Challenge Of Basic Christian Communities:

The Challenge of Basic Christian Communities Sergio Torres, John Eagleson, 1981 The Challenge of Basic Christian Communities Sergio Torres, John Eagleson, 1980 Small Christian Communities Thomas A. Kleissler, Margo A. LeBert, Mary C. McGuinness, 2003 This revised and updated edition of Small Christian Communities A Vision of Hope for the 21st Century is a rich source of practical information about how to make the vision of the parish as a community of many small communities come alive y Christian Community in History Roger Haight, 2004 E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W Y Z Small Christian Communities Today Joseph G. Healey, Jeanne Hinton, 2005 How can churches in America modeling the oldest Christian communities renew themselves form within They can look to examples of thriving small Christian communities within their own country and throughout the world This inspiring book shows what is happening now across six continents to give pastors and lay leaders of every denomination encouragement through useable examples from their counterparts around the world Hermeneutical Community C. S. Barefoot, 2024-12-23 Many Western initiatives exist for theological development in the majority world but how often do practitioners from the West pause to examine the role they should play in that endeavor Missions history and church history have revealed inadequacies of imposing foreign theology on local churches yet the alternative of withdrawing from local theological development appears equally problematic If therefore the outsider s role is neither to impose theology nor withdraw from the task then what is his or her role Hermeneutical Community addresses this fundamental question and seeks to lay a sound missiological foundation for local theological development The Challenges of Vatican II for an Authentic Indian Catholic Church Suhas Pereira, 2021 The Vatican II was an event of a new facelift for the entire edifice of the Catholic ecclesiology It called for the renewal in the universal Catholic Church This book deals with the question How can the Catholic Church in India accept the council s challenge for renewal and become truly Indian in its being and essence Undertaking a systematic examination of the post conciliar ecclesiological development in the Indian Catholic Church in its existential multi religious and multi cultural context the author attempts to develop an ecclesiological reflection for the Indian context Beyond Boundaries Maria A. David, 2009 Study conducted in the Kannyi kum ri District of Tamil Nadu India The Vitality of Liberation Theology Craig L. Nesson, 2012-09-06 The Vitality of Liberation Theology argues for the ongoing necessity of a liberating theology in a world of endemic poverty and economic globalization Although some have declared liberation theology s demise or even its death Nesson articulates the imperative and logic of it for a new generation Latin American liberation theology burst forth as the most original and compelling theological movement from the developing world in the modern period The story of the emergence and proliferation of liberation theology as well as the opposition to this movement both within and without Latin America is one of the most significant and lasting developments in Christianity since the last third of the twentieth century Together with other forms of liberating theology from contexts of oppression in diverse parts of the world anti apartheid theology in South Africa and Namibia Minjung theology in Korea Dalit theology in India or Palestinian liberation theology Latin American liberation theology takes a prophetic stand against the hegemony of the status quo and joins league with other subaltern peoples in the cause of freedom from all forms of subjugation and oppression The dawn of Latin American liberation theology inaugurated a new era in the global theological landscape The Understanding of Family in Ghana as a Challenge for a Contextual Ecclesiology Moses Asaah Awinongya, 2013 The life and nature of the Church are better understood in terms of a self identity that relies on the language and cultural framework of the stakeholders Since theological reflections do not take place in a vacuum the socio cultural context gains importance The question is How much culture can the Church as a whole accommodate without losing its universal character With a focus on the West African country of Ghana this book analyzes the potential trade offs and conflicts between the Church and culture in a pluri religious and multi cultural society Further it shows the dangers of exclusion within the Church and offers possible solutions Series Studien zur systematischen Theologie und Ethik Vol 64 Theology for a Liberating Church Alfred T. Hennelly, 1989 Freedom is a fundamental Christian theological category as much a challenge to construct a new way of seeing oneself and others as it is an announcement of what Christ has already done for us in his death and resurrection Liberation theology is most simply the effort to spell out what such freedom means for Christians in the twentieth and twenty first centuries This book has as its principle premise the conviction that if we are to construct a North American liberation theology we must begin listening to and understanding Latin American theology not so much as a model to be slavishly followed but as a challenge to our own cultural political and even religious assumptions The focus thus is not so much on the theoretical meaning of Christian freedom but on its practice and more exactly its praxis that is to say the dialectic between theory and practice After focusing on the creation and development of liberating theological methods and sources and above all the revitalization and renewal of structures that will contribute to the development of a liberated and liberating church Fr Hennelly ends with an analysis of the most recent and the most important vatican document on liberation theology The Instruction of Christian Freedom and Liberation which he sees as an acknowledgement by the universal church that the theme of liberation is central to the meaning of Christian theology Small Christian Communities and the Parish John Paul Vandenakker, 1994 Examines the pastoral and theological implications of North American Small Christian Community programs HIV & AIDS In Africa Azetsop, Jacquineau, 2016-09-15 A comprehensive look at the HIV AIDS pandemic in Africa this volume features contributions from noted scholars from across the continent and beyond providing badly needed social analysis and theological reflection from an African perspective Theologies of the Non-Person M.P. Joseph, 2015-10-07 The Ecumenical Association of the Third World Theologians illuminated the struggles of liberating the poor and sought to do theology with the marginalized seeking freedom gender co responsibility and racial and ethnic equality This book offers an interpretative history of the formative years of this historic movement Latin American Liberation Theology David Tombs,2021-11-08 David Tombs offers an accessible introduction to the theological challenges raised by Latin American Liberation and a new contribution to how these challenges might be understood as a chronological sequence. Liberation theology emerged in the 1960s in Latin America and thrived until it reached a crisis in the 1990s. This work traces the distinct developments in thought through the decades thus presenting a contextual theology. The book is divided into five main sections: the historical role of the church from Columbus's arrival in 1492 until the Cuban revolution of 1959; the reform and renewal decade of the 1960s; the transitional decade of the 1970s; the revision and redirection of liberation theology in the 1980s; and a crisis of relevance in the 1990s. This book offers insights into liberation theology's profound contributions for any socially engaged theology of the future and is crucial to understanding liberation theology and its legacies. This publication has also been published in paperback; please click here for details.

Scripture and Ethics Jeffrey Siker,1996-12-19 How should the Bible be used in Christian ethics? Although this question has been addressed many times, little attention has gone to how the Bible actually has functioned in constructing theological ethics. In this book Siker describes and analyzes the Bible's various uses in the theology and ethics of eight of the twentieth century's most important and influential Christian theologians: Reinhold Niebuhr, H. Richard Niebuhr, Bernhard Haring, Paul Ramsey, Stanley Hauerwas, Gustavo Gutierrez, James Cone, and Rosemary Radford Ruether. Of each author Siker asks five related questions: which biblical texts does the author in fact use; in what ways are the texts used; how does the author envision the authority of the Bible; what kind of hermeneutic does the author employ; and what has each author's approach to the Bible yielded in terms of Christian ethics. Siker ends each chapter with a critical evaluation of the various problems and prospects for the author's use of Scripture and concludes the study with a comparison and contrast of the authors' respective appropriations of the Sermon on the Mount.

Prophetic Dialogue, Challenges and Prospects in India L. Stanislaus, Alwyn D'Souza,2003 Contributed articles presented at a seminar.

Do Small Groups Work? Anna Creedon,2021-05-31 Engaging with the Bible in a small group context has the potential to be transformative, but the picture is not without some complications. Key factors in determining whether a small group can be transformed through scripture include the use or abuse of experts, the opportunity for challenge in the group, and how study materials are used. Do Small Groups Work not only presents extensive research into these questions with the potential to transform practice but also offers a unique window into how practical theological research can productively encounter scripture.

Basic Christian Communities ,1985* Cascading Challenges in the Global Water Crisis Gerard Magill, James Benedict,2019-02-11 This edited book is a collection of essays presented at the 3rd annual endowed conference held at Duquesne University, USA. The conference series addresses emerging concerns and threshold problems about the sustainability of our planet. The contributions gathered here highlight the interrelation of topics and expertise from the perspectives of science and policy, religion and ethics, and pivotal global issues. The book concludes with an ethical analysis of the multiple and overlapping challenges to paramount concerns that require urgent attention and long term resolution The book is written for scholars and students in a variety of disciplines and fields that deal with the earth s current survival and future flourishing
