Champlain Valley Memories Pediment Group, Incorporated, The, 2003-01-01 States at War, Volume 2 Richard F. Miller, 2014-08-05 While many Civil War reference books exist there is no single compendium that contains important details about the combatant states and territories that Civil War researchers can readily access for their work People looking for information about the organizations activities economies demographics and prominent personalities of Civil War states and state governments must assemble data from a variety of sources with many key sources remaining unavailable online This volume provides a crucial reference book for Civil War scholars and historians professional or amateur seeking information about New York during the war Its principal sources include the Official Records state adjutant general reports legislative journals state and federal legislation executive speeches and proclamations on the federal and state levels and the general and special orders issued by the military authorities of both governments North and South Designed and organized for easy use this book can be read in two ways by individual state with each chapter offering a stand alone history of an individual state s war years or across states comparing reactions to the same event or solutions to the same problems Environment, Space, Place - Volume 5, Issue 2 (Fall 2013) C. The Vermonter Charles Spooner Forbes, Charles R. Cummings, 1895 Placing Memory and Remembering Place in Canada James Opp, John C. Walsh, 2010-11-01 Placing Memory and Remembering Place in Canada maps a fascinating terrain in memory studies by shifting the focus from nation and empire to local places that sit at the intersection of memory making and identity formation main streets city squares village museums internment camps industrial wastelands and the rural landscape While offering a unique perspective on the politics of place and memory across differing chronologies and geographies the first part of the book Commemorations traces how local expressions of memory such as celebrations museums statues postcards and plaques have contributed to a sense of place and belonging in twentieth century Canada The second part Inscriptions in turn explores how ordinary Canadians have embedded their memories of place in oral stories photographs and the landscape itself With its focus on the materiality of image text and artefact these essays argue for an understanding of place as imagined made claimed fought for and defended always in a state of becoming Report of the Commission on Agricultural Workers United States.
