Chanak Affair:

The Chanak Affair David Walder, 1969      The Nagorno-Karabakh Conflict M. Hakan Yavuz, Michael Gunter, 2022-07-01

This book presents a comprehensive overview of the Nagorno Karabakh conflict the long running dispute between Armenia and Azerbaijan over the Armenian majority region of Azerbaijan It outlines the historical development of the dispute explores the political and social aspects of the conflict examines the wars over the territory including the war of 2020 which resulted in a significant Azerbaijani victory and discusses the international dimensions      Arguing about Empire Martin

Thomas, Richard Toye, 2019-02-21 Arguing about Empire analyses the most divisive arguments about empire between Europe's two leading colonial powers from the age of high imperialism to the post war era of decolonization Focusing on the domestic contexts underlying imperial rhetoric Arguing about Empire adopts a case study approach treating key imperial debates as historical episodes to be investigated in depth The episodes in question have been selected both for their chronological range their variety and above all their vitriol Some were straightforward disputes others involved cooperation in tense circumstances These include the Tunisian and Egyptian crises of 1881 2 which saw France and Britain establish new North African protectorates ostensibly in co operation but actually in competition the Fashoda Crisis of 1898 when Britain and France came to the brink of war in the aftermath of the British re conquest of Sudan the Moroccan crises of 1905 and 1911 early tests of the Entente Cordiale when Britain lent support to France in the face of German threats the 1922 Chanak crisis when that imperial Entente broke down in the face of a threatened attack on Franco British forces by Kemalist Turkey World War Two which can be seen in part as an undeclared colonial war between the former allies complicated by the division of the French Empire between De Gaulle's Free French forces and those who remained loyal to the Vichy Regime and finally the 1956 Suez intervention when far from defusing another imperial crisis Britain colluded with France and Israel to invade Egypt the culmination of the imperial interference that began some eighty years earlier      From the Sultan to Atatürk

Andrew Mango, 2010-09-14 World War I sounded the death knell of empires The forces of disintegration affected several empires simultaneously To that extent they were impersonal But prudent statesmen could delay the death of empires rulers such as Emperor Franz Josef II of Austria Hungary and the Ottoman Sultan Abd lhamid II Adventurous rulers Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany and Enver Pasha in the Ottoman Empire hastened it Enver's decision to enter the war on the side of Germany destroyed the Ottoman state It may have been doomed in any case but he was the agent of its doom The last Sultan Mehmet VI Vahdettin thought he could salvage the Ottoman state in something like its old form But Vahdettin and his ministers could not succeed because the victorious Allies had decided on the final partition of the Ottoman state The chief proponent of partition was Lloyd George heir to the Turcophobe tradition of British liberals who fell under the spell of the Greek irredentist politician Venizelos With these two in the lead the Allies sought to impose partition on the Sultan's state When the Sultan sent his emissaries to the Paris peace conference they could not win a reprieve The Treaty of Sèvres which the Sultan's government signed put an end to Ottoman independence. The Treaty of Sèvres was not ratified. Turkish nationalists with military officers in the lead defied the Allies who promptly broke ranks each one trying to win concessions for himself at the expense of the others. Mustafa Kemal emerged as the leader of the military resistance. Diplomacy allowed Mustafa Kemal to isolate his people's enemies: Greek and Armenian irredentists. Having done so he defeated them by force of arms. In effect the defeat of the Ottoman empire in the First World War was followed by the Turks' victory in two separate wars: a brief military campaign against the Armenians and a long one against the Greeks. Lausanne, where General Ismet succeeded in securing peace on Turkey's terms, was the founding charter of the modern Turkish nation state. But more than that it showed that empires could no longer rule peoples against their wishes. This need not be disastrous. Mustafa Kemal demonstrated that the interests of developed countries were compatible with those of developing ones. He fought the West in order to become like it. Where his domestic critics wanted to go on defying the West, Mustafa Kemal saw that his country could fare best in cooperation with the West.

The Lights that Failed Zara S. Steiner, Zara Steiner, 2007. In The Lights that Failed Steiner challenges the assumption that the Treaty of Versailles led to the opening of a second European war and provides an analysis of the attempts to reconstruct Europe during the 1920s.

Conversing Identities Konstantina Georganta, 2012-01-01. Conversing Identities: Encounters Between British Irish and Greek Poetry 1922-1952 presents a panorama of cultures brought in dialogue through travel, immigration and translation, set against the insularity imposed by war and the hegemony of the national centre in the period 1922-1952. Each chapter tells a story within a specific time and space that connected the challenges and fissures experienced in two cultures with the goal to explore how the post-1922 accentuated mobility across frontiers found an appropriate expression in the work of the poets under consideration. Either influenced by their actual travel to Britain or Greece or divided in their various allegiances and reactions to national or imperial sovereignty, the poets examined explored the possibilities of a metaphorical diasporic sense of belonging within the multicultural metropolis and created personae to indicate the tension at the contact of the old and the new, the hypocritical parody of mixed breeds and the need for modern heroes to avoid national or gendered stereotypes. The main coordinates were the national voices of W. B. Yeats and Kostas Palamas, T. S. Eliot's multilingual outlook as an Anglo-American, M. C. P. Cavafy's view as a Greek of the diaspora, displaced William Plomer's portrayal of 1930s Athens, Demetrios Capetanakis' journey to the British metropolis, John Lehmann's antithetical journey eastward, as well as Louis MacNeice's complex loyalties to a national identity and sense of belonging as an Irish classicist translator and traveller.
