Challenge Of Illiteracy From Reflection To Action:

The Challenge of Illiteracy Zaghoul Morsy, 2013-11-26 According to UNESCO's statistics the number of illiterates in the world is verging on one million. A conservative estimate of the number of children who have no access to schooling brings that figure to more than one hundred million. School failure brought about by overcrowding, poor facilities, unqualified teachers and lack of materials only adds to the problem. The authors in this volume cover the many facets of the fight for literacy.

The Challenge of Illiteracy Zaghoul Morsy, 1994 First Published in 1995 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis, an informa company.

Liberal Democracy and Its Critics in Africa Tukumbi Lumumba-Kasonga, 2013-07-04

Democratic institutional forms and processes are increasingly widespread in Africa as dictatorial regimes have been forced to give way as a result of popular mobilization and external donor pressure. However, the premises of the African scholars whose empirical research and analytical explorations are included in this volume are that democratic form and democratic substance are two different things. Western derived institutional forms are neither necessarily the most appropriate nor the most practical in the current African context and rooting democratic norms in the political cultures of African polities raises socio-cultural issues with which political scientists must engage. This book explores various critical questions in the context of particular elections and particular countries as diverse as Ghana, Nigeria, Kenya, the Congo, Cameroon and the Central African Republic. They include the continuing impact of police state apparatuses following democratic transition, factors influencing African voters' attitudes and behaviour, the impact of incumbency on electoral competition, women's electoral participation, the phenomenon of often very limited party programmatic choice in the context of huge social diversity and multi-party competition and the controversial issues around the transplantation of liberal democratic institutions. Underlying these issues is the fundamental question of whether democratic processes as currently practised in Africa are really making any significant difference to the African struggle for economic, social and cultural progress. This volume is valuable for the original perspectives of its African contributors, the issues it explores and the concrete democratic experiences it analyses and the challenges it makes to the existing concepts, paradigms and practices of liberal democracy.

Literacy as Gendered Discourse Daphne W. Ntiri, 2015-01-01 This volume continues IAP's dedication to the diverse field of international adult learning in the tradition of those books related to the We Learn and AAHE conferences. It is an edited and refereed collection and part of the larger body of scholarly publications associated with professional organizations such as AAACE, MAACE, We Learn, Women Studies Association, African Studies Association, Gender Studies Association and Global Studies network. Literacy as gendered discourse is important because it fills a unique niche in the canon of studies that investigate the challenges and prevailing norms associated with women and literacy studies, adult learning and development. It also offers a current volume for scholars and practitioners based on both research and practice-based research. This collection is appropriate for a wide variety of professors, researchers, practitioners and students in the field of adult literacy studies.

women gender and development studies In order to create this valuable contribution to the literacy and women s studies literature international scholars have contributed their research in which they study and explore the lives of women in various countries Their work establishes findings that help to illuminate and analyze the different manifestations of women s global experiences through the unique lens of local respondents or through their own lens as academic researchers In these ways the results provide powerful insight and useful lessons applicable to the fields of gender study women s studies adult literacy development studies international studies etc Urban Africa Abdou Maligalim Simone,Abdelghani

Abouhane,2005-05 Including case studies from Dakar Addis Ababa Cape Town Kisangani Jos Zaria Cairo and Marrakesh this text presents the complex social dynamics of human survival in African cities today Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,2009 The Moral Imagination and the Legal Life Zenon Bankowski,Maksymilian Del Mar,2016-03-03 What role can resources that go beyond text play in the development of moral education in law schools and law firms How can these resources especially those from the visual and performing arts nourish the imagination needed to confront the ethical complexities of particular situations This book asks and answers these questions thereby introducing radically new resources for law schools and law firms committed to fighting against the moral complacency that can all too often creep into the life of the law The chapters in this volume build on the companion volume The Arts and the Legal Academy also published by Ashgate which focuses on the role of non textual resources in legal education generally Concentrating in particular on the moral dimension of legal education the contributors to this volume include a wide range of theorists and leading legal educators from the UK and the US Research on Composition Peter Smagorinsky,2006 Covering the period between 1984 and 2003 this authoritative sequel picks up where the earlier volumes Braddock et al 1963 and Hillocks 1986 now classics in the field left off It features a broader focus that goes beyond the classroom teaching of writing to include teacher research second language writing rhetoric home and community literacy workplace literacy and histories of writing Each chapter is written by an expert in the area reviewed and covers both conventional written composition and multimodal forms of composition including drawing digital forms and other relevant media Research on Composition is an invaluable road map of composition research for the next decade and required reading for anyone teaching or writing about composition today

New Frontiers in Technological Literacy J. Dakers,2016-04-30 This book attempts to rethink the concept of technological literacy in a modern context not only in terms of a subject area taught in schools but also as an important general concept that all citizens should engage with As this book will illustrate the concept of technological literacy has no universally agreed definition Improving Literacy Through Home, School, and Community Partnerships Gatcho, Al Rynne

Gabonada, Titar-Improgo, Cecille Marie, Gutierrez, Merry Ruth Morauda, 2024-04-09 The underappreciation of the pivotal roles played by home school and community in shaping the literacy journey of individuals While the mantra Literacy begins at home resonates it often remains a mere platitude rather than a transformative force The synergy between these three pillars is essential yet gaps persist hindering the development of a truly literate society As children tread the academic path the home lays the foundation and schools amplify these efforts However the holistic nature of learning encompassing life experiences demands a collaborative approach from families educators and communities This is the crux of the problem a disjointed system that impedes the seamless development of literacy across diverse backgrounds Improving Literacy Through Home School and Community Partnerships is a groundbreaking book that unravels the complexities of this challenge and illuminates the transformative potential within collaborative efforts By delving into the dynamic interplay between home school and community the book offers a roadmap to bridge existing gaps and forge a path toward a more literate society Early career researchers will find this a valuable resource to identify and address these gaps while families educators community leaders and policymakers will gain invaluable perspectives to inform their practices policies and research initiatives

New Acquisitions Unesco Institute for Education. Documentation Centre and Library, 1992 Issues and Challenges in Science Education Research Kim Chwee Daniel Tan, Mijung Kim, 2012-04-27 In contemporary society science constitutes a significant part of human life in that it impacts on how people experience and understand the world and themselves The rapid advances in science and technology newly established societal and cultural norms and values and changes in the climate and environment as well as the depletion of natural resources all greatly impact the lives of children and youths and hence their ways of learning viewing the world experiencing phenomena around them and interacting with others These changes challenge science educators to rethink the epistemology and pedagogy in science classrooms today as the practice of science education needs to be proactive and relevant to students and prepare them for life in the present and in the future Featuring contributions from highly experienced and celebrated science educators as well as research perspectives from Europe the USA Asia and Australia this book addresses theoretical and practical examples in science education that on the one hand plays a key role in our understanding of the world and yet paradoxically now acknowledges a growing number of uncertainties of knowledge about the world The material is in four sections that cover the learning and teaching of science from science literacy to multiple representations science teacher education the use of innovations and new technologies in science teaching and learning and science learning in informal settings including outdoor environmental learning activities Acknowledging the issues and challenges in science education this book hopes to generate collaborative discussions among scholars researchers and educators to develop critical and creative ways of science teaching to improve and enrich the lives of our children and youths
