in Manchester New Hampshire He never knew his father he and his mother Carolyn had little money and he fought a long battle with Stevens Johnson Syndrome an illness which made him more familiar with hospitals than any young person should be His mother once told me that there were times when the doctors put Carl in his own hospital room because while he was too young to be housed with adult men they did not want the other children to see him die Following a year of physician prescribed rest after high school the doctors recommended the University of Arizona in the misguided hope that the desert climate might improve his health In spite of the doctors hopes life in Tucson was not easy The heat takes its toll on everyone but the desert was especially oppressive for Carl since his unusually sensitive eyes were no match for the intense sun Still Carl enjoyed college Moral Skepticism Walter Sinnott-Armstrong, 2007-10-19 Sinnott Armstrong here provides an extensive survey of the difficult subject of moral beliefs He covers theories that grapple with questions of morality such as naturalism normativism intuitionism and coherentism He then defends his own theory that he calls moderate moral skepticism which is that moral beliefs can be justified but not extremely justified Ethical Argumentation Douglas N. Walton, 2003-01-01 Bridging the gap between applied ethics and ethical theory Ethical Argumentation draws on recent research in argumentation theory to develop a more realistic model of how ethical justification actually works Douglas Walton presents a new model of ethical argumentation in which ethical justification is analyzed as a defeasible form of argumentation considered in a balanced dialogue Walton's new model employs techniques such as asking the appropriate critical questions probing accepted values finding nonexplicit assumptions in an ethical argument and deconstructing emotive terms and persuasive definitions This book will be of significant interest to scholars and advanced students in applied ethics and theory

Moral Vision and Tradition Antonio S. Cua, 2018-03-02 This volume offers a comprehensive philosophical study of Confucian ethics its basic insights and its relevance to contemporary Western moral philosophy Distinguished writer and philosopher A S Cua presents fourteen essays which deal with various problems

Morality Without Foundations Mark Timmons, 2004-11-18 Timmons defends an original metaethical view that exploits certain contextualist themes in philosophy of language and epistemology He advances a view that employs semantic contextualism when engaging in moral discourse

The Rule of Law Ian Shapiro, 1995-07-01 From the sprawling remnants of the Soviet empire to the southern tip of Africa attempts are underway to replace arbitrary political regimes with governments constrained by the rule of law This ideal which subordinates the wills of individuals social movements and even sometimes democratically elected majorities to the requirements of law is here explored by leading legal and political thinkers Part I of The Rule of Law examines the interplay of democracy and the rule of law while Part II focusses on the centuries old debate about the meaning of the rule of law itself Part III takes up the constraints that rationality exercises on the rule of law If the rule of law is desirable partly because it is rational then departures from that rule might also be desirable in the event that they can be shown to be rational Part IV concentrates on the limits of the rule of law considering the tensions between liberalism and the rule of law which exist despite the fact that reasoned commitment to the rule of the law is preeminently a liberal commitment Contributing to the volume are Robert A Burt Yale University Steven J Burton University of Iowa William N Eskridge Jr Georgetown University John Ferejohn Stanford University Richard Flathman Johns Hopkins University Gerald F Gaus University of Minnesota Duluth Jean Hampton University of Arizona Russell Hardin University of Chicago James Johnson University of Rochester Jack Knight Washington University Stephen Macedo Harvard University David Schmidtz Yale University Lawrence B Solum Loyola Marymount University Michael Walzer Princeton University Catherine Valcke University of Toronto and Michael P Zuckert Carleton College

The Ideal of a Rational Morality Marcus George Singer, 2002 This is a collection of essays by moral philosopher Marcus George Singer in which the guiding theme is the concept of a morality based in reason which is presupposed in ordinary moral contexts and provides an ideal for improving ordinary morality and correcting moral judgements

The Response of Discourse Ethics to the Moral Challenge of the Human Situation as Such and Especially Today Karl-Otto Apel, 2001 The need for a global ethics has its origin in the human situation as such i e in the fact of hominisation that has dismissed us from the natural security of animal instincts and thrown us into the state of freedom and especially in the present situation of humankind that is characterised by an extreme increase of external challenges to our co responsibility brought about by the results of natural science technology politics and economy and as it appears lacking internal resources of ethical reason The present book tries to show that the transcendental pragmatic approach to discourse ethics can reconstruct the genesis of this situation and provide a rational response to the external challenges to and the internal deficits of global ethics Justificatory Liberalism Gerald F. Gaus,1996 Drawing on current work in epistemology and cognitive psychology this treatise develops a theory of personally justified belief Building on this it then advances an account of public justification that is more normative and less populist than the views of political liberals

On Moral Certainty, Justification and Practice J. Hermann,2015-06-23 Taking inspiration from the later Wittgenstein On Moral Certainty Justification and Practice explores the practical basis of human morality It offers an account of moral certainty which it links with a view of moral competence Drawing on everyday examples it is shown how morality is grounded in action not in reasoning
